KENTUCKY DOWNS READY FOR OPENING DAY

By Nathan Mayberg

With its uniqueness in the United States as a turf-only facility with a European-modeled course—along with unparalleled $130,000 maiden races and allowance events of $140,000-$145,000—Kentucky Downs has become a destination with its short, five-program meet.

Horsemen are flooding the entry boxes of the Franklin, Ky. track, so much so that 53 horses were entered into the meet's first maiden race, an event for 2-year-old fillies. Opening day was scheduled for Sept. 2, but was postponed to Sept. 6 because of heavy rain in the area.

Stakes coordinator Rick Albright said the good part of the meet that runs through Sept. 14, is that there will be "huge fields in every race." On Wednesday, seven of the 10 races have fields of 16 entered, though a maximum of 12 will be permitted to run.

Trainer Mark Casse, routinely a major player at the meet, said he entered five horses for opening day, but only one horse drew in—$350,000 Exakta Systems Juvenile Fillies Stakes starter Moonlight Rain. The Point of Entry filly beat males to break her maiden upon debut going six furlongs on turf at Woodbine July 22. A homebred for longtime Casse client Gabe Grossberg, her fortunes may depend on how she takes to a new turf course.

"It's all about who adapts to their surroundings there," Casse said of the demanding uphill course. "It's big and it's wide open," which makes the turf course similar to Woodbine,

Daddy's Lil Darling, seen galloping at Churchill Downs before her second-place finish in the Kentucky Oaks, will run at Kentucky Downs this meet he said.

"It's a great short meet but it's very difficult to get in," Casse added, suggesting, "Maybe cut the purses just a little" and run more days.

Casse said he has to tell owners anxious to run at the rich meet that there is a good chance they won't draw in.

"We've asked for more dates every year," Albright said.

Average purses for 2017 will total approximately $1.6 million a day, which is up slightly from last year. Even running last will get an owner $750, up from $500 last year.

The purses are enhanced by the instant racing machines of the facility located near the Tennessee border.

Approximately $5 million in upgrades were made to the facilities in the off-season, including new dining and seating areas. There will be new Jumbotron screens in the infield. The back porch will have a glass-enclosed, air-controlled seating area upstairs with a bar and buffet called the "Director's Room" at a cost of $50. That is in addition to the Turf Club Tent, where $50 will get you a seat outside near the back porch with a buffet and access to a bar. There is also seating at the Finish Line Tent with a "casual" buffet at $35 per ticket. There are 200 general admission stadium seating seats. General admission is free and racing fans are invited to bring their own chairs or blankets.

Coming up Sept. 7, Kentucky Downs will raise money for Old Friends, the Thoroughbred retirement facility near Georgetown, Ky. Kentucky Downs provides a home for eight horses at its facilities through Old Friends. The sponsorships of the races Sept. 7 will be donated to Old Friends, Albright said. The winner of that race's signature race, the $150,000 Old Friends Stakes, will be guaranteed a home at Old Friends after their retirement with all fees paid.

The meet's biggest day will be Sept. 9, when three grade 3 races are run—the $600,000 Calumet Farm Kentucky Turf Cup, $350,000 Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint, and the $350,000 Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf.

Michael Maker is seeking a third straight training title, and has horses entered in six of Saturday's races.

"We are going to be very active," he said. "We have horses for the majority of the book."

Maker plans to run grade 3 winner Taghleeb, second in the Aug. 12 American St. Leger Stakes (G3T) at Arlington International Racecourse, in the Sept. 9 Kentucky Turf Cup. Maker also has a number of 2-year-olds he is looking to run, including Queen's Fate, an unraced Canadian-bred daughter of Artie Schiller.

"She is showing a lot of talent," Maker said.

Another 2-year-old who could debut for Maker at the meet is Track Rose, a Calumet Farm-owned daughter of Oxbow out of the Storm Cat mare Jewel for a King. Jewel for a King is out of Jewel Princess, the champion older mare in 1996.

Trainer Ken McPeek plans to run his top 3-year-old filly Daddys Lil Darling at the meet. The filly, who was second in the Longines Kentucky Oaks (G1) to Abel Tasman, has since alternated between turf and dirt starts, most recently finishing fifth in the Coaching Club American Oaks (G1) at Saratoga Race Course. Prior to that, she finished 2 1/4 lengths behind New Money Honey in the July 8 Belmont Oaks Invitational Stakes (G1T).

"She's doing great," McPeek said.

With takeout rates lower than most tracks in the country and large fields, Kentucky Downs has been ranked as the No. 1 track for bettors by the Horseplayers Association of North America.

This meet will also feature the introduction of a new set of wagers called the "Jockey 7." The Jockey 7 begins with Race 4, though it will be posted as Race 11 on the betting menu. Bettors will have the opportunity to guess the jockey that will score the most points in a variety of wagers.

"It's a good way to spend a little money for a lot of racing," Albright said. BH

PRACTICAL JOKE TO ASHFORD STUD FOR 2018

By BloodHorse Staff

Multiple grade 1 winner Practical Joke will enter Coolmore's Ashford Stud near Versailles, Ky. for the 2018 season, the global operation announced Sept. 5.

Owned by Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence, Practical Joke recently annexed the Aug. 26 H. Allen Jerkens Stakes (G1) at Saratoga Race Course to remain unbeaten in five starts around one turn. That marked the third top-level win for the son of Into Mischief, who captured the Hopeful Stakes and Champagne Stakes (both grade 1) as a 2-year-old.

"He's a very, very good-looking horse. He's by one of the hottest sires in the country, and he's amongst the very best racehorses of his generation," said Ashford Stud manager Dermot Ryan. "We're absolutely delighted that he's coming to stand here."

Practical Joke will likely make his next start in the Nov. 3 Las Vegas Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (G1) at Del Mar. This year the 3-year-old bay also captured the July 8 Dwyer Stakes (G3) and was beaten just a half-length while running third in the July 30 Betfair.com Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1). The only time he has been worse than third in 10 starts came when he finished fifth in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (G1).

Trained by Chad Brown, Practical Joke has five wins from 10 starts with $1,670,800 in earnings. He is out of the stakes-placed Distorted Humor mare Halo Humor and was bred by Whispering Oaks in Kentucky. BH

Keep Up at Mill Ridge Farm

TERRIBLE STORY IS KEEP UP'S FIRST WINNER

By Eric Mitchell

 @BH_EMitchell

Mill Ridge Farm's miracle stallion Keep Up was rewarded with his first winner Sept. 2 when Terrible Story rallied in deep stretch to win a maiden race at Camarero Race Track in Puerto Rico.

The filly out of Auntie Soph, a winning daughter of Valiant Nature, placed in a grade 3 stakes in her first start before overcoming adversity to secure a win her second time out. A bad break left her immediately at the rear of a nine-horse field, and she was forced to run six-wide through much of the six-furlong trip. She displayed her grit in deep stretch, however, rallying to catch favored Golda to win by a neck.

Terrible Story was bred in Kentucky by Brownstead Farm and sold as a yearling for $4,000 by Mill Ridge Sales to Angel Luis Delvale at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton October sale. The filly now races for Establo Veterano and is trained by Alison Escobar.

Keep Up is a 10-year-old son of Unbridled's Song who faced a grim prognosis after fracturing a knee as a yearling. Surgery, patience, and the young colt's cooperative attitude allowed him to heal. He went on to win the River City Handicap (G3T) and one other stakes at Arlington International Racecourse before being retired in 2014 to Alice Chandler's Mill Ridge, which foaled, raised, and raced him. Keep Up stood the 2017 season there for $4,000. BH

DEL MAR'S SUMMER MEET SEES DROP IN EQUINE FATALITIES

By Jeremy Balan

@BH_JBalan

Del Mar's annual summer meeting came to a close Sept. 4 and the most crucial issue facing the seaside racetrack saw a marked improvement.

There were six equine fatalities during the summer meeting that began July 19—four during racing, one during training, and one a "sudden death" in the barn area, according to California Horse Racing Board equine medical director Rick Arthur—after a 2016 summer season that saw 17 deaths.

"The one that we were really concerned about—No. 1 on our list—was to get the injuries down and they've really went down," said Del Mar Thoroughbred Club president Joe Harper. "I just want to thank (track superintendent) Dennis Moore and his crew for doing an amazing job of getting this track into shape and keeping it there."

Average daily all-sources handle ($12,494,000) increased 5.1% compared to 2016 and average field size increased from 8.3 last year to 8.6 in 2017. The track's "Ship and Win" program, which rewards out-of-state horses who enter and win at Del Mar, attracted 109 new runners during the meet's 36 days. In 2016 the program drew 120 runners for 39 racing days.

BENOIT PHOTOGRAPHY

Putting out the safest product possible was a top priority at Del Mar's summer meeting

"Maybe I shouldn't have been surprised (about the increased field size), but I was," Harper said. "I think the racing office did an amazing job. (Tom Robbins) and David (Jerkens) are two of the best in the business."

With the track's first Breeders' Cup on the horizon in November, putting out the best, safest product was a priority.

"(With the) Breeders' Cup, we better be on our 'A' game," Harper said. "I was very, very pleased with just about everything I saw this year. ... We had very few problems, and Del Mar always seems to (have) some strange problems, and we really didn't have any."

The competition for top trainer came down to the last race Monday, as Touching Rainbows' victory tied trainer Phil D'Amato with Richard Baltas for the lead at 18 wins. Baltas, who won earlier in the card with Kathy's Song, earned the first training title of his career.

"I went out with a win and (D'Amato) went out with a win," Baltas said. "It's not an easy meet to win and I'm just happy for my staff and all the work they put in. It's really rewarding. It was a tight race and I've never been in this position before, so it feels really good. It means a lot."

The race for top jockey went to Flavien Prat, who pulled clear late with seven wins in the meet's final three days to finish with 35. Rafael Bejarano and apprentice Evin Roman finished tied for second with 29 wins apiece.

"To win the title was what we wanted to do," said Prat's agent, Derek Lawson. "That was the goal he set after sharing it last year with Rafael."

Hronis Racing, on the strength of Stellar Wind's victory in the Clement L. Hirsch Stakes (G1) and Accelerate's upset win over Arrogate in the TVG San Diego Handicap (G2), was the top owner by earnings ($854,400) and in total wins (7), two victories clear of a three-way tie for second between Reddam Racing, DP Racing, and Calumet Farm. BH

Sales Update

F-T GULFSTREAM SELECTED 2-YEAR-OLDS IN TRAINING

FASIG-TIPTON SHIFTS DATE OF GULFSTREAM SALE FOR 2018

By BloodHorse Staff

Fasig-Tipton will shift the date of its 2018 Gulfstream selected 2-year-olds in training sale to March 28, three weeks later than its exercise this year.

The 2017 sale was held March 1. In moving the 2018 date, the auction will now be part of the lead up to the Florida Derby (G1) scheduled for March 31 at Gulfstream Park.

The Under Tack Show will be conducted March 26.

"Moving our 2018 Gulfstream Sale three weeks later allows us to be a part of the excitement of Florida Derby week," said Fasig-Tipton president

Boyd Browning. "Positioning the sale around the Florida Derby should bring the auction added exposure, and the timing should work well for both buyers and sellers."

Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (G1) winner Nyquist is a graduate of the Gulfstream sale. This year's edition featured multiple million-dollar horses, including a $1.5 million Uncle Mo filly now named Beyond Grace and a More Than Ready colt now named Goren, both consigned by Cary Frommer and both still unraced for Lawrence Best's OXO Equine. Best was the leading buyer at the 2017 Gulfstream sale, followed by Kerri Radcliffe. Frommer was the leading consignor. BH

By Frank Angst

@BH_FAngst

With a dominating victory in the Sept. 2 Woodward Stakes Presented by NYRA Bets (G1), in which he drew off in the Saratoga Race Course stretch for a 10 1/4-length victory, Gun Runner earned an Equibase Speed Figure of 131—the top ESF of his career.

That 131 figure not only topped this week's numbers, but ranks among the top Equibase Speed Figures earned in the past five years. The only higher ESFs awarded since Sept. 5, 2012, have been the 132s earned by California Chrome in his victory in last year's Winter Challenge Stakes, Flintshire in last year's Longines Sword Dancer Stakes (G1T), and Main Sequence in the 2014 Longines Breeders' Cup Turf (G1T).

That makes Gun Runner's 131 the second-fastest figure in the past five years earned in a dirt race. After finishing second to Arrogate in this year's Dubai World Cup sponsored by Emirates Airline (G1), Winchell Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm's chestnut runner has won three straight grade 1 races, earning a 120 ESF in the Stephen Foster Handicap, a 127 ESF in the Whitney Stakes, and the 131 in the Woodward.

'WAR HORSE' CRUSHING BLOSSOMS IN SHOW RING

By Erin Shea

 @BH_EShea

Georgia Keogh was pleasantly surprised in 2015 when her father James Keogh, who owns Grovendale, casually mentioned he had a horse arriving for her one day. When the gray gelding got off the trailer, Keogh was immediately enamored with the son of Giacomo, who caught her father's eye two years earlier at Parx Racing.

"It was kind of by chance," Keogh said of how she ended up owning the horse, named Crushing. "My dad was at Parx to claim another horse and he happened to see Crushing being worked that morning. He asked around (about the connections), and mentioned (to the owner), 'When you're done with him, we'll take him.'

"He said that on the track (Crushing) had a real good going about him—a long extension, using his body," she added. "It's funny because I have to explain it through hearing him say it, because I didn't know anything about this horse until the day he arrived on the farm."

Owned by Joseph Riccelli while on the track, Crushing made his last start at Belmont Park in May of 2015. The Chad Brown trainee was eased in a one-mile claiming event and was then retired

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Crushing, who Keogh describes as a "total ham," in his paddock at Grovendale Farm near Lexington from racing. Bred by Bill Justice and Dr. Naoya Yoshida out of the stakes placed Quiet American mare American Czarina, Crushing finished his on-track career with a 4-4-4 record from 25 starts, with earnings of $222,593.

Now, two years after their first meeting, Keogh and Crushing have won back-to-back "War Horse" divisions at New Vocations Charity Horse Show in Delaware, Ohio. They're preparing for their next competition, the New Vocations Charity Thoroughbred Show presented by The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program, Sept. 8-9 at the Kentucky Horse Park. For these shows, a "War Horse" is defined as a horse who made at least 50 starts or made more than $100,000 in career on-track earnings.

"I'm really excited because I always have fun showing him in the War Horse classes," Keogh said. "You have Thoroughbreds of all kinds (at the show), but War Horse is for horses who have raced a certain amount or earned a certain amount, so it's not just a Thoroughbred people got their hands on early. It should be a really big show, so it'll be interesting."

Immediately following the New Vocations show is the inaugural The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program Championship Horse Show Sept. 10. The TIP Championship will award championships in 12 divisions in hunters, jumpers, and english pleasure, with each division offering at least $1,000 in prize money. The championship awards have already drawn considerable attention in the OTTB hunter/jumper community.

While Keogh is looking forward to the upcoming competition, she doesn't have any immediate goals for Crushing's show career at this time since she's been busy starting a new job. But the lifelong equestrian said the now 9-year-old gelding has been eager to please since day one and has even been out on a fox hunting hound exercise with her father.

"He's been super keen from the beginning," she said. "He's been very keen to do everything and that's how he's been since."

From the moment she first sat on him, Keogh knew Crushing showed a natural ability as a show hunter. Crushing was given eight months off after arriving to Kentucky soon after his last race and was already jumping within a few weeks of beginning his retraining process at Robert Murphy Stables in Lexington, where Keogh grew up riding.

"I'm not quite sure where it came from, but from the minute I sat on him, I knew," she said. "I've tried to make Thoroughbreds (into) hunters before and sometimes it doesn't quite work out, but I knew it was going to work out for him. He was really well into himself and using his body. I really didn't have any doubts about it, surprisingly."

As for owning a Thoroughbred with natural hunter abilities in an era where many top hunter riders are choosing warmbloods as their mounts of choice, Keogh believes off-track Thoroughbreds can excel in many arenas.

"There have been plenty of successful Thoroughbreds documented throughout the years (in the hunter ring)," she said. "There are plenty I've seen doing the A circuit. There's nothing they can't do." BH

TIZNOW LINE ADDS TWO NEW JUVENILE STANDOUTS

By Alan Porter

@pedigreeconsult

When one thinks of Tiznow, precocity isn't the first trait that comes to mind. Despite that, both of the holiday weekend's New York 2-year-old grade 1 events, the Hopeful Stakes and Spinaway Stakes, fell to runners from the Tiznow line.

Winner of back-to-back editions of the Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), Horse of the Year at 3, and a champion again at 4, Tiznow himself didn't start at 2. His first stakes victory, the Affirmed Handicap (G3), came in the July of his 3-year-old season, and his first grade 1 was earned in the Super Derby at the end of that September. Generally, too, as a sire Tiznow is primarily noted for horses that excel at 3 and up, such as Well Armed, Tourist, Colonel John, Tizway, Morning Line, Tiz Miz Sue, Bullsbay, Tough Tiz's Sis, Da' Tara, and Gemologist. He has, however, had his moments with juveniles: champion 2-year-old filly Folklore appeared in his first crop, and he's also been represented by 2-year-old grade 1 winner Strong Mandate, and other 2-year-old graded winners, Tiz Wonderful, Tizahit, Gemologist, Term of Art, and American Lion.

Tiznow's latest 2-year-old standout, Sporting Chance, took Monday's Hopeful Stakes despite nearly throwing the race away with a late swerve. Sporting Chance's dam, Wynning Ride, also showed talent at 2, going down by just a length in the Hollywood Starlet Stakes (G1). She subsequently captured the Iowa Distaff Stakes and took third in the Coaching Club American Oaks (G1). Sporting Chance and Wynning Ride represent an upgrade on the deeds of the immediate family, and in fact Sporting Chance is the mares from the male-line of Candy Ride's grandsire, Cryptoclearance, but Tiznow's full brother, Tizbud, sired grade 1 winner Tiz Flirtatious, out of a mare by Cryptoclearance son Victory Gallop. Also, Sporting Chance is just the third black-type stakes winner, and first graded stakes winner for Candy Ride as a broodmare sire.

Lady Ivanka, who took her record to two-for-two in the Spinaway Stakes, is by one of Tiznow's graded winning 2-year-olds, the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes (G2) scorer Tiz Wonderful. Retired to Spendthrift Farm, Tiz Wonderful was sold to stand in South Korea after the 2014 breeding season. Considering that he always stood at a fairly modest fee, Tiz Wonderful has actually been quite a useful sire, with 25 black-type stakes winners in his first six crops, including an early Spinaway heroine, Condo Commando, and other graded stakes winners S'maverlous, Hunter O'Riley, Scherzinger, In Trouble, My Happy Face, and Big Trouble.

Lady Ivanka is out of Lady Leftenant, an Officer daughter who failed do better than third in her four outings. Lady Leftenant is half-sister to another good juvenile in Jetin Excess, who won three black-type events, including the Moccasin Stakes, and took second in the Hollywood Starlet Stakes (G1). She's also half-sister to three other California-bred stakes winners, the best of whom, Jet West, also took third in the Gulf News Dubai Golden Shaheen (G1). The second dam, Jetinwith Kennedy, won black-type stakes at Golden Gate Fields and Fairplex Park, and overall this has been a useful West Coast family for several generations.

A rare Oklahoma-foaled grade 1 winner, Lady Ivanka is a Relaunch/Relaunch cross, but with a twist, as both her grandsires, Tiznow and Officer, are products of a Relaunch/Seattle Slew cross. There have been only eight starters carrying both Tiznow and Officer—all by Tiznow or sons out of Officer mares—and in addition to Lady Ivanka, they include last year's Futurity Stakes (G3) captor, Theory. BH
