UNBEATEN ANALYZE IT LOOMS LARGE IN PENNINE RIDGE

By Alicia Wincze Hughes

🐦 @BH_AHughes

Twenty-four hours before his champion stablemate stamped his readiness for the most significant 3-year-old race in the sport, Analyze It had some wondering whether the claim of best sophomore male runner in trainer Chad Brown's barn was still up for grabs.

In his season debut and third career start, the son of Point of Entry kicked off a productive opening weekend at Keeneland for his two-time Eclipse Award-winning conditioner when he left his 10 challengers toiling during his 5 1/4-length triumph in the April 6 Kentucky Utilities Transylvania Stakes (G3T). Though his barn mate, juvenile champion and eventual Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) runner-up Good Magic, prevailed in the Toyota Blue Grass Stakes (G2) one day later, the explosiveness Analyze It showed over the yielding course that afternoon resonated.

"All around, he's just a real special horse," Brown said.

The next opportunity for William Lawrence's unbeaten colt to bolster the already high regards his connections have for him comes June 2 when he faces seven challengers in the $200,000 Pennine Ridge Stakes (G3T) on the inner turf at Belmont Park.

It was on the Belmont Widener Course in October where Analyze It provided the first sample size of his ability, winning a one-mile maiden test by 6 1/4 lengths in his career debut. A test against stakes company was the next logical step—one the bay colt hurdled with ease in the form of a gate-to-wire, 4 1/4-length victory in the Nov. 26 Cecil B. DeMille Stakes (G3T) at Del Mar.

Having been on or near the front end in those first two starts, Analyze It showed he had the handiness to work out a trip in the 1 1/16-mile Transylvania when he broke from the outside post in the 11-horse field and rated kindly in third for jockey Jose Ortiz behind longshot pacesetter Beer Pressure.

"He got the race he needed," Brown said of the Transylvania. "He's had plenty of time since, and we hope he takes another step forward."

Bred in Kentucky by Headley Bell, Nancy Bell, and NATO, Analyze It will break from post 4 in the 1 1/8-mile Pennine Ridge, which is slated to serve as a prep for the June 8 Belmont Derby Invitational (G1T).

Multiple graded stakes winner Catholic Boy, who gave some admirable accounts of himself on the Road to the Kentucky Derby, is set to return to the lawn for the first time since his fourth-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (G1T) in November. The son of More Than Ready was switched to the main track after the Breeders' Cup outing and put himself in the mix as a potential classic runner with a victory in the Dec. 2 Remsen Stakes (G2).

Following a runner-up finish in the Sam F. Davis Stakes (G3) and a fourth-place run in the Xpressbet Florida Derby (G1) in his two starts this year, Catholic Boy was moved back to the turf, the surface on which he captured the Aug. 30 With Anticipation Stakes (G3T) at Saratoga Race Course and won his career debut at Gulfstream Park in July.

William Lawrence (holding shank on right) walks Analyze It into the winner's circle after the Transylvania Stakes at Keeneland

Catholic Boy last visited the winner's circle in December when he took the Remsen Stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack

"The only hindrance in the Pennine Ridge is that Analyze It is an absolute beast," said Jonathan Thomas, trainer of Catholic Boy. "He's a tremendous horse trained by a tremendous trainer, but that's what happens when you run in New York in these races. It's OK. We're really pleased with our horse and where we stand. We're trying to learn a little bit, and it gives us a look for the Belmont Derby and to see if this is the direction we want to take.

"We're not really cranked, cranked for this. We gave him a little time, but the timing is coming up well, and it's a good spot to get started for the summer."

The Graham Motion-trained Untamed Domain also returned to the turf following a brief dirt flirtation with the run-up to the first Saturday in May. Second to Mendelssohn in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, Untamed Domain tried the main track in the Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby (G2) but tired to finish sixth. The son of Animal Kingdom has only been off the board once in seven turf starts, and he backed up that solid form last time out when he finished in a dead-heat for second in the May 5 American Turf Stakes presented by Ram Trucks (G2T) at Churchill Downs. BH

RESPECTED HORSEMAN BILL GRAVES DIES

By BloodHorse Staff

Respected and much-loved Thoroughbred horseman William (Bill) E. Graves, a senior vice president with Fasig-Tipton for 26 years, passed away after a short illness May 30 at the University of Kentucky hospital in Lexington. Bill's son Brian, director of public sales at Gainesway Farm, was at his side for his final days.

A native of Virginia, where he developed a formidable reputation as a competitor on the national show-horse circuit, Bill turned that skill in his early 20s, into being one of the best Thoroughbred yearling showmen at Saratoga and in Kentucky. After stints at several leading Thoroughbred farms in Kentucky, Bill opened Graves Stable, primarily for training and selling 2-year-olds in training. Bill and his late wife Michele were always among the leading consignors at Fasig-Tipton's premier juvenile sale at Calder Race Course in Florida. In 1992, Bill was recruited by Fasig-Tipton to review and manage its selected yearling sale process and, up to the last 10 days of his full life, Bill was working with consignors, pulling together catalogs for the July sale and the Saratoga sale.

As a rider, a Virginia Show Horse Hall of Fame inductee in 2007, a breeder of graded stakes winners, a trainer, a sales agent, and a consultant, there was no aspect of the Thoroughbred industry that Bill did not master. He advised on every phase of the very successful Angus Glen Farm of Art and Gordon Stollery, one of the high points of which was the sales-topping $3 million for a son of Mr. Prospector at the 1999 Saratoga sale.

Through a lifetime of achievements, Bill was unquestionably proudest of the accomplishments of his son Brian as a horseman, and, with his wife Lesley, as the parents of Bill's three treasured grandchildren, Will, Catherine, and Carson. He is also survived by his brother, Reed Graves and his sister, Elizabeth (Ditty) Stone, both of Lynchburg, Virginia.

Funeral arrangements in Lexington will follow. BH

PICKETT IMPRESSES AS FIRST WINNER FOR GOLDENCENTS

By Claire Crosby

@BH_CNovak

Louisiana-bred Pickett was an impressive first winner May 30 for freshman sire Goldencents at Evangeline Downs.

Making his first start for owner Charles Carlton and trainer Glenn Delahoussaye in a 4 1/2-furlong maiden special weight for accredited Louisiana-bred 2-year-olds, Pickett broke sharply under jockey Timothy Thornton and went straight to the lead with four rivals in pursuit. The dark bay or brown gelding posted fractions of :22.93 and :46.37 while increasing his advantage and steadily drew off through the lane under a moderate hand ride to win by 6 1/2 lengths.

The final time was :52.87 on a fast track.

Pickett was bred by William D. Pickett out of the unraced Dixie Brass mare Street Beat and was a $50,000 purchase by his owner from Pickett Thoroughbreds' consignment to the 2017 Equine Sales of Louisiana yearling sale. Street Beat also produced stakes winners Ahead of Her Time (Leestown) and Hisse (Buddha).

Pickett draws off to an easy win at Evangeline Downs

Two-time Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (G1) winner Goldencents, by Into Mischief, counts the 2013 Santa Anita Derby (G1) and Sham Stakes (G3), and the 2012 Delta Downs Jackpot Stakes (G3) among his conquests. He entered stud in 2015 at Spendthrift Farm near Lexington with seven wins and seven seconds from 18 starts, with earnings of $3,044,000. He stands the 2018 season for an advertised fee of $12,500. BH

MARAUD CARRIES MOMENTUM INTO LUCRATIVE PENN MILE

By Frank Angst

@BH_FAngst

Maraud will try to continue a roll of three wins in four starts this season—including a pair of graded stakes scores—in the $500,000 Penn Mile Stakes (G2T) June 2 at Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course.

The Penn Mile is the featured event on Penn National's biggest day of the year, a card that features seven stakes with total purses of $1.3 million.

Treadway Racing Stable's Maraud enters Saturday's one-mile turf race for 3-year-olds off a clear victory in the May 5 American Turf Stakes presented by Ram Trucks (G2T) on yielding turf at Churchill Downs. The son of Blame also captured the Palm Beach Stakes (G3T) on the Gulfstream Park turf this year.

Maraud is one of two horses entered by Todd Pletcher. The multiple Eclipse Award winner also will send out Teresa Viola Racing Stables and St. Elias Stable's Coltanmississippi, who will stretch back out after earning a third-place finish in his turf debut sprinting in the April 14 Bridgetown Stakes on the inner turf at Aqueduct Racetrack.

Pletcher said after Maraud wasn't showing much punch on dirt in his works, he decided he may fare better on turf.

CODY PHOTOGRAPHY

Maraud wins the American Turf Stakes at Churchill Downs

"We found in his dirt work he was doing OK but not finishing quite as strongly as we had hoped," Pletcher said. "We breezed him on the grass and saw a big difference."

Maraud is not the only runner who has shown consistency in the expected field of eight. Oak Bluff Stables' Therapist will look to nail down his first graded stakes score after winning four of his first five career starts, all on turf. Trained by Christophe Clement, Therapist, by Freud, enters off a narrow victory in the March 31 Cutler Bay Stakes at Gulfstream after finishing third to Maraud in the Palm Beach.

Clement, who won the Penn Mile last year with Frostmourne, said Therapist has been "a pleasant surprise."

Robert Lapenta, AJ Suited Racing Stable, and Madaket Stables' Hawkish will make his stakes debut after cruising to a 4 3/4-length win in an optional-claiming allowance race April 15 on the Aqueduct turf, and Live Oak Plantation's He's Bankable enters off back-to-back, frontrunning stakes wins at Tampa Bay Downs and Gulfstream.

Penn National will also feature 3-year-old turf fillies going a mile in the $200,000 Penn Oaks, where two-time grade 3 winner Thewayiam enters off a runner-up finish to last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (G1T) winner Rushing Fall in the Appalachian Stakes Presented by Japan Racing Association (G2T) April 8 at Keeneland. Thewayiam will race as an entry with stakes-placed Classy Dancer. Michael Dubb is part-owner of both horses.

West Coast-based trainer Simon Callaghan has shipped in Treasuring off a clear victory in the Senorita Stakes (G3T) May 5 on the Santa Anita Park turf. Also in the expected field of six is Goodthingstaketime, who finished third in the Appalachian.

The card also includes a pair of Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred Championship Series races: the $200,000 Pennsylvania Governor's Cup Stakes (3 and up, sprint turf division) and the $100,000 Penn Ladies Dash Stakes (3 and up, fillies and mares sprint turf division). Multiple grade 3 winner Pure Sensation is the 2-1 morning-line favorite in the Pennsylvania Governor's Cup, although he'll have to break from the outside in the expected field of 12. Grade 3 winner Morticia is the 5-2 favorite in the Penn Ladies Dash, which drew 12 entries BH  Share this story

CHIEF CICATRIZ SEEKS FIRST GRADED WIN IN ARISTIDES

By Meredith Daugherty

@BH_MDaugherty

Roy Gene Evans' homebred Chief Cicatriz will take a second run at a victory in Louisville in the $100,000 Aristides Stakes (G3) June 2 at Churchill Downs.

With an impressive seven wins in 10 career starts, Chief Cicatriz is not used to spending time outside the winner's circle. After opening his season with back-to-back stakes wins at Turf Paradise Race Course, the son of Munnings was thwarted in his first try at Churchill when he ran fifth in the May 5 Churchill Downs Stakes presented by Twinspires.com (G2).

Since that defeat, the Shawn Davis trainee has been consistent during training, logging two bullet works beneath the Twin Spires. He breezed four furlongs in :46 1/5 May 19 and again May 26 in :47 1/5—the fastest times at the distance out of 76 and 85, respectively.

The six-furlong Aristides would be the first graded win for the 5-year-old gelding, who will break from the outside post 7. James Graham will have the mount.

Joining Chief Cicatriz in the test for 3-year-olds and older will be 4-year-old Awesome Saturday, who finished third in his most recent out in the Commonwealth Stakes (G3) at Keeneland, a neck behind runner-up Limousine Liberal, the grade 1-placed winner of last year's Aristides.

The chestnut colt, also seeking his first graded stakes win, will break from post 6 with regular rider Brian Hernandez Jr. aboard.

Chris Wilkins' Wilbo—who finished second in last year's Aristides, 2 1/2 lengths behind Limousine Liberal—carries high weight of 122 pounds. The 6-year-old Candy Ride gelding opened his season with consecutive wins at Oaklawn Park but has been winless in two starts since.

COADY PHOTOGRAPHY

Chief Cicatriz wins the Feb. 10 Phoenix Gold Cup Handicap

Mr. Crow comes to the race off a May 1 win at Churchill Downs over the same distance in an allowance/optional claimer—his only out this season. With only six career starts, the Tapizar colt has the least experience in the field. He finished off the board in his two previous starts among graded company. BH

GOLDEN GATE PRESENTS UNIQUE ALL-TURF CARD MAY 31

By Jeremy Balan

@BH_JBalan

Golden Gate Fields is doing something outside the box May 31.

After a season of good weather—relative to Bay Area standards, at least—the Golden Gate turf course is in good shape. And with the meet coming to an end June 10, with no turf options for upcoming fair-meet stops at Pleasanton and Sacramento (Santa Rosa is the only fair site with a grass course, and begins its two-week meet in August), a conclusion was reached.

Why not use it?

So, Golden Gate will run a card with all turf races Thursday.

"It was a culmination of a few things," said David Duggan, vice president and general manager of Golden Gate. "Our turf races have been well-received, and the turf track is very mature and takes racing well. We've had good weather, we get a great sea breeze, it holds moisture well, and it rides really well."

Duggan said turf course superintendent Hugo Sandoval is so attentive to the Golden Gate grass, "sometimes I think he's treating it like Wimbledon."

"My thought process on it was, if we've got it, we've got to use it, and we've got to use it as much as we can," Duggan said.

The seven-race card—all claiming races—features six-horse fields in the first five contests (with seven horses in the sixth and 11 in the seventh), but the shorter fields can be attributed to racing for five consecutive days on a holiday week and the ever-present issue of low horse numbers in the Golden State.

"I had hoped for more (entries), but we're just coming off five straight days, and we had very good races over those five days," said Duggan, who joined Golden Gate in January. "We've had increased field size after some difficult years. We've gained momentum and the meet ends June 10, so why not go out with a bang and run as many as we can on the turf? (Racing secretary Patrick Mackey) and I looked at the calendar, and said, 'We can do it.'"

And will an all-turf card be an option for the future?

"I would very much like to do it again, and we'll look at how we're fixed in August," Duggan said of the summer meet for the track on the shore of the San Francisco Bay. "We don't want to reinvent the wheel, but we'd like to continue to make progress in Northern California." BH

ANDREA MANDELLA JOINS NEW VOCATIONS

By BloodHorse Staff

Andrea Mandella has been named development and donor relations director for New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program, it was announced May 30. She will be based out of the Lexington office.

The daughter of Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella, Andrea Mandella has deep roots in the Thoroughbred industry. She grew up in Southern California before receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree from Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio. Following graduation, she held various roles in marketing and real estate while remaining actively involved in the racing industry, both throughout the United States and abroad.

Mandella's role at New Vocations will include expanding the program's development and fundraising initiatives, as well as overseeing donor relations. This will include spreading awareness of the program's mission and aftercare efforts throughout the country.

"I am proud to join the New Vocations organization, and to have the opportunity to help build and contribute to a program that is doing invaluable work with aftercare," Mandella said. "Having spent my entire life involved in Thoroughbred racing, I know the importance and impact of providing care for these horses once their racing careers have ended. New Vocations has established themselves as a leader in these efforts, providing rehabilitation and training to allow for second careers and happy homes. I'm looking forward to a successful future."

"We feel very fortunate to have Andrea join the New Vocations team. She will play an integral role in helping us grow our monetary support base, which is necessary to further expand our aftercare efforts and better serve the industry," said program director Anna Ford.

Founded in 1992, New Vocations has grown into the largest racehorse adoption charity in the country. Its mission to rehabilitate, retrain, and rehome retired racehorses has led to the placement of over 6,400 individuals, with nearly 500 retirees served by the program each year. With six facilities in Kentucky, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, New Vocations serves over 40 racetracks, working directly with owners and trainers in need of equine aftercare options. BH

BELMONT'S FIRST FEATURES HALF TO I'LL HAVE ANOTHER

By Mary LaRue

@BH_MLaRue

A $75,000 maiden special weight for fillies and mares 3 and older May 31 at Belmont Park features one 3-year-old who has a tough act to follow.

Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott will send out Harvey Clarke's homebred Golden Award to her second start in the 1 1/16-mile test, Thursday's first race, where she will face four others as the 8-5 morning-line favorite. The Medaglia d'Oro filly is a half sister to 2012 champion 3-year-old colt I'll Have Another, who is standing at stud in Japan.

I'll Have Another, who was also bred by Clarke, won the Santa Anita Derby (G1), the Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (G1), and the Preakness Stakes (G1) for Reddam Racing and trainer Doug O'Neill.

Both siblings were produced from the Arch mare Arch's Gal Edith, who only raced once but posted a three-quarter-length win.

Golden Award, who rallied seven-wide to finish fifth in her first start at Belmont on May 4, posted two notable four-furlong works over the dirt track in May. The first, May 13, was timed in :47.89, the second fastest of 27 at the distance that day. The most recent earned the bullet May 21, when she went in :47.77 to be the fastest of 81 on the day.

At morning-line odds of 9-5, the 5-year-old Presumptuous comes into the race winless in 18 starts. The Midnight Lute mare finished second in her April 12 and May 4 efforts and seventh in the Sept. 30 Beldame Stakes (G1).

Trainer Todd Pletcher has entered Repole Stable's Creative Princess, who finished fourth in her March 17 debut. The 3-year-old Uncle Mo filly is out of the stakes-placed Pleasant Point, a half sister to grade 1 winner Colonial Colony.

Godolphin's 3-year-old filly Mockery, winless after six tries, and longshot Charlonique, who will make her third start, round out the field. BH

THE VANITY HANDICAP-BORNE MATCH RACE

By Tom Hall

@lordatwar

When Beholder won the 2016 edition of the race now named in her honor, it was called the Vanity Mile Stakes (G1), and the race had just taken that name from the nine-furlong Vanity Stakes. That event had replaced the Vanity Handicap, when the Southern California mainstay for older fillies and mares was moved to Santa Anita Park in 2014 following the 2013 closing of Betfair Hollywood Park.

Inaugurated at the Track of Lakes and Flowers in 1940, the original version was a $10,000 added one-mile race for fillies and mares 3-year-olds and up. While many editions of the Vanity have held their own special drama, only one, the 31st running in 1972, has spurred a match race.

Early in the 1972 West Coast racing season, three fillies vied for bragging rights as the best distaffer:

Mrs. Howard B. Keck's 1971 champion 3-year-old filly Turkish Trousers (Bagdad) sought another title; Fletcher Jones' 6-year-old mare Typecast (Prince John) had crosshairs set on a first championship; and Convenience (Fleet Nasrullah) from the barn of Leonard Lavin's Glen Hill Farm was also hunting for a first title.

The three had swapped wins and placings in stakes at Santa Anita, and for the most part a nose, neck, or head could have changed the outcomes. In January, Typecast defeated Turkish Trousers in the seven-furlong Santa Monica Handicap. Convenience bettered Turkish Trousers in the Santa Barbara City Fair Handicap in February, but Turkish Trousers bested Typecast (second) and Convenience (fifth) in February's Santa Maria Handicap and in March's all-important Santa Margarita Invitational, in which Convenience was runner-up with Typecast third.

To borrow a line from the Bard, "When shall we three meet again?" The answer wasn't "in thunder, lightning, or in rain," but more along the lines of "when the hurly-burly's done, when the battle's lost and won." In the one-mile Milady Handicap, Typecast delivered an authoritative six-length coup with Convenience a nose away from second and Turkish Trousers seventh after a bad trip.

Up next for all three was the 31st Vanity Handicap at nine furlongs. Under 121 pounds, Convenience stalked pacesetter Street Dancer through the first six furlongs accompanied by Turkish Trousers in close proximity, while favored Typecast, carrying top weight of 126, raced midpack. As the frontrunners made the stretch turn, Convenience took control and Turkish Trousers had no answer. Typecast, caught in the shifting traffic pattern, finally cleared herself for takeoff and made a gallant charge to fall a half-length short at the wire. Turkish Trousers finished fourth.

The seeds of the match race took root when Jones, Typecast's owner, read a comment from Convenience's trainer, Willard Proctor, that Convenience was as good as Typecast. Competitive juices flowing, he threw down the gauntlet and offered the idea of a match race. After all was said and done, the race came down to each owner putting up $100,000 and Hollywood Park $50,000 for a winner-take-all at equal weights over nine furlongs June 17.

Before a crowd of some 53,000 fans, Convenience, under regular rider Jerry Lambert, and Typecast with Bill Shoemaker aboard set sail for the richest pot ever in a match race. Convenience, the speed factor, controlled the race, and as the pair moved into the final furlong, little separated them. No quarter was asked or given as Convenience held on to win by a head.

While Convenience might have won the battle, she lost the war as Typecast was named champion older female.

Convenience, however, returned to win the Vanity the following year as well. BH

THOROUGHBRED
INDUSTRY EMPLOYEE AWARDS

PRESENTED BY

 Godolphin

USA
2018

In praise of the unsung heroes

There are outstanding people working at every level in the horseracing and breeding industry. Many of them work behind the scenes and are rarely recognized. The Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards reward those outstanding people at the heart of our industry. The awards are divided into six categories, with trophies for the winners and prize money totalling $128,000.
