JUSTIN PHILLIP TOP 2019 PINHOOK SIRE BY RATE OF RETURN

By Eric Mitchell

🐾 @BH_EMitchell

Castleton Lyons' Justin Phillip may not grace the top 10 of BloodHorse.com's leading third-crop sire list yet this year, but he outpaced all other sires at the North American 2-year-olds in training sales by the rate of return from his pinhooked progeny sold.

Ten juveniles sold out of 11 offered represented the grade 1-winning son of First Samurai. Three of the 2-year-olds sold are considered pinhooks because they were sold previously at auction as yearlings. The yearling price of these three horses averaged $58,000, and they were resold for an average $275,000, which produced a 235% ROR—the highest ROR among sires with three or more 2019 pinhooks sold.

BloodHorse MarketWatch calculates ROR using the yearling price, plus $20,000 for training and upkeep, and the net 2-year-old sale price, which is the price minus 5% for the sales company commission.

Justin Phillip's top seller was a $550,000 colt named Schrodinger out of Cersei (by Malibu Moon), who agent Ben McElroy bought on behalf of Kaleem Shah at the Ocala Breeders' Sales' March 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale from the Hoppel's Horse & Cattle Co. consignment. Bred in Kentucky by Castleton Lyons, the colt was sold previously by Paramount Sales for $70,000 to E J Stable at The October Sale, Fasig-Tipton's Kentucky fall yearling sale.

Prior to the OBS March sale, Schrodinger attracted attention by breezing an eighth-mile in :09 4/5, which was the co-second-fastest work during the under tack shows. The colt validated his performance at OBS by winning his debut June 30 at Los Alamitos Race Course by 1 1/4 lengths. Simon Callaghan trains Schrodinger.

Three other juveniles by Justin Phillip (two of them pinhooks) sold for six-figure prices this year.

Just Smok'n, a filly out of Strikes of Thunder (Thunder Gulch), was bought by Timothy Hills for Sea Gull Capital for $175,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale from consignor Paul Sharp. Select Sales sold the filly to Sharp for $67,000 at the 2018 Ocala Breeders' Sales' October Yearlings Sale. Just Smok'n has not started yet but she has five published works at Monmouth Park, the most recent being July 11 when she went four furlongs in :48 3/5, the eighth-fastest of 43 working that distance that day.

Fastly, a $130,000 colt out of Undercover Angel (Distorted Humor), was bought by Tom Durant from Hartley/DeRenzo Thoroughbreds through the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale. The colt was not sold previously as a yearling and has no published works yet.

And lastly, Chill Haze, a colt out of Silent Fright (Yes It's True), was bought by Sagamore Farm for $100,000 from Eddie Woods' consignment at the OBS Spring 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale. Quarter Pole Enterprises bought the colt for $37,000 from Paramount Sales at The July Sale at Fasig-Tipton. Chill Haze had his first published work at Churchill Downs July 14 when he worked three furlongs on :38 2/5.

While only three of Justin Phillip's auction juveniles were pinhooks, all of his 2-year-olds sold collectively as well as those that were pinhooks. MarketWatch uses two methods to calculate ROR. For horses that have not been sold previously at auction, MarketWatch uses two-times stud fee plus $20,000 to estimate the yearling cost. Using this methodology for all Justin Phillip juveniles sold, produces an estimated 288% ROR. His 2-year-olds were bred on a $5,000 stud fee and averaged $122,600 at this year's sales.

Darby Dan's freshman sire Sky Kingdom was the second-leading sire by ROR at 160% from six pinhooked horses sold from nine offered. His juveniles averaged $38,417 as yearlings and resold for an average $160,167 as 2-year-olds.

Darley's Medaglia d'Oro was the third-leading sire by ROR at 146% and was also the leading sire by 2-year-old pinhook average at $646,250, among sires with three or more pinhooks sold. The son of El Prado's top pinhook for this year was Hero d'Oro, a colt out of After Thought (Fusaichi Pegasus), who Grand Oaks bought for $310,000 from Lane's End at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Bobby Dodd resold the colt for $1.2 million at the The Gulfstream Sale, Fasig-Tipton's selected 2-year-olds sale, to Narvick International. BH

MAXIMUM SECURITY COMPLETES FINAL WORK FOR HASKELL

By BloodHorse Staff

Gary and Mary West's Maximum Security turned in a "super" work July 15 at Monmouth Park in his last serious prep for the $1 million TVG.com Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1), trainer Jason Servis said.

The disqualified Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) winner open galloped a mile in typical Servis style shortly after 6:45 a.m. EDT under exercise rider Alvaro Tomas.

"He did super. Really good," Servis said. "He went a mile in 1:53 and change. He got the first half in a minute and came home in :53 and change."

Though Maximum Security galloped a mile Monday morning, Equibase recorded a four-furlong breeze in :53 2/5.

The homebred New Year's Day colt will train up to the July 20 Haskell, according to Servis.

"I'm feeling good about him," he said.

Maximum Security was undefeated in four starts at Gulfstream Park heading into the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. He started for a $16,000 tag in his debut Dec. 18, then won the Xpressbet Florida Derby (G1) three starts later March 30.

He led almost every step of the May 4 Derby and crossed the finish line first by 1 3/4 lengths before stewards disqualified him and placed him 17th for interference.

Maximum Security returned to his Monmouth base and made his next start June 16 in the TVG.com Pegasus Stakes. He stumbled at the start before recovering to take the lead under regular jockey Luis Saez. Red Oak Stable's King for a Day, ridden by Joe Bravo, pressed the pace throughout and the two frontrunners opened up by six in the stretch.

King for a Day got the best of Maximum Security late and won by a length over the 1-20 favorite. Maximum Security had crossed the finish line first in all five starts prior to the Pegasus.

The field for the Haskell currently features Maximum Security, King for a Day, Joevia, Mucho Gusto, Everfast, Bethlehem Road, and Spun to Run.

Everfast was runner-up in the Preakness Stakes (G1); Joevia, also based at Monmouth Park, finished third in the Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1); and the late-developing King for a Day, trained by Todd Pletcher, has won both of his starts as a 3-year-old.

The Haskell, for 3-year-olds going 1 1/8 miles, is a "Win and You're In" event that gives the winner a berth into the Nov. 2 Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) at Santa Anita Park.

The feature headlines a Saturday card that includes the Monmouth Cup Stakes (G3) at 1 1/8 miles for 3-year-olds and up; the Molly Pitcher Stakes (G3) at 1 1/16 miles for fillies and mares 3 and up; the WinStar Matchmaker Stakes (G3T) at 1 1/8 miles on turf for fillies and mares 3 and up; the Oceanport Stakes (G3T) at 1 1/16 miles on turf for 3-year-olds and up; and the Wolf Hill Stakes, a 5 1/2-furlong turf sprint for 3-year-olds and up.

First race post time on Haskell Day is noon EDT. BH

OMAHA BEACH NEARS RETURN TO WORK TAB AT DEL MAR

By BloodHorse Staff

Richard Mandella is preparing for Fox Hill Farms' Omaha Beach, who has recovered from an entrapped epiglottis that required surgery following a late scratch from the Kentucky Derby presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) as the morning line favorite, to return to more serious work in the coming weeks.

The Hall of Fame trainer provided an update on the Arkansas Derby (G1) winner after leading him to the Del Mar track July 15 for a morning gallop.

"I don't have big plans with him other than the Breeders' Cup in the fall," Mandella said. "He's just galloping now, getting him legged up, and I may start breezing him in the next week or two. There's a chance I might run him in the 3-year-old stakes at the end of the meeting if it works out. We'll see how it goes."

That race would be the Shared Belief Stakes, formerly the El Cajon, for 3-year-olds going a mile on Del Mar's main track Aug. 25.

Omaha Beach spent time recovering at WinStar Farm in Versailles, Ky., before shipping back to Mandella's care at Santa Anita Park June 10.

"I'm particularly glad to be back at Del Mar this year. It seemed like there was a black cloud over Santa Anita and anything that could go wrong did go wrong," Mandella said of the Dec. 26-June 23 meet that saw 30 horses fatally injured during racing or training. "What a shame for a track as great as that. Hopefully we start here with fresher faces and a fresh outlook."

Mandella is also lining up other Del Mar runners. He has LNJ Foxwoods' Anonymity, second in the July 6 Great Lady M Stakes (G2) at Los Alamitos Race Course, as a possible for the Aug. 11 Rancho Bernardo Handicap (G3) for fillies and mares going 6 1/2 furlongs, or an outside chance at the July 28 Clement L. Hirsch Stakes (G1). The Clement L. Hirsch is 1 1/16 miles for fillies and mares and is a "Win and You're In" race for the Nov. 2 Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1) at Santa Anita.

United, also owned by LNJ Foxwoods, last finished second May 25 in the Charles Whittingham Stakes (G2T) at Santa Anita. He is entered in the second race July 17, a 1 1/8-mile allowance optional claiming race opening day that could serve as a possible stepping stone to the Aug. 17 Del Mar Handicap (G2T). The 1 3/8-mile turf feature is a "Win and You're In" race for the Longines Breeders' Cup Turf (G1T). BH

WINTER SUNSET SEEKS THIRD GENERATION LAKE GEORGE WIN

By Mary LaRue

@BH\_MLaRue

In a field that consists of three Chad Brown-trainees and two entered by Wesley Ward, Winter Sunset will have her work cut out for her in the $150,000 Lake George Stakes (G3T) July 19 at Saratoga Race Course.

The one-mile turf contest for 3-year-old fillies would be the first graded stakes victory for the Wayne Catalano trainee, should she win. And with her pedigree she is likely to make that breakthrough sooner than later.

The daughter of Tapit has been close in her last three starts—finishing third in the Florida Oaks (G3T) and Edgewood Stakes presented by Forcht Bank (G3T) and runner up in the June 15 Regret Stakes (G3T) last time out.

Bred by Phillips Racing Partnership who owns the filly in partnership with Coffeepot Stables, Winter Sunset is the second foal out of dual grade 1 winner Winter Memories who is in turn out of grade 1 winner Memories of Silver. Both her dam and second dam won the Lake George.

Winter Sunset recorded her final work for the Lake George July 14, breezing a half-mile in :47 3/5 over the Churchill Downs main track.

"She's doing very well. She worked :47 and change this morning and it was very good," Catalano said Sunday. "She's moved forward with Beyer and sheet numbers. Channing Hill got off her after her last race and said that it was the best race she had run. She's matured and moved forward."

The starting gate is slated to hold a very competitive field with the likes of Ward's The Mackem Bullet, who took the Appalachian Stakes Presented by Japan Racing Association (G2T) at Keeneland in her last start April 7, and Brown's trio.

The daughter of Society Rock has only raced in North America four times, but she has won twice. Her U.S. debut came in last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (G1T) in which she placed sixth. She came off a runner-up finish to Fairyland in the Juddmonte Cheveley Park Stakes (G1) at Newmarket.

Ward also has Stillwater Cove, a Quality Road filly that is looking for her first graded stakes win after finishing fifth in last year's Natalma Stakes (G1T) and fourth in her only start this year in the Soaring Softly Stakes (G3T) at Belmont Park.

NICOLE MARIE

Winter Sunset and trainer Wayne Catalano at Churchill Downs

Brown's trio consists of Paul Pompa Jr.'s Regal Glory, who drew the rail, LNJ Foxwoods' Dogtag, and Peter Brant's Blowout, who will race from the outside post.

Regal Glory comes off a score in the June 1 Penn Oaks at Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course. Prior to that the daughter of Animal Kingdom finished 1 1/4 lengths behind The Mackem Bullet in the Appalachian. After winning both her starts last year as a 2-year-old, she kicked off 2019 with a runner-up finish in the Sweetest Chant Stakes (G3T) at Gulfstream Park.

Dogtag has won two of her four starts, placing fourth in her only graded effort—the Sept. 30 Miss Grillo Stakes (G2T) at Belmont won by Newspaperofrecord. The War Front filly has only one start this year—a win in the May 17 Hilltop Stakes at Pimlico Race Course.

Dogtag and Regal Glory breezed together on the Saratoga main track Saturday, each covering four furlongs in :48.02.

"They just had a maintenance piece of work and are ready to go," Brown said. "Dogtag's last race was very good off the layoff at Pimlico and she's trained well since. I expect her to move forward."

A US$481,095 weanling purchase by Brant's Whitebirch from the Goffs November Sale, Blowout made all four of her starts this year.

After breaking her maiden on debut Jan. 23 at Tampa Bay Downs, the daughter of Dansili, out of French One Thousand Guineas (G1) winner Beauty Parlour, finished second in both the Florida Oaks and the listed Memories of Silver Stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack. She last raced June 22, taking the Wild Applause Stakes at Belmont by a half-length.

Rounding out the field of seven is stakes winner Espresso Shot, a main-track-only contestant for trainer Jorge Abreu. BH

SNEAKING OUT BRINGS CONSISTENT FORM INTO FLEET TREAT

By Christine Oser

@BH\_COser

Del Mar's focus turns to the local California-breds in the seaside oval's July 18 feature, the $150,000 Fleet Treat Stakes. Seven 3-year-old fillies are entered for the seven-furlong test on the main track, which takes place the second day of the track's summer meet.

KMN Racing's homebred Sneaking Out has never finished worse than second in six lifetime starts and has raced in three consecutive stakes races. Trainer Keith Desormeaux will saddle the Indian Evening filly for the first time Thursday.

While trained by Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer, Sneaking Out picked up her first black-type win April 6 at Santa Anita Park when she came off the pace and captured the 6 1/2-furlong Evening Jewel Stakes over state-breds. Going as long as seven furlongs for the first time May 4, she crossed the wire first in the Angels Flight Stakes but was placed second when she came out in the stretch and bumped another horse.

Sneaking Out tried two turns May 26 and led almost every step of the Summertime Oaks (G2) but was caught by half a length in the 1 1/16-mile test. She was entered for the Melair Stakes at the same distance June 23, Santa Anita's closing day, but was scratched by stewards after The Stronach Group ruled Hollendorfer off its tracks, which includes Santa Anita, a day earlier.

The respective top three finishers from the Melair Stakes—Nick Alexander's homebred Ruby Bradley, Sayjay Racing's homebred Tiz a Master, and Violette Szabo, another Alexander homebred—will face off again in the Fleet Treat.

Ruby Bradley rallied from last of five to get up by half a length over Tiz a Master, who came from third. Violette Szabo led through the first half-mile before fading but returns to sprinting in the Fleet Treat, having previously beaten Ruby Bradley April 28 going 6 1/2 furlongs.

Violette Szabo, a daughter of Grazen, is a full sister to this year's Monrovia Stakes (G3) winner S Y Sky, who's also captured four other black-type stakes in California.

Jay Em Ess Stable's Takethediamondlane, a $300,000 purchase from the 2017 Barretts Select Yearling Sale from Harris Farms' consignment, is penciled in for her first career start in the Fleet Treat.

George Krikorian's homebred Hollywood Hills, second in Golden Gate Fields' Campanile Stakes on turf April 28, and Little Red Feather Racing's Opus One, who has run on turf her last four of six lifetime starts, complete the field. BH

MAIDEN RACES WITH SALE CONDITIONS SET AT SARATOGA

By Ron Mitchell

@BH\_RMitchell

New maiden special weight races for 2-year-olds that went through the public auction ring and were either sold or bought back at a price of $45,000 or less will be unveiled on the July 17-18 race cards at Saratoga Race Course.

Wednesday's fifth race, a 5 1/2-furlong test with a purse of $75,000, drew a field of 10 juvenile fillies fitting the conditions of being "for horses that sold or RNA'd for $45,000 or less in their most recent sale." Thursday's second race for males fitting the same sale criteria has a field of seven entered at the same purse and race distance.

Martin Panza, senior vice president of racing operations for the New York Racing Association, told BloodHorse it is hoped the new races will offer a Saratoga racing option for smaller stables.

"It lets them have a good experience at Saratoga, which is very special," Panza said. "I hope these races are embraced and it works. It's a sound program that can help the sale companies, too, because the bottom end of the market has been difficult the last few years."

Of the 17 total entered in the two races, trainers Gary Contessa and Rudy Rodriguez have two each entered in the fillies division and McPeck is scheduled to send out a pair in the maiden event for males.

Wednesday's race will mark the career debuts for all fillies except Just Fly, Double Down Dare, and Ain't None Lucky.

Second in her five-furlong career debut May 31 at Churchill Downs, Just Fly later finished 12th at 5 1/2 furlongs on grass June 20 at the Louisville oval. A daughter of Justin Phillip, Just Fly was bought by her trainer Joe Sharp on behalf of Carl R. Moore Management for $40,000 from Stephens Thoroughbreds at this year's Ocala Breeders' Sales March Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training. As a weanling, the filly was bought by Jay McKee for $8,000 from St George Sales at the 2017 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Second in her only start June 24 at Parx Racing for trainer Steve Klesaris, Double Down Dare races for Joseph Imbesi, who purchased the Cross Traffic filly for $25,000 from Bobby Jones Equine, agent for Fools On A Hill Farm, at the 2018 OBS October Yearling Sale.

Ain't None Lucky is a Candy Ride filly with a third-place finish to her credit in her debut at Laurel Park June 14 for trainer Lacey Gaudet. The filly went through the sales ring twice, initially failing to attain her reserve and bought back on a final price of $37,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Wheeled back into the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale the following month, the filly was bought in the name Five Hellions Farm for $27,000 from consignor Stuart Morris.

Three fillies just met the $45,000 cutoff threshold for entry in the race, as morning-line favorite Myawaya and Devils Rendezvous were each bought for that price, and Raggedy Annie was RNA'd at that level at last year's Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearlings Sale.

In Thursday's maiden special weight for males, Contessa-trained Justintimeforwine is the only entrant with experience to date, having run seventh at five furlongs June 23 in maiden special company at Belmont Park. Owned by John L. Moirano, Monty Foss, Yellow Moon Stable, Pine Stables, and Bob Chimienti, the Justin Phillip colt was purchased by Contessa for $45,000 from the Niall Brennan Stables consignment at this year's OBS March sale.

Initially acquired by Nancy Ross for $15,000 from McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale, the colt went unsold on a final bid of $39,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Preferred New York Bred Yearlings Sale.

Along with Justintimeforwine, Harold Lerner's January Won is the other colt entered Thursday bought for $45,000. He was purchased by McPeck for that price from Paramount Sales at The July Sale, Fasig-Tipton's selected yearling sale in Kentucky. As a weanling consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency to the Keeneland November sale, the New Year's Day colt was purchased for $9,000 by John Ennis. BH

GROUP 1 WINNER SIYARAFINA RETIRED AFTER FOUR RACES

By Tom Peacock/Racing Post

JOHN GILMORE

Siyarafina wins the Prix Saint Alary at Longchamp

Group 1-winning filly Siyarafina has been retired to the Aga Khan's breeding operation.

The daughter of Pivotal raced only four times, all within the space of just over two months, taking a Saint-Cloud maiden and a Longchamp conditions event. After failing to satisfy connections enough to run in the Emirates Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French One Thousand Guineas, G1), her finest hour came when she landed the Saxon Warrior Coolmore Prix Saint Alary (G1) in late May at the same Paris track instead.

Siyarafina was sent off as the favorite for the Prix de Diane Longines (French Oaks, G1) but could only stay on for sixth, and her trainer, Alain de Royer-Dupre, explained to Jour de Galop that she had not been easy to campaign.

"Siyarafina will enter stud," he said. "There are several small things. She is a filly who has a great breeding value. She is a group 1 winner, we prefer not to take risks."

From one of her owner-breeder's great families, Siyarafina is related to the Aga Khan's stallion Siyouni via his blue hen Sichilla. She is the second foal out of listed winner Siyenica, a daughter of Azamour.

MURPHY PICKS UP KING GEORGE RIDE ON CHEVAL GRAND

By Peter Thomas/Racing Post

Oisin Murphy is reaping the rewards from a spell spent riding in Japan over the winter as he has been tagged to ride Cheval Grand in the July 27 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth QIPCO Stakes (G1) at Ascot.

Cheval Grand, who won the 2017 Japan Cup (G1), will be bidding to become the first Japanese-trained winner of the prestigious 1 1/2-mile group 1 test. He is a 20-1 shot in a market dominated by dual Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (G1) winner Enable and Crystal Ocean, who heads the World's Best Racehorse rankings.

"I'm looking forward to Cheval Grand coming over," Murphy said. "I'll ride him in the King George and hopefully the Juddmonte International (G1) after that—then looking towards the Arc for one of the Japanese horses, Kiseki or Saturnalia."

The rider enjoyed a stellar 2018, winning nine group 1 races, including four on Roaring Lion, and boosted his reputation during his month-long spell in Japan, even booting home five wins on one nine-race card at Tokyo. His impressive stint has ensured he will be a man in demand whenever the Japanese have a runner in Europe, and Murphy is hoping he could be the man to deliver the nation a much coveted first success in the Arc de Triomphe.

MATHEA KELLEY/DUBAI RACING CLUB

Cheval Grand trains at Meydan

"That's one reason why I devoted so much effort into my time there, for the chance of a good ride in the King George and Arc over the next five years," Murphy added. "Enable and Crystal Ocean are the standout performers at the moment, but the French don't seem to have any at that level yet."

JAPANESE CHAMPION GOLD SHIP GETS FIRST WINNER

By Naohiro Goda

Big Red Farm's freshman sire Gold Ship, winner of six grade 1 races in Japan including back-to-back victories in the 2013-14 Takarazuka Kinen (G1), had his first winner July 15 at Hakodate Racecourse, where Satono Gold won a 2-year-old maiden race over 1,800 meters (about 1 1/8 miles) on the turf course.

Bred by Teruya Yoshida of Shadai Farm, Satono Gold is the fifth foal out of My Jen, winner of the 2010 Gallant Bloom Handicap (G2) at Belmont Park. Her gray colt was bought by Hajime Satomi of Satomi Horse Company during the foal session of the 2017 JRHA Select Sale for ¥50 million (US$438,500).

Satono Gold was sent off as the 13-10 favorite of seven untested runners and was ridden by Yutaka Take. He tracked the leader and drew clear to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Satono Gold is trained by Naosuke Sugai, who also trained Gold Ship, and he has Gold Ship's groom, Takatoshi Imanami.

Gold Ship won a similar maiden race over the same distance and course in July 2011.

A 10-year-old son of Stay Gold, Gold Ship won 13 races from 28 starts over five seasons for Eiichi Kobayashi and earned ¥1,397,767,000 ($15,040,217). He is ranked the fourth leading money earner by the Japan Racing Association.

Gold Ship covered 109 mares in 2016 and 79 foals were reported the following spring. BH

ANDESITE, NIGHT CODE BREAK MAIDENS ON DEBUT

By Mary LaRue

🐦 @BH_MLaRue

This column highlights the performances of maidens who have made no more than five starts, who either sold for more than $500,000 at public auction, or have siblings who are grade/group winners or dams who are grade/group winners. BloodHorse research shows maiden winners in particular who meet these criteria are more likely to go on to be graded stakes winners.

Presque Isle

The 2-year-old maiden winner's of note for the week of July 9-14 were well spread, with Spitefulness getting the first success July 9 at Presque Isle Downs.

The Palace Malice filly is the first foal out of 2015 Davona Dale Stakes (G2) winner Ekati's Phaeton, and she broke her maiden the second time out for trainer Timothy Hamm and owners Blazing Meadows Farm, Katherine Cauthen, and Three Chimneys Farm.

After finishing third in a 4 1/2-furlong maiden test on the all-weather surface at the Erie, Pa., track June 4, Spitefulness came back to score going five furlongs over the same track by 2 1/4 lengths. She hit the wire in :58.56 on a fast track.

Spitefulness was bred in Kentucky by Three Chimneys Farm and Doug Cauthen Thoroughbred Management.

Her dam, who was purchased by Woodford Thoroughbreds in 2017, has a 2018 Frosted colt.

Indiana Grand

The following day, Madaket Stables and 4K2 Stables' Andesite scored on debut by 2 1/2 lengths in an Indiana Grand Race Course maiden race for trainer

Brad Cox.

Bred by Stoneway Farm in Kentucky, the colt by The Factor is a half brother to grade 2 winner Ahh Chocolate, out of the Saint Liam mare Ahh.

After pressing the pace through a half-mile, he ranged up outside the leader at the quarter pole and drove clear to finish the 7 1/2 furlongs over firm turf in 1:31.81.

Consigned as Hip 11 to the Ocala Breeders' Sales March 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale, Andesite was purchased by BSW Bloodstock for $90,000 from Winners Circle Thoroughbreds.

ANDESITE, NIGHT CODE BREAK MAIDENS ON DEBUT

Laurel

St. Elias Stable and West Point Thoroughbreds' Night Code made a debut score at Laurel Park July 11, when he battled throughout a 5 1/2-furlong maiden test before gaining a half-length lead at the wire.

Trained by Steve Asmussen, Night Code stopped the clock in 1:04.85 on the fast track.

The son of Honor Code was the first winner for his sire. Bred by Summer Wind Equine in Kentucky, he is also a half brother to dual grade 1 winner Moonshine Memories (by Malibu Moon) and is out of the Unbridled's Song mare Unenchantedevening—herself a half sister to 1997 Horse of the Year and champion 2-year-old colt Favorite Trick.

The partnership bought the colt from the Lane's End consignment to the Keeneland September Yearling Sale for $500,000.

Parx

Greg Quick's Pink Caddy romped to a 7 3/4-length score in just her second start July 13 at Parx Racing.

The El Padrino filly, who Quick purchased for $40,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale as a yearling from Marshall Silverman, was making her second start for trainer Randy Allen.

After finishing third with a slow start in a 4 1/2-furlong maiden special weight June 24 at the Pennsylvania track, Pink Caddy vied three wide over the same distance Saturday and took control on the turn for home before drawing away easily in the stretch. She finished the distance on the fast track in :52.31.

Bred by Beatrice Patterson and Vicky Schowe in Pennsylvania, Pink Caddy is a half sister to this year's Swale (G3) and Danzig Stakes winner Call Paul. She is the fourth foal out of the Forestry mare Avani Force, who has produced four winners from four foals of racing age. BH
