Champions are officially crowned through a vote, but their legends are written on the racetrack.

Already a champion, Godolphin's Essential Quality did not record the most important or most memorable victory of his career July 31 when he prevailed at minuscule odds and captured the $582,000 Jim Dandy Stakes (G2) for 3-year-olds at Saratoga Race Course.

What he showed, by weathering a surprisingly wide trip in a five-horse field and fending off a hard-charging rival in the final yards, is why he was a champion a year ago and is a favorite to add another title this year.

"The really good horses, they just show up and find a way to get things done and he has seemed to have done that for nearly every start," said Jimmy Bell, president of Godolphin USA. "This was a hard-fought race. Obviously, he was a little wide but he found a way and overcame what he needed to do to get the job done and that's the mark of a really good horse. When things aren't always your way, they find a way."

On a day when 36,840 fans attended the races and $31,772,948 was wagered, the Jim Dandy will most likely be remembered as Essential Quality's prep race for the Aug. 28 Runhappy Travers Stakes (G1). Yet the homebred son of Tapit digging down and fending off grade 2 winner Keepmeinmind by a half-length, after appearing to be headed for a classic Saratoga upset, explains why he has won seven of eight starts, including the Belmont Stakes Presented by NYRA Bets (G1), and, after vaulting to the top of his division following the Breeders' Cup in November, why he's still on top with the calendar about to flip to August.

"We had a horse slip up inside him that looked like he had some run left, so it made for some anxious moments down the lane," trainer Brad Cox said about the champion 2-year-old male of 2020. "But overall he was very determined and had the heart of a champion. He's a very good horse ... he's able to dig in and fight and move on."

Unraced since his June 5 classic win in the Belmont Stakes, the produce of the Elusive Quality mare Delightful Quality figures to benefit from Saturday's tightener when he returns next month for the Travers at the same 1 1/4-mile distance that tripped him up in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) when he finished fourth.

"It was probably good for him, which is easier to say after the race than when they're at the sixteenth pole," Bell said. "He shows that determination, that grit."

Essential Quality's connections enjoy the Jim Dandy trophy presentation

Jockey Luis Saez broke from post 5 with Essential Quality and found himself wide from the start as the field basically broke in a line and headed to the first turn.

On the backstretch, Dr Jack, Masqueparade, and Weyburn formed one group on the front end, with Essential Quality, who was four wide into the first turn and five wide on the backstretch, and Keepmeinmind behind them after a half-mile in :47.41.

On the turn for home, as the leaders began to sputter, Saez took the 2-5 favorite ($2.80) four wide and grabbed the lead at the top of the stretch. Though it appeared the gray colt would coast to victory, Joel Rosario and Keepmeinmind came charging into the picture along the rail.

Keepmeinmind, a son of Laoban owned by Cypress Creek Equine, Arnold Bennewith, and Spendthrift Farm, appeared to have momentum on his side, but he ran into a brick wall in the form of Essential Quality, who covered the nine furlongs in 1:49.92 on a fast track and pushed his earnings to $3,545,144.

"I saw (Keepmeinmind) but I had a lot of horse and I knew (my horse) was going to finish," Saez said. "He always fights and he always wants to win."

Keepmeinmind, who would also seem a bona fide Travers candidate for trainer Robertino Diodoro, finished 2 1/4 lengths ahead of FTGGG Racing's Ohio Derby (G3) winner Masqueparade, an Upstart colt trained by Al Stall Jr.

"He was going forward and did everything he could," Rosario said about a colt who third behind Essential Quality in the TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile Presented by Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (G1). "He was second-best."

Essential Quality is the fourth foal and first stakes winner for Delightful Quality, whose most recent foal is an unraced 2-year-old filly by Uncle Mo named Famed.

WATCH: Grand Dams: Delightful Quality

"He's carrying a little more weight now than he was leading up to the Derby or Belmont so I think this was a good tightener for him, four weeks out from the Travers," Cox said. "He's blown up physically. He's put on weight, muscle, and is happy. Hopefully we can see more of that over the next four weeks and get some foundation out of this race in regards to fitness. It was a demanding track and he got the job done."

A job that was accomplished in a manner befitting a champion. BH

CALUMET'S LEXITONIAN UPSETS ALFRED G. VANDERBILT AT 34-1

By Byron King

🐦 @BH_Bking

Calumet Farm keeps swinging for the fences and hitting home runs at New York racetracks.

The historic farm, currently owned by Brad Kelley, won the Personal Ensign Stakes (G1) last summer with 9-1 Vexatious and last fall's Cigar Mile Stakes (G1) with 7-1 True Timber. This year, the farm has pulled off even more surprises, taking the Wood Memorial Stakes Presented by Resorts World Casino with Bourbonic, sent off at odds of 72-1, and the Man o' War Stakes (G1T) with Channel Cat at 13-1.

Nor was Calumet finished. On July 31 at Saratoga Race Course, they added another top score when Lexingtonian registered a 34-1 surprise in the $350,000 Alfred G. Vanderbilt Handicap (G1). He paid $70 for a $2 win ticket.

Hustled to show speed from his inside post under Jose Lezcano, Lexingtonian led early with an opening quarter-mile in :22.04, chased by Strike Power. The plot then thickened, with Special Reserve joining the leaders in a three-wide bid and taking command with a half-mile in :44.45.

Narrowly in front of Lexingtonian in the lane, as Strike Power began to fade, the Joel Rosario-ridden Special Reserve opened up a half-length advantage with five furlongs in :56.54. But Lexingtonian, a 5-year-old homebred son of Speightstown, was the stronger of the two sprinters over the final eighth, and he battled back to hit the wire a half-length in front. He raced six furlongs on a fast track in 1:09.38

"This horse is a very good horse. He tries hard all the time," said Lezcano. "He's the type of horse that needs to be involved, and sometimes he doesn't break all that well and has to stay in the back.

"He broke well today. Joel tried to get away from me, but when I dropped my hands, he took off again and won the race."

Whitmore, last year's champion male sprinter and Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1) winner, rallied from sixth to finish third, a length and a quarter behind the runner-up. His race Saturday was his first since early May.

"I got a perfect trip," said his rider, Ricardo Santana Jr. "He hadn't run in a couple of months. He's a good horse."

Montauk Traffic was fourth and Firenze Fire fifth. Favored Mischevious Alex ran eighth without an apparent excuse after stalking the leaders early.

The Vanderbilt was Lexingtonian's third stakes triumph, his second in graded competition, from 19 career starts. He previously won the Concern Stakes and Chick Lang Stakes (G3) as a 3-year-old in 2019.

Both this year and last, he has come close to victory at the top stakes level. He was second in the May 1 Churchill Downs Stakes presented by Ford (G1), and runner-up in last summer's Big Crosby Stakes (G1) at Del Mar when edged by a nose.

After being eased and finishing last of six in the June 5 Hill 'N' Dale Metropolitan Handicap (G1) at Belmont Park, he had few believers at the betting windows, starting as the largest price in the field of nine.

Jack Sistrerson—who has trained all but one of Calumet's graded winners in 2020-21, except for the Todd Pletcher-conditioned Bourbonic—didn't lose faith in Lexingtonian.

"You'd think a horse that was eased and thrown in some clunkers, you'd sit back and think let's drop him down a grade and give him a confidence builder. But I've run him in every grade 1 and been hard on him and this is how he responds today. I have to give credit to Lexingtonian," Sistrerson said.

Earlier Saturday, Sistrerson pledged a percentage of his horses' earnings on the day to the family of Mike Recio. Recio, a co-founder of South Point Sales, is hospitalized with sepsis, and a GoFundMe account and trust have been set up for donations to his family.

"Growing up, this sport was a passion of mine, and now it's a livelihood. I'm speechless," said Sistrerson of his success. "To be up here on a stage like today and even to compete in a race like this is very humbling.

"He's a homebred and people don't see how much work goes into the foals, weanlings, and yearlings. Eddie Kane, (Calumet Farm general) manager, puts so much hard work and effort, and it's rewarding for me to give a little bit of success back to them."

Bred in Kentucky, Lexingtonian is the lone winner of six foals from the winning Tapit mare Riviera Romper, who is out of Darley Test Stakes (G1) winner Swap Fliparoo. Three of Riviera Romper's foals are unraced, including a yearling colt by Keen Ice. The mare also foaled a full sister to Lexingtonian this year. BH

CROSS BORDER DEFENDS BOWLING GREEN TITLE

By Christine Oser

@BH_COser

Three Diamonds Farm's Cross Border had been away from the winner's circle for a year but found himself back there July 31 with a repeat victory in the $250,000 Bowling Green Stakes (G2T) at Saratoga Race Course.

The now 7-year-old English Channel ridgling collected his first graded win in the 1 3/8-mile inner turf test on Aug. 1, 2020, and though he did not find the winner's circle again in his next eight starts, he placed in six of those races, including the 2020 Sword Dancer Stakes (G1T) and Jan. 23 Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational Stakes (G1T).

"He's a model of consistency and durability," said trainer Mike Maker. "Hopefully, we have another couple of years with him."

Sent off as the 6-1 fifth choice in the field of eight Saturday, Cross Border left no question as to who the winner was as he sailed across the finish line 1 1/4 lengths in front. He was ridden by Luis Saez, who one race earlier guided Essential Quality to victory in the Jim Dandy Stakes (G2).

Saez settled Cross Border in third on the inside as Channel Cat set the pace and reigning champion turf male Channel Maker followed in second. Fractions went in :24.75, :49.37, 1:14.52, and 1:38.71 through the first mile on the course labeled good after multiple days of heavy rain.

Cross Border came under urging from Saez entering the final turn, then rallied four-wide into the stretch before taking over the leaders. He got his head in front down the stretch to run 1 1/4 miles in 2:03.43 but had to repel challenges from Rockemperor and Shamrocket, who rallied from fifth and sixth, respectively.

The dark bay or brown turned back those late-running rivals to complete the distance in 2:16.36. He returned $14.40 on a $2 win ticket while pushing his career earnings to $948,821. His record stands at 10-8-4 in 35 starts.

"He loves it here. This is a special horse that I love riding. He always tries hard," Saez said. "Today, he ran huge. It set up perfect with a good pace. When we came to the top of the stretch, he really gave me that kick and he battled. He always wants to give me everything. It all went according to plan."

Rockemperor finished second a length ahead of third-placed Shamrocket, who got his head in front of Channel Cat. Red Knight, Moon Over Miami, Channel Maker, and Breakpoint completed the order of finish.

Cross Border was bred in New York by Berkshire Stud and B. D. Gibbs and is one of three foals, all winners, out of the Empire Maker mare Empress Josephine. He passed through the auction ring three times, most recently selling to Three Diamonds Farm for $100,000 out of Taylor Made Sales Agency's consignment to the 2018 Fasig-Tipton July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale.

Next up, Cross Border could take another go at the Resorts World Casino Sword Dancer, a Breeders' Cup Challenge race offering the winner a berth in the Longines Breeders' Cup Turf (G1T) Nov. 6 at Del Mar, on Aug. 28 at the Spa.

"I'd assume the Sword Dancer is next," Maker said. BH

DR. SCHIVEL DEFEATS OLDER RIVALS IN BING CROSBY

By Tracy Gantz

Dr. Schivel, who finished last year's Del Mar summer meeting with a victory in the Runhappy Del Mar Futurity (G1), returned to the track this year to defeat older sprinters in the $300,000 Bing Crosby Stakes (G1) July 31. The six-furlong Crosby earned Dr. Schivel a Breeders' Cup challenge berth to the Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1), this fall to be run at Del Mar.

The 3-year-old faced seasoned older sprinters, including the crack speedster C Z Rocket. When the gate opened, California-bred multiple stakes winner Brickyard Ride bobbled slightly from the outside post, but then zipped to the front, clocking the first quarter-mile in a swift :21.83.

Dr. Schivel, breaking from post 7 in the eight-horse field under jockey Flavien Prat, got away in sixth. Racing three wide into the turn, Dr. Schivel had to angle out even wider into the stretch.

After a half-mile in :44.67, Brickyard Ride still had the lead from the inside, but Law Abidin Citizen challenged him and took a brief lead past the eighth pole. Eight Rings also challenged, and as Dr. Schivel came up on the outside of them, the four horses surged toward the wire.

Favored C Z Rocket had an extremely wide trip and after getting outpaced on the turn, also came flying late. Dr. Schivel edged Eight Rings to win by a neck, and C Z Rocket just missed catching Eight Rings by a head to be third. Law Abidin Citizen was a half-length back in fourth, with Brickyard Ride fifth.

Dr. Schivel ran six furlongs on a fast track in 1:10.47.

"He's not the fastest horse in the world, but he can finish," said William Branch, co-breeder and co-owner of Dr. Schivel. "And that's what he does—he finishes."

Dr. Schivel ($6.80) not only had good Del Mar form, but he also had the track's hottest jockey in Prat. Leading all riders at the meeting, Prat added three wins on the card before the Crosby.

"He broke well, then when we went across the gap, he grabbed the bit," Prat said. "He was running well pretty much all the way around. He was game late—good win."

Mark Glatt, who won the 2020 Crosby with Collusion Illusion last year, trains Dr. Schivel.

"They went fast early—maybe not as fast as we thought," said Glatt. "This is a real racehorse. He beat the olders today, and hopefully in November he'll be able to do it again."

The conditioner last year was winning his first grade 1 race in the Crosby. Glatt had entered three in the race—Dr. Schivel, Collusion Illusion, and Law Abidin Citizen, who finished third in the 2020 Crosby.

Glatt scratched Collusion Illusion because "he grabbed a quarter yesterday and he wasn't just perfect this morning, so we decided to wait with him."

Glatt didn't train Dr. Schivel in 2020. Luis Mendez trained the Kentucky-bred son of Violence—Lil Nugget, by Mining for Money, for Branch and co-breeder Arnold Hill. Glatt recommended purchasing an interest in the colt to the Cohen family's Red Baron's Barn and Rancho Temescal. They completed the deal prior to the Futurity, with Branch remaining in the partnership and bringing in his friend William Dean Reeves.

Mendez continued to train Dr. Schivel through the Futurity, and then the owners and Glatt gave the colt an extended vacation. Dr. Schivel spent time at the Cohens' Rancho Temescal in Piru, Calif.

"He's very classy," said Tim Cohen. "We turned him out at the farm. He let down easily. A good horse will take care of himself like that. He was fun to have at the farm. He has a little character, and it was a blast to have him."

Glatt brought Dr. Schivel back in a six-furlong allowance optional claimer at Santa Anita Park June 18 against older horses. As the 6-5 favorite, the colt won by a neck over fellow 3-year-old Canadian Pride.

Dr. Schivel's connections enjoy the Bing Crosby trophy presentation

"He sure seemed to pass with flying colors in that comeback race," said Glatt a few days before the Crosby.

Following the Crosby, Glatt wasn't immediately sure which race he might use as a prep for the Breeders' Cup. He is considering the Aug. 28 Allen Jerkens Memorial Stakes (G1) at Saratoga Race Course restricted to 3-year-olds.

"He could be a grade 1 winner on both coasts—that could make a huge difference for him down the line in his stallion career," said Glatt.

Dr. Schivel is one of five winners of his dam's eight foals, all of whom have raced. Her most recent foal is Barsini Red, a Mendez-trained 2-year-old colt by Midshipman owned by breeders Branch and Hill. Barsini Red is a maiden that has a second and two thirds in three starts. BH

LEADER OF THE BAND TURNS TABLES IN MONMOUTH OAKS

By BloodHorse Staff

Trainer John Servis went into the $259,000 Monmouth Oaks (G3) July 31 at Monmouth Park thinking Midnight Obsession was further ahead at this stage of her development than stablemate Leader of the Band.

He found himself re-assessing that belief.

Leader of the Band staged a prolonged rally from midpack, eventually collaring 6-5 favorite Edie Meeny Mino Mo at the sixteenth pole, and went on to a two-length victory in the 97th edition of the 1 1/16-mile event.

After breaking outward at the start, rushing up to the lead into the first turn, and then repulsing the early stretch challenge of Midnight Obsession, Edie Meeny Miny Mo held to be a game second, 1 1/2 lengths ahead of Midnight Obsession.

Leader of the Band turned in a final time of 1:43.44 on a fast track under jockey Frankie Pennington. Let go at odds of 10-1 in the field of nine 3-year-old fillies, she paid $22.60 to win.

"She ran great," said Servis. "Unfortunately, my other horse (Midnight Obsession) came out a little bit and bothered her at the start, so I thought she would be a little bit closer. But it might have worked out for the best.

"She has been improving a lot. She's getting better and she's maturing. She's a little on the nervous side and she is starting to settle a little bit and she is starting to understand the racing game. I think she will continue to get better."

Servis, who also had both fillies go in the July 3 Delaware Oaks (G3), saw a reversal of their performances this time. Midnight Obsession was second that race, with Leader of the Band, who broke flat-footed, rallying to be third.

"She has a little bit of a late kick but she really has the steady, (Energizer) bunny in her. She just keeps coming," said Servis.

Notching her first graded stakes victory, the Pennsylvania-bred daughter of Bandbox improved her career line to 3-2-2 from seven starts. Her earnings now stand at $264,540 for owner/breeder SMD Limited.

"The last time she ran in the Delaware Oaks she didn't get off great," said Pennington. "Today she made a great run late. When the pace was up ahead of me, she felt pretty good and I was sitting there and every time I nudged her she was giving me something so I felt pretty comfortable coming out of the three-eighths turn.

"She clipped heels a little bit after the break and I was a little further back than I wanted to be but she is such a nice horse, she kept chugging and she got the job done."

Edie Meeny Mino Mo, an impressive winner of her only two starts, both sprints, looked to be clear after taking command coming out of the final turn, but that's when Leader of the Band launched her rally.

Edie Meeny Miny Mo had taken the field through a half in :47.03, to three quarters in 1:11.36, and through the opening mile in 1:37.05.

Bred by her owner, Leader of the Band is out stakes-placed Sir Cat mare Catsuit, a producer of 10 foals. Eight of those foals have raced and seven are winners. One of her unraced foals is an Uncle Lino 2-year-old filly named Burano.

Leader of the Band is the first stakes winner and third black-type runner for Catsuit, following the stakes-placed Authoritative and Ill Conceived. BH

CAJUN'S MAGIC, MY SASSENACH WIN FLORIDA SIRE STAKES

By BloodHorse Staff

Stonehedge's Gil and Marilyn Campbell collected their 16th success in the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders and Owners Association Florida Sire Stakes series July 31 when Cajun's Magic edged stablemate Dean Delivers in the $100,000 Dr. Fager Stakes at Gulfstream Park.

The Dr. Fager, a six-furlong open-division sprint, co-headlined Saturday's 13-race program with the $100,000 Desert Vixen Stakes, at the same distance for juvenile fillies and won by My Sassenach. The black-type events kicked off the 2021 FTBOA Florida Sire Stakes, a tradition-rich series for juveniles sired by accredited stallions standing in Florida.

Cajun's Magic ($15) rallied from far off the pace to win a stretch duel with Dean Delivers by a neck to complete a Michael Yates-trained exacta in what turned out to be a two-horse race in the stretch.

"After they broke their maidens, Mrs. Campbell asked me which one I liked best. I said, 'Personally, at this point, I feel like we have the exacta. I don't know which one's the best,'" Yates recalled.

Cajun's Magic, who took command in the stretch after sitting fifth early, was all-out to hold off a resurgent Dean Delivers approaching the wire. The winner ran six furlongs in 1:11.01 under Jesus Rios.

Both Cajun's Magic and Dean Delivers are sons of Cajun Breeze, who stands at Stonehedge Farm South after being trained by Yates.

"It's pretty surreal. He's throwing some nice horses. I think the best is yet to come from him," the trainer said.

Cajun's Magic is out of the second winner from three foals out of the unraced Factum mare Mollie's Magic. This year, the mare foaled a St Patrick's Day filly, her only unraced produce.

Gold Special rallied to finish third, 10 lengths farther back.

My Sassenach Rolls in Desert Vixen

Champion Equine's My Sassenach didn't run as quickly in winning the Desert Vixen as Cajun's Magic did in the Dr. Fager—she was timed in 1:12.17 under Miguel Vasquez—but the 2-year-old filly Uncaptured filly proved much the best by an 8 1/4-length margin.

My Sassenach ($21), second in her July 1 debut, picked up her first win in the Desert Vixen, giving trainer David Braddy his fifth career success in the Florida Sire Stakes series for youngsters sired by accredited stallions standing in Florida.

"I thought she was a real good filly the first time we ran her. We worked her nine days in front of the race, scoped her, and she was clean. We ran her in that race and she scoped with a lung infection," Braddy said. "I think that cost us the first race, but we've been high on her all along."

Demurely closed from off the pace to finish second, three-quarters of a length behind a tiring Rufa Red Knot. Noble Dreamer, the 7-5 favorite in a field of eight fillies, finished fourth.

My Sassenach was purchased for $152,000 by Champion Equine from the Craig Wheeler consignment at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's 2021 Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training.

"We liked the way she breezed at the sale and we liked the way she galloped out," said Champion Equine's Michael Sucher. "We have a lot of high hopes for her."

MAXFIELD COMPLETES FINAL WORK FOR WHITNEY STAKES

By BloodHorse Staff

Godolphin homebred Maxfield, trained by Brendan Walsh, worked five furlongs from the gate July 31 under Jose Ortiz in preparation for the $1 million Whitney Stakes (G1) Aug. 7 at Saratoga Race Course.

Maxfield, who breezed in company with 3-year-old maiden winner Business Model over the Spa's fast main track, was caught by NYRA clockers through splits of :24 3/5, :48 2/5, and stopped the clock in 1:01.61.

"I just wanted the company to take him to the wire," Walsh said. "I think the best part of it was the gallop out from the wire to an eighth out. I had him out in 1:13 and change. He's doing good. I couldn't ask for more than that."

A winner in seven of eight starts, the 4-year-old Street Sense colt will enter the 1 1/8-mile Whitney off scores at Churchill Downs in the 1 1/16-mile Alysheba Stakes Presented by Sentient Jet (G2) April 30 and the 1 1/8-mile Stephen Foster Stakes (G2) June 26.

The Whitney is a Breeders' Cup Challenge qualifier for the Nov. 6 Longines Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) at Del Mar, Walsh said Maxfield is thriving ahead of his first Saratoga start.

"He's doing as well as he's ever done right now," Walsh said. "I hope he can run at least as well as he's done these last couple times and maybe even a little bit better. He likes it up here and is in a great frame of mind."

Shortly after Maxfield breezed, Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher sent out St. Elias Stable's multiple graded stakes winner Dr Post, last-out winner of the Monmouth Cup Stakes (G3) July 17 at Monmouth Park, in company with Wertheimer and Frere homebred Happy Saver to work a half-mile in :49.25.

Happy Saver, winner of last year's Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1), is under consideration for a start in the Whitney. His first loss in six starts came last out when third in the July 3 Suburban Stakes (G2) at Belmont Park.

Pletcher said he is also considering the Aug. 21 TVG Pacific Classic (G1) at Del Mar for both

Dr Post and Happy Saver as he looks to keep the pair separated with the 1 1/4-mile Jockey Club Gold Cup slated for Sept. 4 at the Spa. Both races are Breeders' Cup Challenge events.

"I thought the work was solid," Pletcher said. "We'll see how (Happy Saver) bounces out of it. I haven't quite decided on the Whitney yet. There's also the Pacific Classic in between. I just have to weigh my options. It might give me an opportunity to split the two of them up if I don't run Happy Saver in the Whitney."

Allied Racing Stable and Spendthrift Farm's By My Standards, second in the Whitney a year ago, is scheduled to arrive at Saratoga from Colonial Downs Aug. 4 for another chance in the race. Last out he was a late-closing second to fellow Whitney contestant Silver State in the June 5 Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan Handicap (G1) at Belmont.

"That's one of the things that impressed me about his last race, he ran so well and it wasn't his ideal distance," trainer Bret Calhoun said. "A one-turn mile is a little shorter for him, but he definitely can move forward off that race. He ran a nice race in the Met Mile. He got ran over at the gate a little bit, but he bounced back and trained very well since. I like the good spacing between his races. He'll go an easy half-mile Sunday at Colonial and will arrive at Saratoga Wednesday morning. Hopefully everything goes well between now and then." BH

HILLS' 'HORSE OF A LIFETIME' BATTAASH RETIRED

By James Burn/Racing Post

An emotional Charlie Hills was close to tears as he paid tribute to Battaash—one of the top-performing geldings ever trained on the flat in Britain—as his horse of a lifetime.

It is 10 years since Hills took over the training license from his legendary father Barry and since then a brace of classics have been won along with an unprecedented haul of four successive group 1s for sublime sprinter Muhaarar, but in that time no horse at Faringdon Place has come close to matching the popularity Battaash accumulated during a 25-race career that ended the morning of July 31, a day after the 7-year-old had disappointed when seventh in the King George Qatar Stakes (G2) at Glorious Goodwood.

That decision—made by Sheikha Hissa Hamdan Al Maktoum, the daughter of the gelding's initial owner Hamdan Al Maktoum, who died in March—left Hills's youngest son Eddie in tears and his father at times came close to choking them back, and it is little wonder considering what the compact son of Dark Angel achieved in a glittering period that yielded 13 wins—four at the highest level in the Coolmore Nunthorpe (G1) twice, King's Stand (G1), and Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp Longines (G1)—and £1,774,180 in prize money.

His best Racing Post Rating of 129 was achieved twice including in the 2019 Nunthorpe—when he lowered the mighty Dayjur's 29-year track record—and he was officially recognized as the world's best sprinter that year.

"It's been a great trip, a hell of a journey," said Hills.

"We had six years and he was at the top of his game. He had 25 starts and was out of the first four just three times. He's had a top career and this weekend has been emotional.

"His Abbaye win as a 3-year-old was probably the standout. That was pretty special, but there were obviously his Nunthorpe victories as well and winning at Royal Ascot. That was a big moment as he'd been beaten in the race twice and then won it."

Hills's Lambourn neighbor Nicky Henderson has had his fair share of public horses in star chasers Sprinter Sacre and Altior, but they are rarer on the flat—something not lost on the speedball's team.

It was great having a horse like (Battaash), who kept going for so long. They don't come around very often.”

—CHARLIE HILLS

"It was great having a horse like him who kept going for so long," Hills added.

"They don't come around very often, certainly in our stable anyway when a lot of them finish at 3 or 4.

"To have him for so long meant he became very close to everyone at the yard and my family as well, my wife Pip, and my sons James and Eddie. It'll be tough. He's the horse of a lifetime."

Continuing that theme, Philippa Hills added:

"Eddie was in tears when we told him this morning, but Battaash has become part of our family. He really has. We see him every day and you never normally get that with flat horses."

Battaash, looked after for most of his career by former Hills mainstay Bob Grace, was gelded as a juvenile, which was a blow for the breeding industry, but a necessity.

He became easier to deal with through maturity and Charlie Hills went on: "There was a lot of nonsense early on and some of it was a bit of a myth, but he became the ultimate professional in his training at home. He enjoyed his work and routine and was competitive when he was with another companion, but he knew his job."

Sheikha Hissa also wished the rocket-fueled sprinter well, posting on Twitter: "I would like to thank everyone involved with Battaash's care and training, keeping our boy healthy and sound throughout his career. Thank you Battaash. We love you and wish you a happy retirement full of green grass, sunshine."

Jim Crowley was the jockey most associated with Battaash, although Dane O'Neill, the second rider for the Shadwell operation, was a key component of his preparation at home.

"It feels a bit sad," said Crowley. "He's a wonderful horse. We've had some great days and he's going to have a happy retirement. He'll be much missed. Riding him was something special. There was always a real buzz. When he won the Nunthorpe (breaking Dayjur's course record) it was one of the best days racing I've had." For more European racing, sales, and bloodstock news, visit RacingPost.com. BH

WRITTEN TYCOON CROWNED CHAMPION AUSTRALIAN SIRE

By Tim Rowe/ANZ Bloodstock News

Written Tycoon, in a stud career traversing three states and 14 years, has won his maiden Australian general sires championship, ending the four-year reign of prolific rival Snitzel, and the first 'Victorian' stallion to do so in more than 40 years.

The newly minted champion, who was the center of a major buyout earlier this year which will see him return to Victoria at Yulong Stud, sired 12 individual stakes winners in 2020-21 and progeny earnings of AU$17,035,983, led by group 1 winners Ole Kirk, Odeum, and Pippie.

Yarraman Park Stud's I Am Invincible, who sired an Australian record 208 individual winners last season, was second on the overall sires' table while Not A Single Doubt was third and Snitzel, after four consecutive years at the top, finished fourth.

Written Tycoon's premiership is also a crowning moment for Mark Rowsthorn, who played studmaster at Woodside Park Stud during the pivotal period the son of Iglesia made his long march up the Australian sires' table.

Rowsthorn, who completed a deal to sell Woodside Park Stud to Eddie Hirsch in recent weeks, declared Written Tycoon as "an out and out champion."

His fee increased from an advertised AU$13,750 to AU$110,000 (inc GST) under Rowsthorn's watch before a one-year agreement saw Written Tycoon stand at Arrowfield Stud in the Hunter Valley last year for a fee of AU$77,000.

He is the first Victorian-based stallion to be Australia's leading sire since Century in 1978-79.

"From a humble start, he did it the hard way with working-class mares and now he's covering the very best. The future is very exciting with sons of standing looking very much like they have carried the genes to produce high-quality juveniles," Rowsthorn said.

"Written Tycoon stood at Woodside for nearly 10 years and he provided the anchor to our roster. His fertility and longevity are hallmarks of his legendary status.

"We will miss him very much but we will continue to be one of his largest customers."

Also this season's leading Australian 3-year-old sire, Written Tycoon had stints at Eliza Park Stud in Victoria and Queensland prior to relocating to Woodside Park for the majority of his career and the 19-year-old will live out his days at Yuesheng Zhang's Yulong Stud at Nagambie where he will stand for a fee of AU$165,000.

Written Tycoon, who began his stud career in 2007 and had been at Woodside Park Stud from 2013-19, finished ninth on the table last year, seventh in 2018-19, and eighth the previous two seasons.

His previous best finish was in 2015-16 when he finished third on the table, the same season in which his Queensland-conceived son Capitalist won the 2016 Longines Golden Slipper (G1).

"Woodside provided 20 to 30 mares to Written from day one and we did our best to bring him to the attention of all breeders over the years," Rowsthorn said. "His success is very much on the horse but without our management and support his success may not have been as great."

Yulong Stud's chief operating officer Sam Fairgray was thrilled that Written Tycoon had joined Zhang's stallion roster at the peak of his powers.

"He's such a durable stallion. He gets colts, fillies, sprinters, and horses who get over distances. He's very versatile," Fairgray said. "We've seen his yearlings sell for AU$1.2 million at Magic Millions, he had the sales topper in Melbourne, and so forth. He's shown what a fantastic stallion he is because he's upgraded a lot of his mares and he hasn't started with a high-quality batch of mares.

"As he's become more successful, the quality has improved and so have his results."

Written Tycoon's prowess as a sire of sires was strongly enforced last season through the deeds of Capitalist and Newgate Farm barnmate Winning Rupert while this season he has Ole Kirk (Vinery Stud) and group 2 winner Dirty Work (Spendthrift Australia) retiring to stud.

"In the next few years people who want to buy colts for the syndicates, the Written Tycoon colts are going to be very popular and he'll be a good broodmare sire in the years to come as well," Fairgray said.

"I think he's recognized now as obviously one of the elite stallions here in Australia and the broodmares that he got last season and what he's going to get this season, he's getting the best broodmares in Australia, so he's a lovely horse to have about.

"Having worked with some of the best stallions like Redoute's Choice and Written Tycoon, their character and personality are very similar. They are both chilled, relaxed horses and they are able to pass that onto their progeny and that is what helps them to be successful on the racetrack.

"He's a lovely old horse, he has a great temperament, and we are all very proud to have him standing at Yulong for the rest of his career."

SHEDARESTHEDEVIL BATTLES WESTERN FOES IN CLEMENT HIRSCH

By Tracy Gantz

Shedaresthedevil, winner of the 2020 Longines Kentucky Oaks (G1) and a grade 1 winner at Churchill Downs again this year, dares to challenge several Southern California graded stakes-winning distaffers in the $300,000 Clement L. Hirsch Stakes (G1) at Del Mar Aug. 1. The 1 1/16-mile Hirsch will go as the ninth race on a 10-race card, with a post time of 6:00 p.m. PST. It is a Breeders' Cup Challenge event for the Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1), which will be held Nov. 6 at Del Mar.

As Time Goes By, Venetian Harbor, and Warren's Showtime pose the biggest threats to the invasion of Shedaresthedevil. All have won multiple stakes on the Southern California circuit. The field also includes stakes-placed Paige Anne and Clockstrike twelve and allowance winner Cover Version.

Brad Cox, the Eclipse Award-winning trainer of 2020, is sending Shedaresthedevil, a 4-year-old Kentucky-bred daughter of Daredevil—Starship Warspeed, by Congrats, to the Hirsch for owners Qatar Racing, Flurry Racing Stables, and Autry Lowry Jr. Regular rider Florent Geroux will pilot from post 7.

Shedaresthedevil is no stranger to Southern California. Simon Callaghan trained her for most of her 2-year-old season in 2019, and she ran third in the Sorrento Stakes (G2) at Del Mar and second in the Anoakia Stakes at Santa Anita Park. This year

Shedaresthedevil has won the La Troienne Stakes Presented by Twinspires.com (G1) and Azeri Stakes (G2) and most recently finished third in the Ogden Phipps Stakes (G1).

Warren's Showtime is one of two California-breds Craig Lewis has in Del Mar's weekend graded stakes, the other being Brickyard Ride in the July 31 Bing Crosby Stakes (G1). Both are by Clubhouse Ride, a top California sire Lewis trained to multiple graded wins.

"They resemble him in appearance and toughness," Lewis said of his current runners. "He loved to train and run, and so do both of them."

With the strong Cal-bred stakes program at Del Mar, Lewis has the option of the Aug. 15 Solana Beach Stakes on the turf for Warren's Showtime, who drew the rail in the Hirsch and has the services of Juan Hernandez.

"It'll probably be a last-minute decision," Lewis said. "She may be a little bit better on grass, but she definitely can run on dirt as well."

A 4-year-old homebred for Ben and Sally Warren, Warren's Showtime most recently won the Wilshire Stakes (G3T) on turf, but she also took the 2020 Melair Stakes against state-bred competition on the dirt.

As Time Goes By, a 4-year-old Kentucky-bred daughter of Triple Crown winner American Pharoah from the Bob Baffert barn, drew post 3 and will have Mike Smith aboard for the Hirsch. Owned by the Coolmore connections of Michael Tabor, Mrs. John Magnier, and Derrick Smith, As Time Goes By is coming off back-to-back victories in the April 24 Santa Margarita Stakes (G2) and May 22 Santa Maria Stakes

(G2) at Santa Anita. In her stakes debut, she finished second to champion Swiss Skydiver in the Beholder Mile (G1).

Mario Gutierrez will be aboard Venetian Harbor from post 6 for trainer Richard Baltas and owners Ciaglia Racing, Highland Yard, River Oak Farm, and Domenic Savides. A 4-year-old Kentucky-bred daughter of Munnings, Venetian Harbor last out won the June 5 Monrovia Stakes (G2T) in her first race since unplaced in last year's Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1). She captured the 2020 Lexus Raven Run Stakes (G2) and Las Virgenes Stakes (G2). BH

DRAIN THE CLOCK, JACKIE'S WARRIOR REMATCH IN AMSTERDAM

By Byron King

@BH_Bking

Two months after dueling in the June 5 Woody Stephens Stakes Presented by Nassau County Industrial Development Agency (G1) at Belmont Park, 3-year-olds Drain the Clock and Jackie's Warrior square off again Aug. 1 in the $200,000 Amsterdam Stakes (G2) at Saratoga Race Course.

The two grade 1 winners, both by Maclean's Music, are the 124-pound highweights in the 6 1/2-furlong dash, which drew four other runners, including the twice graded-placed Crowded Trade. The Amsterdam serves as a prep for Saratoga's most prestigious race for 3-year-old sprinters, the $500,000 H. Allen Jerkens Memorial (G1) Aug. 28.

Slam Dunk Racing, Madaket Stables, Wonder Stables, and Michael Nentwig's Drain the Clock outbroke Jackie's Warrior in the seven-furlong Woody Stephens, contributing to his victory. The sharp beginning allowed Jose Ortiz to position where he wanted to be—outside Kirk and Judy Robison's Jackie's Warrior, ridden by Joel Rosario.

Jackie's Warrior recovered from a flat-footed start and an early steady under Rosario to take command inside Drain the Clock, leading him for six furlongs before weakening over the final furlong. Drain the Clock inched past him late for a neck victory.

The Woody Stephens is one of four stakes victories for Drain the Dock, bred by Slam Dunk's Nick Cosato. Earlier, the colt won the Bay Shore Stakes (G3), the Claiborne Farm Swale Stakes (G3), and Limehouse Stakes.

"Most of his one-turn races were won in hand," said trainer Saffie Joseph Jr. "He was basically geared down the last sixteenth in the Bay Shore. We always thought he had more to give, but until you see it you don't know for sure and the Woody Stephens was definitely his breakout race. He earned his respect that day and beat a game horse in Jackie's Warrior. He's in good form, and I think he's going over there with a really good chance."

As in their last meeting, he is drawn just inside Jackie's Warrior in post 2.

Irad Ortiz Jr., who missed the opportunity to ride last out due to injury, returns in the irons.

The Steve Asmussen trained Jackie's Warrior lost for the first time around one turn in the Woody Stephens. Last year at 2, he captured a maiden race, the Saratoga Special Stakes Presented by Miller Lite (G2), the Runhappy Hopeful Stakes (G1), and Champagne Stakes (G1) before tiring to fourth in the 1 1/16-mile TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile Presented by Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (G1).

He began the year with a third in the Southwest Stakes (G3) around two turns before his connections opted to return him to one-turn events. He captured the Pat Day Mile Stakes Presented by LG&E and KU (G2) before his runner-up finish in the Woody Stephens.

Klaravich Stables' Crowded Trade, fifth in the 1 3/16-mile Preakness Stakes (G1) for trainer Chad Brown, is a dangerous late threat following a cutback in distance. He ran second in the one-turn Gotham Stakes (G3) over a mile this spring and rallied from fifth to break his maiden over six furlongs at Aqueduct Racetrack in January.

Also entered are River Dog, 2-for-2 in easier company, Flash of Mischief, a minor sprint stakes winner at Prairie Meadows in May, and Mister Luigi, who moves up from a first-level Gulfstream Park allowance optional claimer after a fourth-place finish. BH

UNBEATEN FILLIES LORENA, JILLI MARIE TOP WOODBINE OAKS

By BloodHorse Staff

Lorena and Jilli Marie will put their respective unbeaten records on the line Aug. 1 in the $500,000 Woodbine Oaks Presented by Budweiser. The Oaks and the $150,000 Plate Trial, contested with a short field early on the Sunday program at Woodbine, are key preps for the Aug. 22 Queen's Plate.

Inaugurated in 1956, the filly classic attracted 10 Canadian-foaled 3-year-old fillies carrying 121 pounds over 1 1/8 miles on the Tapeta.

Favored at 2-1 is Lorena, a daughter of Souper Speedy bred by Dr. Liam Gannon and trained by Stuart Simon. The latter co-owns her with Brent and Russell McLellan and former jockey Gerry Olguin. The dark bay is 3-for-3, including a front-running score in the Fury Stakes July 10 at Woodbine.

In the Fury, Lorena led the field of Canadian-bred fillies through a quarter in :23.57 and a half-mile in :46.82 and held her challengers at bay to win the seven-furlong sprint in 1:23.94 with Gary Boulanger in the irons.

"She's just done everything so well," praised Simon. "She keeps taking steps forward. I'm not concerned about the distance. I'm a little concerned about running back in three weeks. It's a cramped schedule, but there's also only one chance to win the Oaks."

Boulanger, inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2020, will look to win his second Oaks, 20 years after guiding Sam-Son star Dancethruthedawn to victory in both the Oaks and Queen's Plate.

Lorena adds Lasix. Sunday's race will be her first route.

The Katerina Vassilieva-trained Jilli Marie will also endeavor to keep her win streak intact. Owned by Kevin Drew, the daughter of Dynamic Sky is also 3-for-3. One of those victories came in the South Ocean Stakes two starts ago, back in the fall of last year.

"She's a really gritty filly," said Vassilieva. "She has a lot of heart. She's such a small horse in stature, but she has a ton of heart. She tries so hard in all of her races. She's fearless, she's patient—she has all the right qualities of a really good racehorse."

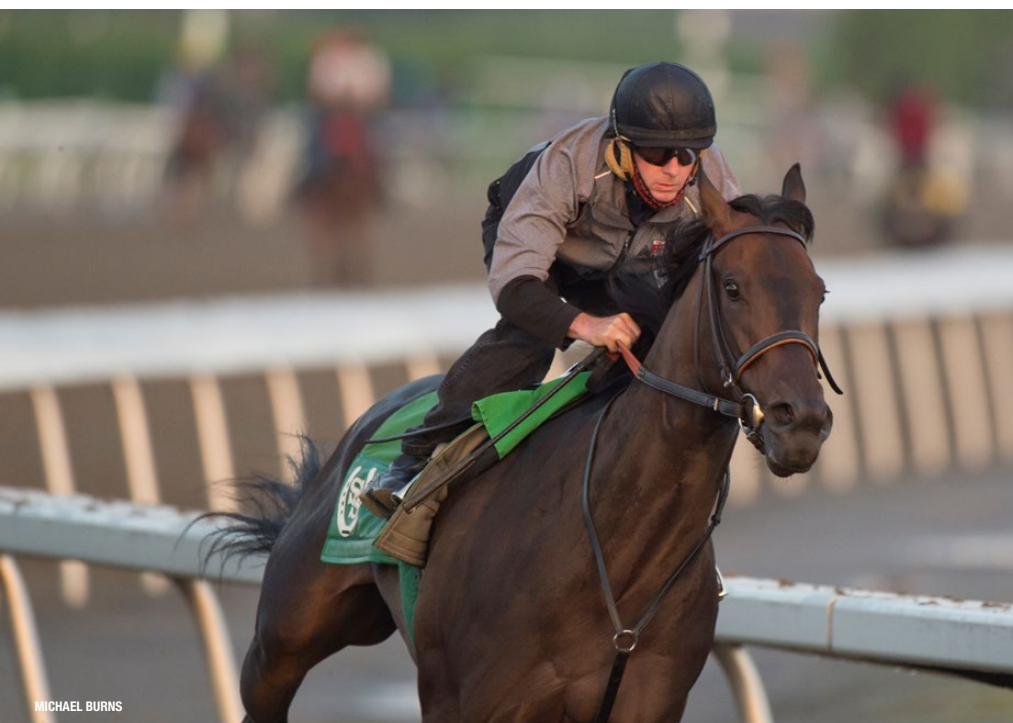

All of her races have also been in sprints.

Breeze Easy's Curlin's Catch, trained by Mark Casse, is another contender, as is Raroma Stable's Munnyfor Ro, runner-up in open company in the Selene Stakes (G3) for trainer Kevin Attard.

The Oaks goes as the eighth race at 4:46 p.m. ET.

About two and a half hours earlier in the third race, just four males are lined up in the Plate Trial, two of them maidens.

Stakes-winning Avoman is narrowly favored at 8-5 odds on the morning line in the 1 1/8-mile contest, just ahead of H C Holiday at 9-5. D-Mac Racing Stable and La Huerta's Avoman took the Bull Page last year for trainer Donald MacRae, while Ivan Dalos' H C Holiday was fourth in an optional claiming race July 3, a length and a quarter behind third-place Avoman. The Attard-trained H C Holiday was disqualified from a June 13 maiden victory at Woodbine. BH

PINK LLOYD AIMS FOR FIFTH STRAIGHT VIGIL STAKES SCORE

By Byron King

@BH_Bking

Either in races for Canadian-breds or in open company, Ontario-breds are in the stakes spotlight Aug. 1 at Woodbine.

Besides those running in the restricted CA$500,000 Woodbine Oaks Presented by Budweiser and in the CA$150,000 Plate Trial, two other Ontario-foaled runners, Pink Lloyd and Amalfi Coast, compete in open stakes. The former is among a field of six older male sprinters in the CA$150,000 Vigil Stakes (G3) over six furlongs on the main track, and the latter goes in the $175,000 Royal North Stakes (G2T) against seven other older fillies and mares on turf over the same distance.

Owned by Entourage Stable and trained by Robert Tiller, Pink Lloyd is a seven-time Sovereign Award winner and 2017 Canadian Horse of the Year. All 34 of his career starts have come at Woodbine on its synthetic main track, resulting in 26 victories.

Four of those scores came previously in the Vigil, a race Pink Lloyd took consecutively from 2017-20.

However, the 9-year-old Old Forester gelding has lost two straight, running third in his final race of the 2020 season in the Kennedy Road Stakes (G2) last fall and second in the June 20 Jacques Cartier Stakes (G3).

Rafael Hernandez returns in the irons.

Live Oak Plantation's Souper Stonehenge, trained by Mark Casse and ridden Sunday by Patrick Husbands, defeated him by four lengths in the Jacques Cartier. He also finished in front of Pink Lloyd when second in the Kennedy Road.

Souper Stonehenge is the Vigil's even-money morning-line favorite, just ahead of Pink Lloyd at 7-5.

Casse also runs Heste Sport's Not So Quiet, the 5-1 third choice in the race.

Terra Racing Stable's Amalfi Coast is, like Pink Lloyd, coming off two straight defeats, though she remains in good form. An 8-1 shot in the Royal North, she was a rallying third-place finish in the Whimsical Stakes (G3) June 19, which followed a fourth in the Bessarabian Stakes (G2) Nov. 21.

Justin Stein is again aboard the Kevin Attard trainee, a 5-year-old daughter of Tapizar.

Perry Harrison's Change of Control is the 9-5 Royal North favorite, having won the Intercontinental Stakes (G3T) June 3 at Belmont Park. The 5-year-old Fed Biz mare has hit the board in all six of her races this year and captured the Giant's Causeway Stakes at Keeneland in her other 2021 victory.

The Michelle Lovell-trained sprinter ships to Canada after compiling a 7-for-27 record in the United States. Husbands rides.

Also traveling across the border is Jim and Susan Hill's dual stakes winner Lead Guitar, who makes her seasonal debut after winning her final four races of 2020 in the U.S. Trainer George Weaver has put the 5-year-old Maclean's Music mare through a series of workouts at Saratoga Race Course leading up to her return.

The New York-bred is the 2-1 second choice on the morning line under Hernandez.

The Vigil is the seventh race Sunday, followed by the Woodbine Oaks and Royal North. The Plate Trial is the day's third race with a field of only four. BH
