Waldgeist wins the Grand Prix de Chantilly in France June 3

STUDY OF MAN TRIUMPHS IN FRENCH DERBY

By Tom Haywood at Thoroughbred Publishers

Flaxman Stables Ireland's Study of Man bested 15 rival 3-year-old colts to land the the €1,500,000 QIPCO Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby, G1) at Chantilly on June 3, coming home a half-length in front of longshot Patascoy. Louis d'Or, another longshot, was a head back in third.

The Pascal Bary-trained colt won the Prix Greffulhe (G2) at Saint-Cloud last time out. He became the 23rd winner of that trial to go on to Derby success and the first since Dalakhani in 2003.

Settled in midfield for much of the race by jockey Stephane

Pasquier, Study of Man challenged in the straight and stayed on strongly, leading inside the final furlong and holding on well to score in a blanket finish in front of Patascoy, who got the better of Louis d'Or and Intelloger for second.

It was the first French Derby win for Pasquier.

"I had to be a wee bit more aggressive than I'd have liked from the start because it was quite a rough race," he said. "That's why I had to force things more than, for instance, in the Prix Greffulhe."

The winner, a 7-2 second choice, finished in 2:07.44 for the 2,100-meter (10 1/2-furlong) test on a Chantilly track rated soft.

The win was Bary's sixth in the French Derby. He last won with Blue Canari in 2004.

"Ever since he arrived in the yard, he's been a fantastic horse because he understands everything," Bary said. "He does everything well. ... To train him is a dream. The horse has more of a miler's pedigree than for a mile and a half, and if we're going to go up to that trip, we had to do it progressively. He's a young horse who'd run only three—and now four—times, and so you mustn't ask the impossible straight away."

Favorite Olmedo was seeking to add the Jockey Club to his score in last month's Emirates Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French Two Thousand Guineas, G1) over 1,600 meters (one mile) at ParisLongchamp, but trainer Jean-Claude Rouget's charge was found wanting over the longer distance. The son of Declaration of War held every chance early in the straight, but stamina failed him in the closing stages and he weakened out of contention, finishing 13th.

"Olmedo was very tense," Rouget said. "He tugged a lot and completely ran out of breath." BH

BOLT D'ORO SMOOTH OPERATOR IN FINAL MET MILE WORK

By Meredith Daugherty

@BH\_MDaugherty

If morning workouts were graded affairs, then Ruis Racing's Bolt d'Oro would be at the top of his class. The 3-year-old multiple grade 1 winner arrived at the Keeneland main track June 3 with his usual panache, as he paused momentarily for onlookers to snap his photo before hitting the dirt oval to do what he does best.

Blink and you would have missed him.

Working solo under jockey Florent Geroux, Bolt d'Oro breezed four furlongs in :48 2/5 and galloped out to five furlongs in 1:01 2/5, according to Keeneland clockers. The son of Medgalia d'Oro didn't turn a hair and was off the track and back at the barn for his bath in less than 15 minutes.

"I was shocked that he went in :48 2/5," said Ned Toffey, general manager at Spendthrift Farm, where he'll stand at stud upon retirement. "He couldn't have done it any easier. I think it's exactly what (owner/trainer) Mick (Ruis) was looking for. The way he did it was just so good. This horse's mind is so great. He does exactly what you ask. He's really a push-button horse."

Sunday's workout was the final drill for the bay colt before he ships to New York for the $1.2 million Runhappy Metropolitan Handicap (G1) June 9. The Met Mile will be his first appearance since a 12th-place finish in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1), the only off-the-board finish of his career.

Geroux will replace Corey Nakatani—who was originally considered to ride—for the one-mile trip at Belmont Park.

"The lowest (Corey) could get was 120 (pounds)," Toffey said. "Florent can make the 114, so that's a big swing and an important weight to have going up against older horses. ... Florent is as good as there is right now. He's a great guy to have aboard."

Bolt d'Oro will be the first 3-year-old to attempt the Met Mile challenge since Sequoia Racing's Imperial Council ran eighth in 2009. He is scheduled to ship Wednesday to Belmont on the same plane as dual classic winner Justify—who is in line for a Triple Crown bid in the June 9 Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1).

Ruis also sent out 4-year-old Union Strike to breeze over the Lexington oval, and gave Geroux a leg up immediately after Bolt d'Oro's move. The Union Rags filly was clocked by Keeneland's team through five furlongs solo in 1:02.

Bred by Pollock Farms, Brian Kahn, and Taylor Brothers Property, Union Strike was purchased by Ruis from Old South Farm's consignment to the 2016 Ocala Breeders' Sales April sale of 2-year-olds in training for $375,000. The multiple stakes winner, who took the 2016 Del Mar Debutante Stakes (G1), is nominated to the June 9 Bed o' Roses Invitational Stakes (G3) for older fillies and mares at Belmont.

JUSTIFY GALLOPS IN PREPARATION FOR FINAL BREEZE MONDAY

By BloodHorse Staff

WinStar Farm, China Horse Club, Head of Plains Partners, and Starlight Racing's undefeated Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) and Preakness Stakes (G1) winner Justify readied for his final breeze before the June 9 Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1) with a 1 1/2-mile gallop under regular rider Humberto Gomez on June 3 at Churchill Downs.

"It was another perfect day of training," trainer Bob Baffert's assistant, Jimmy Barnes, said. "We're very fortunate he has not had a bad day of training. He's simply a pleasure to be around. If it's meant to be, we can win the Belmont."

Baffert was expected to arrive Sunday in Louisville for Justify's breeze at 7:30 a.m. Monday.

California-based jockey Martin Garcia is scheduled to work the dual classic winner.

In other Belmont Stakes news, Calumet Farm's Bravazo galloped about 1 1/2 miles with exercise rider Danielle Rosier aboard for trainer D. Wayne Lukas, and Baffert's second Belmont hope, Gary and Mary West's Restoring Hope, galloped 1 1/2 miles under Gomez.

Winchell Thoroughbreds' Preakness third-place finisher Tenfold, who breezed five furlongs in 1:01.60 Saturday for trainer Steve Asmussen, had a scheduled walk day at Barn 38.

Bravazo is expected to van to New York on Monday, and Tenfold is scheduled to fly from Louisville to New York on Tuesday morning. Justify, Restoring Hope, and Free Drop Billy are scheduled to fly to New York on Wednesday morning. BH

MONOMOY GIRL A MODEL OF CONSISTENCY IN ACORN BREEZE

By Meredith Daugherty

🐦 @BH_MDaugherty

A picture of consistency and poise, Longines Kentucky Oaks (G1) winner Monomoy Girl showed she hasn't lost a step in her month off since the classic victory with an easy half-mile breeze in :47 1/5 at Churchill Downs.

The June 3 breeze was the final timed work for Monomoy Girl—owned by Michael Dubb, Monomoy Stables, The Elkstone Group, and Bethlehem Stables—before she heads to Belmont Park for the $700,000 Acorn Stakes presented by Nassau County IDA (G1) June 9. The Brad Cox trainee worked over the Louisville oval in company with 5-year-old gelding Dazzling Gem. She had splits of :12 2/5, :24, and :36, then galloped out to five furlongs in :59 4/5 and six furlongs in 1:12 3/5, according to Churchill Downs clocker John Nichols. Dazzling Gem was timed at :47 4/5 for four furlongs.

"It was a solid breeze," Cox said. "I was really pleased with the way she was moving, how she cooled out, (and she) scoped fine. We'll just keep her happy and healthy and fly her up on Wednesday."

Triple Crown hopeful Justify will also make his trip to Belmont on June 6, along with several others competing in races on the Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1) undercard.

"I think everybody is on the same plane," Cox said.

The millionaire daughter of Tapizar has had only one misstep in her seven-race career, when she finished a neck behind Road to Victory in the Nov. 25 Golden Rod Stakes (G2) at Churchill. While the one-mile Acorn will be her Belmont debut, Cox is confident the distance falls exactly within his filly's wheelhouse.

"I'm OK with the distance. I think anywhere between a mile and a mile and an eighth is her best distance. Her last time around one turn—actually her only time around one turn—I think was the most impressive race she's run, when she won the Rags to Riches Stakes here at Churchill as a 2-year-old in the fall."

COADY PHOTOGRAPHY

Monomoy Girl heads to the track at Churchill Downs

Jockey Florent Geroux, who has been aboard for Monomoy Girl's last six starts, will have the mount again in the Acorn.

Among several graded stakes winners nominated to the June 9 test is reigning 2-year-old champion filly Caledonia Road, who logged her final bullet work May 26. The Quality Road filly breezed five furlongs in :58.87 over the Belmont main track, the fastest of 12 at the distance. Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith will have the call. BH

HOFBURG HAS FINAL WORK AHEAD OF BELMONT STAKES

By BloodHorse Staff

Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott issued an upbeat bulletin June 3 following Hofburg's five-furlong workout in company with Good Samaritan over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga Race Course, his final preparation for the $1.5 million Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1).

Ridden by Neil Poznansky and working outside of Good Samaritan, who remains on target for the $1.2 million Runhappy Metropolitan Handicap (G1), Hofburg completed the breeze in 1:01.03 before drawing away from his stablemate past the wire.

"We wanted to do a little bit more with Hofburg than with Good Samaritan," Mott said. "We let them both work under the wire, then I wanted to make sure Hofburg had a good gallop out. Both horses went well, and I was very pleased. Hofburg couldn't have worked better."

A Juddmonte Farms homebred, Hofburg broke his maiden in March at Gulfstream Park in his second start before finishing second to Audible in the Xpressbet.com Florida Derby (G1). The son of Tapit finished seventh—8 3/4 lengths behind Justify—in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) after steadying twice on the far turn.

"We loved him as a 2-year-old a year ago at this time, and we liked his chances going into the Kentucky Derby," Mott said. "I know he wasn't very seasoned and he had only three races going into it, and there were probably a few people who were quite skeptical about us running him in the Derby off only three races, but I felt very confident in him, and I think he ran a good race. He didn't get the desired trip, and he had a little traffic problem during the course of the running of the Derby. If you are going to run in the Kentucky Derby, that can happen if you are a closing kind of horse who has to come through traffic."

Mott said he is hopeful that having five weeks between the Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes will help Hofburg turn the tables on Justify.

"Justify is a very good horse," Mott said. "We have a lot of respect for him. He's very talented, he's got a lot of speed. His advantage, probably, is that he gets away from the gate good and shakes loose from the field. Whether that's going to happen or not, I don't know. He has a lot of natural speed."

"We've had a good time to recover from the Derby, which probably makes it a bigger challenge for Justify. I don't think there's any doubt about it. We didn't hit the board in the Derby and didn't see any big advantage to running in the Preakness. We just pointed for the Belmont. We have to do what's best for us, and that's what we did."

Mott is seeking his second Belmont Stakes victory since winning with Drosselmeyer in 2010.

"I have a lot of confidence in (Hofburg)" Mott said. "I feel very good about him. It's no walk in the park. You got to go run around Belmont, a mile and a half. We don't take the challenge lightly, but that's what we're here for."

Mott said Hofburg will ship to Belmont Park on Monday or Tuesday.

"I don't think we have regressed any," added Mott. "I think we have moved forward. The main thing is that he comes out of this work in good shape. We'll get down to Belmont and get him familiar with his surroundings down there, and if that goes well, we will be ready to go."

Albaugh Family Stables' Free Drop Billy also turned in a workout Sunday morning in advance of the Belmont Stakes. The son of Union Rags worked five furlongs in :59 1/5, with splits of :23, :46 4/5 through a half-mile, and a six-furlong gallop out in 1:12 4/5.

"He worked really well today," trainer Dale Romans said. "He did it all on his own and worked fast, galloped out strong and looks healthy and happy walking back. I wanted him to run along (and) stretch his lungs a little bit, but (there was) no time we had to have. But it looked perfect. He had a lot of horse, and he did it easy on his own. It was fast but under control."

Romans doesn't take it personally if Free Drop Billy isn't getting a lot of respect.

"Nah, he flopped in the Derby. We really don't know why," he said of Free Drop Billy's 16th-place finish. "But I've seen him bounce back before. He didn't run real well in the (Sentient Jet) Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1), and he came back and ran well all spring.

"He's training so well. He's always been consistent. Throw out the two races, and he's hit the board every time, and the mile and a half might be the difference-maker. You don't know if the others will like it, and his pedigree says he should. But you don't know until you try."

Free Drop Billy is scheduled to fly to New York on Wednesday. Robby Albarado has the Belmont Stakes mount. BH

GRADE 1 WINNER FAULT INJURED DURING TRAINING

By Jeremy Balan

@BH\_JBalan

Grade 1 winner Fault sustained a possible career-ending injury during a routine gallop June 3 at Santa Anita Park, according to trainer Phil D'Amato.

A day ahead of her final scheduled timed workout for the June 9 Ogden Phipps Stakes (G1) at Belmont Park, the 4-year-old Blame filly owned by Agave Racing Stable and Little Red Feather Racing galloped on the Santa Anita training track Sunday. But after being pulled up, her exercise rider felt something was off.

Her rider hopped off, D'Amato said, and walked the filly back to the Santa Anita barn area, where she began to show signs of discomfort. X-rays revealed a non-displaced condylar fracture in her left hind leg.

Fault will undergo surgery June 4, the trainer said, and will have two screws inserted into her leg to mend the injury. D'Amato said that while her prognosis is good, her ownership will have to make a decision following her recovery whether to continue her racing career or retire her to be bred.

"It comes with the territory," D'Amato said. "They're very fragile horses, and you have to appreciate them while you have them. One bad step can change everything. But the good news is there is an excellent prognosis. She has a 100% recovery chance, and the owners need to weigh how much she's worth as a broodmare (after the surgery)."

After time with trainers Al Stall Jr. and Michelle Lovell, Fault was transferred to D'Amato for her 2018 campaign and never lost in three races at his Santa Anita home base. A previous grade 3 winner with Lovell, Fault took the Buena Vista Stakes (G2T) Feb. 17, switched to dirt to earn her first grade 1 by 6 1/2 lengths in the March 17 Santa Margarita Stakes (G1), and closed into a slow pace to just get up last time out May 6 in the Adoration Stakes (G3). Out of the stakes-winning Horse Chestnut mare Charming N Lovable, she has a 6-3-2 record from 16 starts and $618,795 in earnings ($420,000 came from her three races in 2018).

"She was getting good, and we thought she was a Breeders' Cup-quality filly," D'Amato said. "We're just happy it's not a major or life-threatening injury. She's going to live a good life regardless (of whether she races again)." BH

MOZU ASCOT UPSETS YASUDA KINEN

By Bob Kieckhefer

Mozu Ascot, a Kentucky-bred son of Frankel, shot through a seam between Aerolithe and favorite Suave Richard in deep stretch and rallied to an upset victory in the Yasuda Kinen (G1) June 3 at Tokyo Racecourse.

With Christophe Lemaire aboard, Mozu Ascot scored his first top-level victory—a "Win and You're In" guaranteed entry to the Breeders' Cup Mile (G1) at Churchill Downs in November—and dispatched not only Japan's most successful milers but also middle-distance grade 1 winner Suave Richard.

The only foreign runner, Hong Kong's Western Express, chased the pace and finished 10th. Real Steel, exiting a third-place finish in the Dubai Turf Sponsored by DP World (G1) on World Cup night at Meydan, showed little and finished 15th out of 16 in the field.

Mozu Ascot raced toward the back of the pack down the backstretch in the one-mile feature, was blocked and bumped entering the turn, and had to bide his time while climbing the hill through the first part of the stretch.

Aerolithe emerged with the lead 100 meters out, with Suave Richard to his outside, but Lemaire found the spot between them, drove through, and Mozu Ascot finished a neck in front. Aerolithe held second, three-quarters of a length ahead of Suave Richard.

"I didn't have any specific plan before the race," Lemaire said. "The only thing I wanted to do was to have my horse relaxed and to follow a good horse in the straight. I also didn't plan whether to go inside or outside. As a result, the space became narrow, and we were bumped and pushed towards the inside. I didn't want him to lose his balance, so I waited for a clearing and a good horse to follow.

"Once I found a gap, I asked for full power from the horse with my whip, and he responded very well and kept on strongly to the finish line."

Mozu Ascot started his 4-year-old season with three consecutive runner-up efforts in the Hankyu Hai (G3) at 1,400 meters (seven furlongs) in February, the Yomiuri Milers Cup (G2) in April, and the Azuchijo Stakes at 1,400 meters last weekend.

Mozu Ascot was bred by Summer Wind Farm in Georgetown, Ky. Out of the multiple graded stakes-winning Hennessy mare India, he now races for Capital System and trainer Yoshito Yahagi.

"Of course, being a Frankel colt, there are lots of expectations for bigger titles and later becoming a great sire," Yahagi said. "Many of the fillies sired by Frankel tend to be rather highly strung, but this colt is easy to handle and great to work with."

John Size saddled Western Express, his 10th Yasuda Kinen runner with nary a win to show it.

"We thought that he ran as good as he could, but the horses in the race, they were just too strong for him" Size said. "He stood in the gate quietly, jumped well on the terms of the other horses. He had a nice run in the first section of the race, he was fifth one off the fence, so you couldn't ask for better than that. He committed to make a run and just wasn't strong enough to get up the hill and up to the line." BH

PINK LLOYD CLAIMS 11TH STRAIGHT STAKES IN ACHIEVEMENT

By Jeremy Balan

@BH\_JBalan

Canadian Horse of the Year Pink Lloyd won as easily as expected in the US$96,500 Achievement Stakes, but he went through his share of drama June 3 at Woodbine to bring home his 11th straight stakes win.

Off at 1-20 in a four-horse field, Entourage Stable's Old Forester gelding reared at the start—nearly sending jockey Eurico Rosa da Silva out of the saddle—but got out well enough to get to the front of the field in the six-furlong sprint for Ontario-breds.

But he was not without an early challenge. Second-choice (20-1) Lokinforpursemonee immediately pressed Pink Lloyd on the inside, and the fractions were swift. The first quarter went in :21.82 as Lokinforpursemonee held a half-length advantage, but by the time they reached the quarter pole with a half-mile time of :44.58, Pink Lloyd opened up a one-length lead.

With a quick tap of the whip from da Silva at the top of the lane, Pink Lloyd kicked well clear, and the jockey continued on to the wire with a hand ride aboard the 6-year-old gelding. Conquest Lemonraid made a late bid to get second but was no threat to the winner, who galloped to the wire and finished three lengths ahead. After the victory, da Silva took one hand off the reins and repeatedly pointed down to his horse.

"He's half-horse, half-freak," said winning trainer Robert Tiller. "He just wants to run. He wants to go after them, and you (saw Lokinforpursemonee's jockey) Rafael (Hernandez) do a little :44 and change half to try to get us beat, but that's horse racing.

"He won with his ears up, eased, and he didn't have any horses left to run at. I'm so proud of him. This horse put a huge hole in my heart. I'm so in love with him. I really, truly am. I'm so affected by this horse."

The win in 1:09 pushed Pink Lloyd's earnings to US$817,284, and he has a 14-1-0 record from 16 starts. His stakes win streak began in April 2017 when he took the Jacques Cartier Stakes, and it includes graded scores in the Vigil (G3) and Kennedy Road (G2). All of his starts have been over the Woodbine synthetic main track.

"We're enjoying this run," Tiller said. "It's going to end one day. I've said it many times, but, you know, the party is still on."

Bred by Jon Carey, out of the Great Gladiator mare Gladiator Queen, Pink Lloyd was a

$28,446 purchase out of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (Ontario Division) Canadian-bred yearling sale in 2013. BH

TIMELINE WINS BELMONT ALLOWANCE, TAPWRIT THIRD

By Meredith Daugherty

@BH\_MDaugherty

Nearly a year after he won the Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1), Tapwrit loaded into the gate at Belmont Park for the first time in 10 months and stepped down from graded company in a bid to win an optional-claiming allowance and kick-start his 4-year-old campaign June 3.

Sidelined by trainer Todd Pletcher at the end of his sophomore season because of a foot issue, Tapwrit hesitated coming out of the gate but settled early on the outside in third behind Hoffenheim, who broke well and set fractions of :23.21 and :45.93 through a half-mile.

Angled out three wide under jockey Jose Ortiz, Tapwrit made his move on the far turn and took charge of the field at the top of the lane. Unwilling to yield, Hoffenheim pressed the pace as they moved into the stretch and ran head to head with Tapwrit as they headed into the final furlong.

The 1 1/16-mile test appeared to be a battle of wills between Tapwrit and Hoffenheim, but 2017 Peter Pan Stakes (G3) winner Timeline was just getting started.

Angled out under jockey Javier Castellano as they reached the final sixteenth, Timeline seized his opening and cut through the gap between the leaders to shake free, and crossed the wire 1 1/4 lengths ahead in a final time of 1:40.87. Hoffenheim, Tapwrit, and You're to Blame were awarded second, third, and fourth place,

"I was very pleased with his first start back in 10 months," Pletcher said of Tapwrit. "He wasn't standing perfectly, he kind of broke out a little, and recovered quickly. He put in a good, long, sustained run. I think he's come back in good shape, and this is the kind of race we were looking for to get the year started. ... Naturally we wanted to win, but all things considered I thought it was a big effort and, hopefully, a sign of big things to come this summer."

Timeline was a $500,000 purchase by Woodford Racing at the 2015 Keeneland September yearling sale. The 4-year-old son of Hard Spun began his career with four consecutive wins but was unplaced in his last two graded tries. His first win of the year improved the colt's record to 5-0-1 in eight starts with $342,500 in earnings. BH

CURLIN'S APPROVAL RETURNS TO THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

By Mary LaRue

@BH\_MLaRue

Going off at odds of 2-5, Curlin's Approval benefited from a drop in class and returned to the winner's circle with an easy score in the $75,000 Ana T. Stakes on June 3 at Gulfstream Park.

The 5-year-old daughter of Curlin, bred and trained by Happy Alter for Alter's Racing Stable and Bridlewood Farm, had not won since the Barely Even Stakes one start prior to finishing 13th in the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint (G1) at Del Mar in November. She finished second twice and fifth in her last three grade 3 starts at Gulfstream and has had a 3 1/2-month layoff since then.

"This race was really what we needed as a steppingstone," Alter said. "Having that time off that she didn't race, this was really the first step in going on to the Princess Rooney (Handicap, G2)."

In the seven-furlong Ana T. for fillies and mares 3 and up, Curlin's Approval bounced out of the gate and inherited the lead, but Ms. Scarlet Fever shuffled up to take over. Tyler Gaffalione let Curlin's Approval settle into second just off the leader's flank as the first quarter-mile went in :23.57.

As they headed into the turn, Curlin's Approval moved within a head of the lead, with Yes I'll Go following and a half-mile going in :46.66. Rich Mommy made a strong move to the outside, but as they came off the turn, Gaffalione shook the reins and Curlin's Approval opened up easily to score by three lengths. Final time for the distance was 1:22.72 over a fast track.

"As easy as it gets. Happy had her ready today," said Gaffalione after riding his fourth winner of the day. "I was just a pilot."

Rich Mommy got up for second, and Ms. Scarlet Fever held for third over Yes I'll Go. Doritza completed the field.

Curlin's Approval brought her earnings to $595,565 and bumped her record to 8-3-0 from 18 starts, which includes scores in last year's Princess Rooney Stakes Presented by Hardacre Farm (G2), the Royal Delta Stakes (G2), and the Hurricane Bertie Stakes (G3). She is out of the With Approval mare Withmom'sapproval and is a half sister to grade-2 placed Apologynotaccepted.

The dark bay mare has had steady and quick breezes since returning to the work tab at the beginning of April.

"She really blossomed back to where she was when she won the Princess Rooney last year. Each breeze was dedicated to be a ladder back to the top," Alter said. "The off weather kind of worried me because there were days we couldn't go to the track and days when we just had to jog on the track, but those are conditions that trainers have to live with." BH

OVERVIEW OF FRESHMAN SIRES WITH WINNERS

By Eric Mitchell

@BH\_EMitchell

In the early going on the BloodHorse freshman sire list, 20 stallions have been represented by at least one winner, and two sires—current leader Cajun Breeze, who stands at Stonehedge Farm South, and Uncaptured, who stands at Ocala Stud—lead their class with two winners each.

Positions will change dramatically on this list as we head into the summer racing season, but there are some interesting patterns among the winners so far.

Precocious runners, for example, don't waste any time showing their abilities. Out of 22 winners by first-crop sires through June 2, 82% won in their first start.

And among the four that did not win their debuts, only one finished off the board.

Two sires have repeat winners. Noble Mission's son On a Session is 2-for-2 in France, and Doubletree Farm's Abstraction is represented by a gelding named Hustle Up, who is also 2-for-2 and is the only black-type winner by a North America freshman sire to date. Noble Mission is a group 1-winning, full brother to European champion Frankel and stands at Lane's End in Central Kentucky. Abstraction is a graded-placed, stakes-winning son of Pulpit standing in New Mexico.

Among the broodmare sires of the 22 winners, three are sons of Deputy Minister: Bye Bye J, a son of Uncaptured, is out of the Awesome Again mare Red Pine; Six Pack Gal, a daughter of Boisterous, is out of the Forest Camp daughter Heart Six; and She Got It is a filly by Run It and out of the French Deputy mare Dharma Girl.

Deputy Minister has a well-established reputation as a broodmare sire, ranking among the top 10 in North America for 15 years. The son of Vice Regent became the leading broodmare sire in 2007 on the strength of Curlin's first of two Horse of the Year campaigns. Deputy Minister was runner-up on the leading broodmare sire list three times. He finished second to Mr. Prospector in 2002-03 and behind Sadler's Wells in 2008.

Among the sires of freshman stallions, only two so far have multiple representatives. Coolmore Stud's Magician and Noble Mission are both by Galileo, and Three Chimneys Farm's Will Take Charge and Spendthrift Farm's Cross Traffic are sons of Unbridled's Song.

Look no further than the number of 2-years-old as an indication of which freshman sires are likely to rise toward the top of the rankings through the second half of the year. Among the 20 sires with winners, just more than half have 60 or more first-crop juveniles, and four stallions have more than 100 first-crop foals—Airdrie Stud's Cairo Prince (120), Spendthrift's Goldencents (119), Noble Mission (111), and Will Take Charge (109). Having the numbers never guarantees success, but it most certainly creates more opportunity to be successful. BH
