NECROPSY SHOWS BOBBY ABU DHABI DIED OF SPINAL INJURY

By Jeremy Balan

@BH_JBalan

Grade 2 winner Bobby Abu Dhabi likely died from fractures to vertebrae in his neck, which occurred because of a fall as a result of sesamoid fractures in his right front leg, according to the final necropsy report from the UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine.

The report—which was obtained by BloodHorse via a Public Records Act request through the California Horse Racing Board—detailed the injuries the 4-year-old Macho Uno colt sustained during a training incident July 22 at Del Mar. Jockey Victor Espinoza, who was aboard the Peter Miller-trained Bobby Abu Dhabi for a timed workout, fractured his C3 vertebra when he fell during the incident and is still recovering from that injury.

Along with the sesamoid fractures in the colt's fetlock and damage to multiple cervical vertebrae, Bobby Abu Dhabi sustained fractures in his sacral vertebrae, near the base of his spine. The spinal fractures led to hemorrhaging around his spinal cord, which caused him to stop breathing and effectively ended his life.

"When the horse fractured its ankle—and this is speculation—when the horse fell, he landed on his head, fractured his neck, and when he flipped over on his back, he fractured his sacrum," CHRBR equine medical director Dr. Rick Arthur said Sept. 28 at Santa Anita Park.

It was widely reported that the incident was from an apparent cardiac event because of the way it happened. Immediately after he fell, Bobby Abu Dhabi was motionless on the Del Mar main track and did not appear to have any signs of a catastrophic leg injury. But CHRBR chairman Chuck Winner, with an off-the-cuff remark during a meeting Aug. 23, was the first to publicly indicate a cardiac event was likely not the reason for Bobby Abu Dhabi's death.

"It was a typical sesamoid fracture/fetlock failure. ... The fracture of the neck is the reason the horse died. ... (Bobby Abu Dhabi) wasn't euthanized, and we see this from time to time—the spinal cord was severed and the horse died. The same thing would happen to (a human). Some people end up being paralyzed, and some people end up being dead," Arthur said.

Arthur also said the other tests and findings—examinations, histology, and toxicology—from the necropsy did not show anything out of the ordinary for a 4-year-old racehorse, other than the likely anatomical irregularity, as explained in the report, that Bobby Abu Dhabi had a spleen that "was approximately twice normal size."

Owned by Rockingham Ranch and David Bernsen, Bobby Abu Dhabi had a 4-2-1 record from nine starts, including a victory in the April 21 Kona Gold Stakes (G2), and earned $375,100.

He was bred in Kentucky by T/C Stable out of the Saint Ballado mare Wadena and was a $335,000 purchase by Rockingham from Grassroots Training & Sales' consignment to the 2016 Ocala Breeders' Sales Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training. Grassroots pinhooked the colt for $85,000 from the Cross Keys Sales consignment to the 2015 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. BH

HORSEWOMAN, HUMANITARIAN ANITA MADDEN DIES

By Evan Hammonds

 @BH_EHammonds

Lexington horsewoman Anita Madden, perhaps best known for her extravagant Kentucky Derby Eve parties at her family's Hamburg Place Farm, died Sept. 27. The wife of Preston Madden was 85.

Madden's parties, which benefited the Bluegrass Boys' Ranch, were known around Lexington and throughout the horse industry as flamboyant affairs that attracted plenty of celebrities. The last was held in 1998.

"Her parties were always fabulous and always current ... they were newsworthy," said Isabel Yates, a former vice mayor of Lexington. "You always wanted to know what she was going to do this year. She was always dressed in outrageous costumes. She was fabulous."

In a statement released on Twitter, Lexington mayor Jim Gray said: "Authentic, special, and unique in every way, she was intellectually curious and yet she had a common touch. She infused Lexington with a sense of imagination, she celebrated the unusual, and she welcomed everyone regardless of their station in life. Her life inspired us. Her spirit is irreplaceable."

Beyond the parties, however, Madden had a strong influence on the course of direction for the city of Lexington. In 1977, she was appointed by mayor H. Foster Pettit to the Fayette County Planning and Zoning Commission—a position she held for 17 years.

In 1986, the Maddens asked the city of Lexington to rezone almost half of the 1,325-acre Hamburg Place into a major shopping mall and office park. In October 1988, the Urban County Council voted to allow the development of 168 acres of the farm for a regional shopping mall.

That development, which is much larger today, changed the direction of Lexington forever. Hamburg Pavilion, which runs along I-75 and Winchester Road and was opened in 1997, offers more than 1 million square feet of retail space. It remains under development to this day.

"Independent of her role on the planning commission, she was very active in the development of Hamburg," said Tom Martin, senior planner for Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government. "She attended meetings downtown as it proceeded to be developed and plans were being submitted, and zone changes were processed. ... Anita was very involved on the actual development. Once things were approved by the city, she worked and reviewed landscaping, building elevations and aesthetics, and even tenant mix. And she worked primarily with her son, Patrick.

"They had a standing weekly meeting with her, the staff did, to review what was going on at Hamburg, going down to details as to where to plant trees. ...

There was a lot more depth there than people might realize because of the celebrity aspect of her life.

"In 1998, the Hamburg Pavilion was opening, and she got out there with a plywood sign with an arrow on it, waving it around so people could see and come into the businesses."

Born Feb. 3, 1933, Anita K. Myers attended Western Kentucky University for two years before transferring to the University of Kentucky in Lexington. She married Preston West Madden, the grandson of legendary Thoroughbred breeder John Madden, in 1955.

John Madden owned Hamburg Place Stud west of Lexington and is best known as the breeder of four Kentucky Derby (G1) winners. Preston added one more when he bred eventual Hall of Famer Alysheba.

Following Alysheba's Derby score in May 1987, The Blood-Horse reported:

"I'm very opinionated and strong-willed, and so is he,' said Anita Madden of the marriage. 'It's not easy for a male of Preston's generation to have a woman with opinions.'

"The couple appears to have sorted out their individual roles. She prefers to let him take the credit, and he prefers to let her take the limelight. Both project an ease and grace."

Anita Madden also was appointed to the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (1980-83) and provided support for Blue Grass Farms Chaplaincy and the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. She is survived by her husband and son. BH

MIA MISCHIEF WOULD HAVE HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE IN BC

By Eric Mitchell

@BH_EMitchell

Owner Bill Heiligbrodt said he has no interest in entering a horse in the Breeders' Cup World Championships just to participate. If he enters, he's entering to win.

Heiligbrodt's blazingly fast sprinter Mia Mischief has been giving him plenty of reasons to believe she belongs in the starting gate Nov. 3 at Churchill Downs for the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1).

Campaigned in partnership with Heider Family Stables and Sol Kumin's Madaket Stables, the 3-year-old, graded stakes-winning filly by Into Mischief out of the Speightstown mare Greer Lynn has finished off the board only once in 10 starts. More significantly in terms of the Breeders' Cup, two of her four victories came on Churchill's main track and include her biggest win in the Eight Belles Stakes presented by Kentucky Trailer (G2). In the Eight Belles, Mia Mischief earned a career-high 110 Equibase Speed Rating.

"I will say, the Breeders' Cup being at Churchill does make a difference," Heiligbrodt said. "She has trained there most of her life ... it is like home ground. If it was in California, it might be a little different."

Mia Mischief, trained by Steve Asmussen, made her debut at 2 at Churchill, where she finished second by 1 1/2 lengths. She came back at

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Mia Mischief at Saratoga Race Course

Keeneland in her next start and won by 16 1/4 lengths after leading every step of the sloppy six furlongs and stopping the timer in 1:09.98.

This year, Mia Mischief has been tested only in black-type company. She was second in her 2018 debut at Oaklawn Park in the listed Dixie Belle Stakes and followed up with a win in the listed Purple Martin Stakes and then the Eight Belles.

Her only off-the-board finish came July 8 at Belmont Park in the Victory Ride Stakes (G3), where she led the field through fractions of :22.25, :44.63, and 1:09.75 while locked in a speed duel with Classy Act. She faded to fifth in the final order but was only two lengths behind the winner. Mia Mischief powered back in her next start, the Aug. 4 Longines Test Stakes (G1), where she was beaten at the wire by Separationofpowers.

"The Test was a heartbreaker," Heiligbrodt said. "The really good horses are consistent, and she seems always to be able to lay down good races. If you look at the fractions, she has never had an easy time.

"This filly is very, very fast," he continued. "Steve has done an awfully good job getting her to where she is today, because she gives so much in every race."

Mia Mischief has been nominated for the $250,000 Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes (G2) to be run Oct. 6 during Keeneland's Fall Stars Weekend. She comes into the six-furlong TCA off a second to Dream Tree in the Sept. 2 Prioress Stakes (G2) and last worked four furlongs Sept. 15 in :51.03 at Saratoga Race Course.

Heiligbrodt alone and with partners has had six Breeders' Cup starters. His best performances so far are fourth-place finishes from Posse in the 2003 Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1), Bwana Charlie in the 2004 Sprint, and Appealing Zophie in the 2006 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (G1).

He had another brilliant female sprinter named Lady Tak, who set a stakes record in 2003 in the seven-furlong Test Stakes (1:20.83), which she still owns, and won the Fair Grounds Oaks (G2). She started in the Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1) that year, but nine furlongs didn't suit her and she finished last. Lady Tak redeemed herself the next year when she set a 1:21.09 track record in the seven-furlong Ballerina Handicap (G1), again a record she still holds, and won the Gallant Bloom Handicap (G2).

"She was as amazing as Mia Mischief and unbelievably fast," recalled Heiligbrodt. "Unfortunately, there wasn't a Breeders' Cup race that fit her because they didn't have the Filly & Mare Sprint back then."

The Filly & Mare Sprint was introduced in 2007 at Monmouth Park when the Breeders' Cup expanded its card and changed to a two-day format.

Having a Breeders' Cup race more tailored to Mia Mischief's strengths provides yet another incentive for Heiligbrodt and his partners to take a swing in the World Championships.

Heiligbrodt found Mia Mischief in 2017 at Fasig-Tipton's The Gulfstream Sale, where he originally planned to sell instead of buy.

"I don't buy a lot of horses out of in-training sales," he said. "While I was there, I happened to see her. I thought she might be the fastest horse in that sale, and I like fast horses; that's my style. She was fast and equally good-looking."

The $300,000 filly consigned by the McKathan Brothers caught Heiligbrodt's attention also because she is by Spendthrift Farm's sire Into Mischief. The owner was already racing an Into Mischief stakes winner named Golden Mischief, who won six black-type stakes and earned more than $518,000. She was later sold as a broodmare prospect to Juddmonte Farms for $475,000 at Fasig-Tipton's The November Sale in 2017.

"(Golden Mischief) was an outstanding mare and an unbelievable physical specimen. She was the first Into Mischief that I've had, and I was really excited about the size of the mare and how much speed she had," Heiligbrodt said. "This mare (Mia Mischief) fit that type. She is not a small mare. They just seem to have a lot of talent, so I was surprised I bought her as reasonably as I did. I have now had two Into Mischiefs, and they both have been exceptional. He made his own pedigree and is an outstanding stallion."

How Mia Mischief fares in the TCA at Keeneland will ultimately decide whether she punches her ticket to the Breeders' Cup.

"Though we have been planning in this direction, I leave the decision to Steve," Heiligbrodt said. "You know how horse racing is: You wait until the last possible moment to make a decision."

Still, Heiligbrodt is happy to have a racehorse who has shown enough talent to be a serious Breeders' Cup contender—for himself; his wife, Corinne; and their partners.

"I've done very few partnerships, but we really enjoyed having the Heiders and Sol Kumin as partners," he said. "The horse has done very well since they bought in, so it has worked out well for everyone. The good ones are hard to find." BH

By Jeremy Balan

@BH_JBalan

If there's a turf sprint in Southern California and Stormy Liberal is entered, good luck to everyone else.

It doesn't matter if the 6-year-old Stormy Atlantic gelding is going in a five-furlong dash at Del Mar or an about 6 1/2-furlong race down the hillside turf course at Santa Anita Park. If it's a sprint and it's on grass, odds are Rockingham Ranch and David Bernsen's Stormy Liberal will be in contention late.

And if it's close, Stormy Liberal is going to get his head in front in a photo.

From his last 10 starts sprinting on the turf in Southern California—since trainer Peter Miller claimed the gelding for $40,000 in October 2016—Stormy Liberal has won eight, including another photo-finish victory in the $100,000 Eddie D Stakes (G3T) Sept. 28 at Santa Anita. Of those eight wins, six have been by a neck or less. The two times he was beaten, he finished second.

This time it was a head margin over Miller stablemate Conquest Tsunami. Stormy Liberal wore down his rival on the outside in the stretch and hit the wire under a confident ride from jockey Drayden Van Dyke, who also piloted the bay to back-to-back nose wins over the summer at Del Mar. The final time of 1:10.93 for about 6 1/2 furlongs was just two tenths of a second off the course record.

In the Eddie D, Stormy Liberal stalked his speedy stablemate in second as they headed down the hill, and the stretch run was a two-horse race to the wire.

BENOIT PHOTO

Stormy Liberal outlegs stablemate Conquest Tsunami to win the Eddie D Stakes at Santa Anita Park

Caribou Club closed from eighth to finish third but was no threat to the top two.

"He knows where the wire is, for sure, but think he could've won by three (lengths)," Van Dyke said. "I thought I'd be a little farther back, but he broke like a rocket, so I was up close."

Conquest Tsunami, who set fractions of :21.58 and :42.79 through a half-mile, was the last horse to defeat the 2017 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T) winner in a Southern California turf sprint back in February, when he won the Daytona Stakes (G3T) and bested Stormy Liberal by 2 1/2 lengths.

"Both horses ran great," Miller said. "When they crossed the dirt, I thought (Conquest Tsunami) might be gone. But Stormy—he's got so much heart. ... He just shows up."

Bred in Kentucky by Dapple Bloodstock and Gryphon Investments, out of the Royal Academy mare Vassar, Stormy Liberal now has an 11-8-1 record from 29 starts and $1,368,930 in earnings. BH

LUKAS CLASSIC MAKE-OR-BREAK TIME FOR MIND YOUR BISCUITS

By Alicia Wincze Hughes

@BH_AHughes

Here's what is certain as the twilight begins to descend on the career of the richest New York-bred in racing history.

Barring unforeseen injury or ailment, Mind Your Biscuits will be part of the Breeders' Cup World Championships card Nov. 3 at Churchill Downs. He then will likely have at least one more start under the care of his trainer and co-owner Chad Summers before joining the Shadai Farm stallion roster in Japan, where he will attempt to make North American stud farms sorry for not keeping him home.

Currently in flux for the 5-year-old son of Posse is how long a Breeders' Cup road he will travel as he puts the final touches on his multiple grade 1-winning career. With the 10-furlong Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), Dirt Mile (G1), and six-furlong Twinspace Sprint (G1) all in play, Summers is sending his charge out for a trial run of sorts this weekend in hopes of gaining answers.

After finishing second in last month's 1 1/8-mile Whitney Stakes (G1), his first start around two turns, Mind Your Biscuits will stay at that distance in an attempt to determine his Breeders' Cup target when he starts in the $200,000 Lukas Classic Stakes (G3) Sept. 29 at Churchill.

With three top-level victories to Mind Your Biscuits' credit over sprint distances, it would be easy for Summers to let the horse who brought his first graded stakes win as a trainer play out the remainder of his career in his comfort zone. But even as his charge was coming from the clouds to win back-to-back editions of the Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored By Gulf News (G1), Summers was steadfast in his belief that the chestnut's turn of foot could be successful at eight furlongs and beyond.

In his next start, Mind Your Biscuits finished a close second in the Runhappy Metropolitan Handicap (G1). The Whitney result begged for a bigger sample size. On one hand, Mind Your Biscuits was well-beaten by Diversify, finishing 3 1/2 lengths behind that rival. On the flip side, Diversify was allowed to have everything his own way on the front end, and Summers still saw enough tenacity in the lane from Mind Your Biscuits to give him another chance over a route of ground.

"I thought after the Whitney, with the rain delay and the break Diversify got, I didn't think (Mind Your Biscuits) ran bad," Summers said. "I like the way that (third-place finisher) Discreet Lover was coming up to him, and he dug back in and gained ground on Diversify and galloped out in front of him. It doesn't make me think he's done at a mile.

"We get to kind of watch what goes on the next couple of weeks and make a decision (on a Breeders' Cup race). But if he's going to run in the Classic, he needs to show us something Saturday. No offense to these other horses, they're nice horses, but he's a three-time grade 1 winner, so if he shows up and distance isn't the problem, he wins the race. If he gets beat, we're not going in the Classic."

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Mind Your Biscuits trains at Saratoga Race Course

Even if Mind Your Biscuits wins Saturday, Summers needs to see him do it in a way that convinces him he has another furlong in his tank. Since returning from Dubai and running second by a whisker in the Met Mile, Summers has been trying to put a deeper reserve into his horse with stamina-building workouts.

"We've changed basically everything since we came back from Dubai," Summers said. "Long, slow gallops, two-mile gallops. His works have gone from :46 and :59 to 1:02 and 1:25. He two-minute licked a mile and a quarter before we left (to come to Churchill), so it's about long slow gallops and finishing at the end.

"When he breezed the other day and worked (five furlongs) in 1:02, he broke off in :13 4/5 and got the last three-eighths in :36 flat, and that's what you need to see. We know how fast he is. Now it's a matter of getting him to stay."

Mind Your Biscuits has been installed as the even-money, morning-line favorite in the eight-horse Lukas Classic field and will break from post 6 with Tyler Gaffalione up.

Distance is of little issue for Honorable Duty, who won three graded stakes in 2017, including the Lukas Classic. The Distorted Humor gelding went off form at the end of last season, which included being pulled up in the Clark Handicap presented by Norton Healthcare (G1), but regrouped to win an allowance race at Churchill May 20 before running second in the June 16 Stephen Foster Handicap (G1).

In terms of intrigue, the expected presence of Toast of New York in the Lukas Classic is a tough one to surpass. The runner-up in the 2014 Breeders' Cup Classic returned from a three-year absence in December, following a stud career that never got off the ground in Qatar.

On Saturday, Toast of New York will be making his first start since being gelded and first outing since finishing last of 12 in the Jan. 27 Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes (G1) at Gulfstream Park.

"We're very hopeful we can use this as a prep into the Breeders' Cup," said trainer Jamie Osborne in a video posted on his website. "Obviously, we bit off more than we could chew when we went into the Pegasus. We kind of knew our fate going into that race, because all the way down to the start, he was rather determined to find a girlfriend. His mind really wasn't on the job at all. He's now a gelding, but he's been training really well. I still believe the ability is there. Hopefully, he'll prove to the world he's as good as he once was." BH

VASILIKA, CAMBODIA MEET AGAIN IN RODEO DRIVE

By Jeremy Balan

@BH_JBalan

Vasilika and Cambodia, the top finishers from the Sept. 1 John C. Mabee Stakes (G2T) at Del Mar, will meet again with a grade 1 on the line Sept. 29 in the $300,000 Rodeo Drive Stakes (G1T) at Santa Anita Park.

Winter Quarter Farm's Cambodia, who went off at 4-5 in the Mabee off a 2 1/2-length score in the Aug. 4 Yellow Ribbon Handicap (G2T), had to go wide in the final turn against Vasilika Sept. 1 and came in 1 1/2 lengths behind her rival at the wire. A three-time graded winner on the Del Mar grass, the Tom Proctor-trained Cambodia, a 6-year-old War Front mare, will make her first start on the Santa Anita turf Saturday.

Vasilika, however, will move to a surface she has excelled on, although she is undefeated in two starts on the Del Mar course. The 4-year-old Skipshot filly, who was claimed by trainer Jerry Hollendorfer in February, has won her last four starts on "firm" turf at Santa Anita. Her only loss from six starts on the course was a neck second in a March 4 allowance over turf rated "good."

The top two betting choices in the eight-horse field will seek their first top-level wins in their first try at 1 1/4 miles, but no one in the field has a win at the distance, and the only grade 1 winner is DP Racing's Sophie P, who won the May 26 Gamely Stakes (G1T) at Santa Anita by a nose but has been winless since, including a fifth-place run in the Mabee.

Rounding out the field is 3-year-old Honeymoon Stakes (G2T) winner Paved, who will face older rivals for the first time; European stakes winner Tisbutadream, who finished 10th in the Yellow Ribbon, her first U.S. start; grade 2 winner Beau Recall; grade 3 winner Queen Blossom; and grade 2-placed Amboseli. BH

LONE SAILOR TO FACE LIMATION AGAIN IN OKLAHOMA DERBY

By Mary LaRue

@BH_MLaRue

GMB Racing's Lone Sailor will try to avenge his Super Derby (G3) loss when he takes on Limation once again in the $400,000 Oklahoma Derby (G3) Sept. 30 at Remington Park.

Lone Sailor chased Limation home as the 6-5 favorite in the Sept. 2 Super Derby going 1 1/16 miles at Louisiana Downs to finish 5 3/4 lengths back for second. The son of Majestic Warrior trained by Tom Amoss will make his ninth start of the year in the 1 1/8-mile Oklahoma Derby for 3-year-olds.

His sophomore season has been a demanding one. Lone Sailor has finished second or third in five of his eight starts, which included a second in the Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby (G2). That effort set up the colt for a start in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1), but after being bumped and getting caught in traffic, he finished eighth.

Lone Sailor then competed in the Preakness Stakes (G1), where he finished fifth, just two lengths behind eventual Triple Crown winner Justify. Bypassing the third leg of the Triple Crown, he finished second in the June 23 Ohio Derby (G3) and followed that effort with a third in the betfair.com Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1) one race prior to the Super Derby.

The Steve Asmussen-trained Limation will also be making his ninth start of the year in the Oklahoma Derby. Unraced at 2, the Alternation colt broke his maiden at Churchill Downs in his fourth start, and two races later took an allowance

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Lone Sailor the morning after finishing fifth in the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico race at Ellis Park.

He then made his stakes debut in the Aug. 12 Ellis Park Derby, where he finished ninth, before winning the Super Derby.

"We knew he was a talented colt and were very disappointed in his loss at Ellis," explained Asmussen just after the Super Derby. "Every move we made in that race was wrong. That's why we brought him back so soon."

Asmussen has three more entries among the field of 11 colts: Lionite, who finished fourth in the Super Derby; Kentucky Derby runner Combatant; and Retirement Fund, who had off-the-board efforts in the Southwest Stakes (G3) and Louisiana Derby this year.

One pedigree of note belongs to Let's Go Stable's maiden winner Wooderson, who is an Awesome Again half brother to Hall of Fame runner Rachel Alexandra. The lightly raced colt debuted April 29 for trainer Todd Pletcher and has a record of 1-2-0 from four starts.

The 3-year-old fillies will vie one race earlier on Remington's Sunday card in the $200,000 Remington Park Oaks (G3). Alabama Stakes (G1) runner-up She's a Julie will head the 10-horse field going 1 1/16 miles at morning-line odds of 8-5. The improving daughter of Elusive Quality, also trained by Asmussen, ran off to a 5 1/2-length score over Remington Oaks entrant Cosmic Burst in the July 5 Iowa Stakes (G3) one start before the Alabama.

Todd Pletcher conditions the main competition for the Oaks with China Horse Club's Alberobello, who has won twice and placed second twice in her four starts. BH

FASHION BUSINESS HEADS JOHN HENRY TURF CHAMPIONSHIP

By BloodHorse Staff

Recent grade 2 winner Fashion Business chases his second consecutive win at the level Sept. 30 in the $200,000 John Henry Turf Championship Stakes (G2T) at Santa Anita Park.

A dedicated deep closer, Little Red Feather Racing and Marsha Naify's 4-year-old, English-bred Frankel gelding comes off the best race of his career, the Aug. 18 Del Mar Handicap Presented by The Japan Racing Association (G2T). Far back early under Flavien Prat, who retains the mount, Fashion Business charged up the rail turning for home and drew away by 5 1/4 lengths.

The Phil D'Amato trainee recorded his first graded stakes score in the 1 3/8-mile test and earned a career-high 105 Beyer Speed Figure.

The 1 1/4-mile John Henry will be the first graded attempt at Santa Anita for Fashion Business, who won a mile turf allowance there in May. He departs from the outside in a field of seven.

D'Amato also sends Ya Gotta Wanna to his second graded stakes assignment for Michael House, Aaron Sones, and Mersad Metanovic Bloodstock. Second at odds of 45-1 two starts back in the Del Mar Handicap, the Proud Citizen gelding was switched to dirt Sept. 16 for the restricted 1 1/4-mile Los Alamitos Special Stakes, where he finished fourth.

Liam the Charmer and Secretary At War, both fresh off turf allowance scores, add depth to Sunday's feature.

Idle for more than a year, Liam the Charmer rolled from far off the pace to get up by a nose in a 1 1/16-mile turf allowance Aug. 16 at Del Mar. Trained by Michael McCarthy for Madaket Stables, the 5-year-old Smart Strike gelding returned after going to the shelf off an 11th in the 2017 Del Mar Handicap. His most successful runs in graded company were fourths in Santa Anita's 1 1/4-mile Charles Whittingham Stakes (G2T) and 1 1/2-mile San Luis Rey Stakes (G2T) in 2017.

Slam Dunk Racing's 4-year-old War Front colt Secretary At War was based in New York for almost all of his career and was effective while laying close at middle distances. He then shipped west and debuted for trainer Richard Baltas in a mile turf allowance Aug. 18 at Del Mar, where he won by half a length after stalking the early pace. This is his first try at the 1 1/4-mile distance. BH

FINE NEEDLE TAKES ON RED FALX IN SPRINTERS STAKES

By Bob Kieckhefer

Fine Needle, arguably Japan's top sprinter, looms a strong favorite for the Sept. 30 Sprinters Stakes (G1) at Nakayama Racecourse despite the presence of Red Falx, winner of the past two runnings, and Hong Kong invader Lucky Bubbles.

The Sprinters Stakes, the first grade 1 event of Japan's autumn season, is run right-handed at 1,200 meters (about six furlongs) on the Nakayama turf. The race is a Breeders' Cup Challenge "Win and You're In" event for the Nov. 3 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T) at Churchill Downs.

Fine Needle, a 5-year-old son of Admire Moon, prevailed in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen (G1) this year, besting Let's Go Donki by a nose. His only loss this year was a fourth-place finish in the April 29 Chairman's Sprint Prize (G1) at Sha Tin in Hong Kong. He had a four-month respite after that and returned to win the Sept. 9 Sankei Sho Centaur Stakes (G2) at Hanshin—the same race he won to prepare for last year's Sprinters Stakes.

"He's a smart horse who runs well with a good rhythm, and what's more, he knows what to do, especially when it comes to switching on and off," said Yoshitada Takahashi, who conditions Fine Needle for Godolphin. "I don't think the 1,200 meters at Nakayama poses a problem, particularly the way he's running right now. It's been good working with him day by day, and hopefully we can achieve a big win for the Godolphin team."

Lucky Bubbles was fifth in the Chairman's Sprint Prize in April and traveled early to Japan to contest the Sprinters Stakes. The 7-year-old, Australian-bred gelding reportedly traveled well.

"I'm happy with the horse's form. He looks OK," trainer Kin-wai Lui said, two days out from the race. "I was told that on the first day of training here, they worked left-handed because he looked around, but Brett (Prebble) told me that he moved fine right-handed on the grass yesterday. I just let him work left-handed this morning to keep him happy."

With a local rooting interest, the Hong Kong Jockey Club will simulcast six races on the Nakayama card, including the Sprinters Stakes.

Red Falx, a 7-year-old son of Swept Overboard, will have to turn things around to post his third straight Sprinters Stakes victory. He has struggled in four starts since winning in 2017, finishing eighth in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen along the way. Let's Go Donki also has disappointed in his past two starts.

The others will need to show improvement to figure at the finish at this level.

In a related development, former Hong Kong champion rider Joao Moreira Sept. 27 was granted a one-month license to ride in Japan. Moreira plans to make Japan his home and ride there after starring in both Hong Kong and Singapore.

Moreira is booked to ride Nac Venus for trainer Hiroaki Sugiura in the Sprinters Stakes. The 5-year-old Daiwa Major mare is a longshot in the field of 16. BH

JUST WONDERFUL EMULATES DAM WADING IN ROCKFEL STAKES

By David Milnes/Racing Post

Just Wonderful emulated her dam, Wading, landing the Shadwell Rockfel Stakes (G2) Sept. 28 to set up a possible tilt at the Bet365 Fillies Mile (G1) back at Newmarket next month.

The daughter of Dansili gave trainer Aidan O'Brien his third win in the traditional pointer to the QIPCO One Thousand Guineas (G1) and was cut to 12-1 (from 20-1) by Paddy Power for the 2019 Classic after overcoming Dandhu and favorite Main Edition.

Mark Johnston, trainer of the latter, looked set to win his first Rockfel when the 15-8 choice kicked for home at the bushes, but she had no answer to the late run of the winner.

Just Wonderful could only finish seventh to Skitter Scatter when previously seen in the Sept. 16 Moyglare Stud Stakes (G1) at the Curragh, but you would not have known it judging by the way she bounded up the hill under Ryan Moore to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Dandhu.

Kevin Buckley, spokesman for winning owners Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier, said: "Just Wonderful did that very easily, and Ryan thought he may well have got there too soon if anything. Her dam won this race in 2011, so she was bred for the job, and she's a filly that Aidan has liked all along."

While the Rockfel is a Breeders' Cup Challenge "Win and You're In" race to the Nov. 2 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (G1T) at Churchill Downs, Buckley indicated the Fillies Mile at home Oct. 12 may be in the cards.

"She could come back for the Fillies Mile as she has won over a mile already, but Aidan will make the call."

David Elsworth, trainer of Dandhu, said: "She's a nice filly, and she's drifted into this level without any questions being asked. She won at Kempton and was green as grass, and I haven't overdone her. It was nice to see her run as well as she did, and I feel she's an improving filly. That will probably be the end of the season for her. She would have liked more cut in the ground."

On Main Edition, Johnston said: "We're disappointed to be third, but it's not the end of the world. Frankie (Dettori) came in and said he went a bit quick. He said at the moment she gets the seven (furlongs), but she only just gets it. That was the impression at the Curragh as well.

"She won't run again this year, and we'd still be hopeful she'd get the mile of the Guineas, and we'll aim for that."

GOSDEN HOPES BEATBOXER HAS SKILLS TO TAKE ROYAL LODGE

By David Baxter/Racing Post

Two of the last three winners of the Juddmonte Royal Lodge Stakes (G2) have been housed at John Gosden's Clarehaven Stables, and the betting suggests that trend could continue again with the unbeaten Beatboxer representing the yard Sept. 29.

The Royal Lodge is a Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" Challenge race that provides the winner with a fees-paid berth to the Nov. 2 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (G1T) at Churchill Downs.

Like last year's winner, Roaring Lion, Beatboxer comes into the race with a perfect record, courtesy of victories at Sandown and Haydock.

Gosden would have preferred to give the son of Scat Daddy another outing, but circumstances dictated otherwise.

"He missed an engagement at Haydock when it went heavy, and I would have liked to have got another race into him before this, but there wasn't anywhere else to go," the trainer said. "He's been in good form at home, and it looks like a nice race for him."

It is not often that Aidan O'Brien's runners come off second-best, but for the last three years in this race, the trainer has been forced to settle for the runner-up position.

O'Brien has three chances to go one better this year, with Cape of Good Hope the best option according to the market.

A winner at Tipperary on his third start, the colt's last visit to Newmarket was in July, when he finished second to Quorto in the Bet365 Superlative Stakes (G2). That form has been well-advertised, with Quorto going on to win the Goffs Vincent O'Brien National Stakes (G1) at the Curragh over seven furlongs.

"Cape of Good Hope has had a break since the Superlative Stakes in July," O'Brien said. "He's in good form, and we think the step up to a mile will suit him."

Mohawk was 7 1/2 lengths behind Quorto in the National Stakes for fourth, and O'Brien expects the additional furlong to suit him.

The trainer added: "We also think that going up in trip

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

John Gosden has trained two of the last three Royal Lodge Stakes winners at Newmarket will suit Mohawk, while we know Sydney Opera House stays the distance having won and been placed over the trip."

An extra furlong should play to the strengths of Arthur Kitt, who lost his unbeaten record in the 188bet Solario Stakes (G3), finding Too Darn Hot too much to handle.

That was still a fine effort, and the Tom Dascombe-trained Chesham Stakes winner sets a good standard, coming out on top of official ratings with a mark of 107.

Dascombe said: "We chose this race because he wouldn't want soft ground and because I think he'll be ideally suited to stepping up in trip and running over this straight mile. The further he goes, the better he will go—I think he'll be a mile-and-a-half horse next year."

The most unexposed runner in the field is Kadar, who showed why he is well-regarded by trainer Karl Burke, making a winning start in a Haydock novice this month.

It's a big rise in class for the colt, but Burke is excited by his potential and said: "I'm very happy with him since Haydock. I haven't overworked him since then, but I'm pleased with him. It's always a concern stepping up in class like this, but he's a high-class colt who we think a lot of. This is the type of horse we think he can be."

COUNTRY DAY MOVING TO LOUISIANA FOR 2019 SEASON

By Eric Mitchell

@BH_EMitchell

Grade 2-placed stakes winner and third-crop sire Country Day is being relocated from Kentucky to Lora Pitre's Peach Lane Farms near Opelousas, La., for the 2019 breeding season.

The 12-year-old son of Speightstown entered stud in 2013 at Pope McLean's Crestwood Farm, where he stood for Richard Klein, who bred and raced the horse with his parents, the late Bertram and Elaine Klein. Among third-crop sires this year, Country Day ranks 26th by progeny earnings ($900,606) and is co-ranked 24th by winners (21), through Sept. 28.

Country Day won three black-type stakes and placed in five others, including a second in the 2011 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G2T). Racing from 2 to 6, he competed at nine tracks and won on dirt, turf, and synthetic surfaces. He retired with a record of 7-4-2 from 19 starts and earnings of $503,829.

Out of the grade 3-winning Mt. Livermore mare Hidden Assets, Country Day is a half brother to grade 3 winner Cash Control (Pioneerof the Nile) and to multiple stakes winners Due Date (El Prado), Cash Back (Congrats), and Good Deed (Broken Vow). As a sire, Country Day's best runner of 2018 is Will Call, who won the Twin Spires Turf Sprint Stakes presented by Twinspires.com (G3T) at Churchill Downs.

"Mr. Klein and I have had a business relationship for several years. He's a class act and a pleasure to work with. I am very excited about this new Country Day partnership and appreciate his continued support of the Louisiana-bred program," Pitre said.

The Klein family was recognized recently by the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association as the 2017 leading Louisiana breeder of the year.

Country Day will stand next year for $2,000 live foal payable when foal stands and nurses for owners Klein and Pitre. Special consideration will be given to stakes mares. BH
