PRAT MAKES SMOOTH TRANSITION TO NEW YORK

By Bob Ehalt

@BobEhalt

Successful jockeys must have an internal stopwatch that can tell them whether a horse is traveling at a :46 or :48 pace.

Their career hinges on a superlative sense of timing.

All of which explains why Flavien Prat is now riding in New York on a daily basis.

He knew the timing was right.

"I have wanted to ride in New York for a while, and I knew if I was ever going to do it, this was the time," Prat said. "My two children are 3 years old and 6 months old, and if I continue to wait, they would be in school and have friends and it would be much harder on everyone to move."

So now, after dominating California racing for the last three years, Prat and his wife, Manon, and children, Elena and Lenny, are living in Garden City, N.Y., not far from Belmont Park, as the 29-year-old rider takes the initial strides in a huge step forward in his career.

"I liked riding in California, but it seems like you get more credit when you ride and win in New York," Prat said. "I believe there will be more recognition for winning in New York, and that will help my career."

A native of France, Prat's decision to move from one coast to the other created rumblings in both locales.

In California, there were smiles from fellow jockeys and their agents, knowing the rides on a plethora of top horses were suddenly up for grabs after belonging to Prat for the last few years. Since 2019, the last three riding titles at the Santa Anita Park winter/spring meet and the Del Mar summer meet were captured by Prat, who won the 2021 and 2020 crowns at "The Great Race Place" by landslide 32- and 29-win margins, respectively. The shadow he cast over Southern California racing can also be seen in how he is still second among the leading riders at Santa Anita, even though he stopped riding there on a daily basis April 3 when he started his trek east with a month-long stint in Kentucky.

Jockey Flavien Prat at Belmont Park

Yet for all of those wins, as well as victories aboard Country House in the 2019 Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) and Rombauer in the 2021 Preakness Stakes (G1), the only time he received enough support to become an Eclipse Award finalist was last year.

“(Prat is) very talented and driven. He’s always working on his profession. He’s in excellent shape. He studies his races and gives terrific feedback... Whatever team he is on, he will make better.”

Prat lost out in the voting to Joel Rosario, who became the 12th straight jockey based in New York for most of the year to be honored with the Eclipse Award. Both Prat and his agent, Brad Pegram, knew that where those riders (Ramon Dominguez, Javier Castellano, Jose Ortiz, Irad Ortiz Jr., and Rosario) called home was not a coincidence, and that even after posting career highs in wins (246) and earnings ($23.2 million) in 2021, it was time to head east, young man.

"I believe there will be more recognition for winning in New York," said Prat, a 2009 champion apprentice in France who moved to the United States in 2015 and has 1,321 North American wins and earnings of $108.6 million (through June 2). "Obviously, there are a lot more racing days in New York, and I felt I could get good support from the trainers and make it work. I also like the competition here in New York. This is how you become a better rider and that brings you to a better level. You want to face the best riders and win."

And with that desire urging him on, the nation's premier jockey colony added even more star power and the competition for mounts became far more intense among a star-studded group that features the Ortiz brothers, Luis Saez, Rosario, John Velazquez, Castellano, and solid year-round riders Kendrick Carmouche, Dylan Davis, Trevor McCarthy, Jose Lezcano, and Manny Franco.

Looking ahead, Prat's presence will be heralded June 11 when New York's biggest card of racing unfolds on Belmont Stakes Day. While Prat is unlikely to win the Belmont Park riding title, his mounts on an afternoon with eight grade 1 stakes include two of the day's biggest stars: We the People, one of the favorites in the Belmont Stakes Presented by NYRA Bets (G1), and Flightline, the undefeated odds-on choice in the Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan Handicap (G1).

Zandon with Flavien Prat aboard wins the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland

"Prat is a phenomenal rider," said Steve Rushing, agent for three-time Eclipse Award winner Irad Ortiz Jr., who has won 21 NYRA titles. "Anytime a rider like him comes into a new place it's definitely going to have a trickle-down effect on all the riders. Everyone is going to be asking for his services. It was a loaded jockeys' room to begin with and he made it that much tougher. The trainers have a lot of options."

Though Pegram also serves as Hall of Famer Mike Smith's agent, he had enough faith in Prat's ability to make a seamless transition to the New York Racing Association circuit that he followed his rider's lead and moved to the Big Apple, settling not far from him in Valley Stream, N.Y.

"I thought it was a smart thing to do. It was a great idea," Pegram said about Prat's decision. "He had success riding in New York on occasion the last few years, and I knew he would fit right in."

The timing was also perfect on another level. By riding at the spring/summer meet at Belmont Park, it will allow Prat enough time to establish himself and gather momentum heading into NYRA's marquee meet at Saratoga Race Course, when the sport's top horses, trainers, owners, and jockeys gather for an unparalleled 40-day meet in the foothills of the Adirondack Mountains.

"To go into Saratoga without being at Belmont would be difficult," said Pegram, who expects Prat to return to California for the winter before heading east again next spring. "Saratoga is a special meet and we're both looking forward to it."

Though Prat's early days in New York have been slowed by a May 8 start on a regular basis, a three-day suspension, and a trip back to California for the Memorial Day stakes, he has already made important inroads with New York horsemen, especially Chad Brown, New York's leading trainer the last seven years.

Prat and Brown teamed for grade 1 wins across the country in the last year with Zandon, Domestic Spending, Tribhuvan, Shantisara, and Blowout, and Prat rode Toyota Blue Grass Stakes (G1) winner Zandon to a third-place finish in last month's Kentucky Derby for the four-time Eclipse winner. With Prat now in New York, Brown has made frequent use of the French rider and has been rewarded with five of Prat's 10 wins in his first 42 mounts at Belmont Park.

"He's ridden some nice horses for us and it's a partnership that's gotten off to a good start the last few years, and now to be able to work with him on a regular basis enhances it," Brown said. "He's very talented and driven. He's always working on his profession. He's in excellent shape. He studies his races and gives terrific feedback. He has a wonderful personality and that makes him easy to work with and helps to build a great working relationship. Whatever team he is on, he will make better. I couldn't be happier to have him as one of the group of jockeys we're lucky enough to have on our horses."

In particular, Brown has enjoyed having Prat available to work his most promising runners.

"Even in the mornings it's been a real pleasure to work with someone like Flavien who is that dedicated, talented, and respectful," Brown said.

For Prat, having Brown in his corner has been a much welcomed boost.

"Chad is a great trainer and to get a chance to ride for him is a great opportunity," Prat said. "When you have a chance to ride for Chad, you have to take it."

Brown still uses the Ortiz brothers extensively, putting Jose on Preakness winner Early Voting, and having Prat in New York only underscores his preference for having several options for his large stable as opposed to a single, regular rider.

"It's all positive when you can have that many great riders available on your team, as I call it," Brown said. "I try to match up the right jockey with the right horse. It brings me a great sense of accomplishment when I can spread out a lot of the success through several jockeys as opposed to one. It's not true that any jockey can get the job done. A lot of these jockeys we use can make a difference in a race."

The Belmont Stakes Day card promises to serve as Prat's introduction as a full-fledged member of the New York riding colony to a national audience. In Flightline, he has the mount on one of the sport's most electrifying runners who will try to keep his perfect record intact while stretching out to a mile for the first time in the Met Mile.

"He's been very impressive," Prat said about the grade 1-winning Flightline, who has won his three career starts by a combined 37 1/2 lengths. "He has done everything we've asked of him."

He will also be in the spotlight and have a bull's-eye on his back in the featured Belmont Stakes, riding one of the top three favorites in We the People, a son of Constitution owned by WinStar Farm, CMNWLTH, and Siena Farm. Prat guided the fleet 3-year-old to a 10 1/4-length, front-running victory May 14 in the 1 1/8-mile Peter Pan Stakes (G3) over a sealed, good track at Belmont. In a final leg of the Triple Crown short on early speed, how Prat nurses We the People in the early stages of the 1 1/2-mile "Test of the Champion" should have a pronounced impact on the outcome.

"Having Flavien on him gives you a lot of confidence," said Rodolphe Brisset, who trains We the People. "He's such a good rider."

Should Prat work out a winning trip with We the People, it will put him in the select company of jockeys who have completed a personal Triple Crown, and the even smaller number who accomplished the feat before turning 30.

"I liked the way We the People ran in the Peter Pan," Prat said. "We were confident he would run a good race and he did. The mile and a half is a question mark, but we're all in the same boat. The key thing about a race like the Belmont is getting your horse to relax. You have to get him comfortable and then you can see how far he can go. The Belmont is the kind of race you want to win. There is so much history behind it and the Triple Crown, and I would love to win the third one and add it to the other two."

Could it happen? Is he on the right horse at the right time? In less than a week, after a one-lap trip around Belmont Park decides the Triple Crown finale, we'll know if the timing is once again right for Flavien Prat. BH

GAM'S MISSION WEARS DOWN DALIKA IN MINT JULEP

By Molly Rollins

@BH_MRollins

Back on her favorite turf course, Lazy F Ranch's Gam's Mission wore down a stubborn Dalika to post a 1 1/4-length victory in the June 5 $200,000 Old Forester Mint Julep Stakes (G3T) at Churchill Downs.

The winner of the Regret Stakes (G3T) over the Churchill lawn last year, Gam's Mission was the 3-1 second choice behind favored Petricor from the Bill Mott barn. Making her third start of 2022 following consecutive runner-up finishes, including a head defeat in an April 23 allowance, Gam's Mission bided her time well off the pace in the Mint Julep. Bel Mar Equine's Dalika, returning from an eight-month layoff, quickly cleared the field as she showed the way through a :24.22 opening quarter and :48.68 half-mile.

It was past the half-mile marker where Adam Beschizza nudged Gam's Mission into gear, and she advanced upon the leaders with every stride, swinging four wide into the lane for the stretch run. Dalika ran on bravely but was caught in the final sixteenth by Gam's Mission, who surged clear to hit the wire in 1:43.53 for the 1 1/16 miles on a firm course.

"She's a war horse," Beschizza said of Gam's Mission, who paid $8.20. "This filly is all heart. She probably prefers a little cut in the ground, and it was pretty fast today. She was able to overcome that and win very nicely. We thought she'd be sitting on a big run today and was doing well with just a couple of easy gallops into today's race."

Longshot Take Charge Ro was 1 1/4 lengths farther back in third, a neck in front of Petricor.

"Adam did a great job getting to settle from off the pace," trainer Cherie DeVaux said. "She was a little bit farther back than normal, but that was just sort of how the race unfolded today with (Dalika) on the front end. I'm really pleased with her effort to close that strongly."

With her second graded score, the 4-year-old filly upped her earnings to $448,708 and improved her career record to 4-3-0 from 10 starts.

Gam's Mission wins the Mint Julep Stakes at Churchill Downs

Bred in Kentucky by her owners, Gam's Mission is out of the winning War Pass mare Aunt Martha, the dam of three winners from three foals to race. Aunt Martha, a daughter of the grade 1-winning mare Auntie Mame, has an unraced 2-year-old filly by Cat Burglar and a yearling colt by Dad's Caps. BH

GOLDEN GLIDER POSTS FINAL BELMONT BREEZE

By BloodHorse Staff

Golden Glider, owned by Gary Barber in partnership with Manfred and Penny Conrad, breezed a half-mile in :49.90 the morning of June 5 on the main track at Belmont Park in preparation for the June 11 Belmont Stakes presented by NYRA Bets (G1).

NYRA clockers caught Golden Glider, with exercise rider Kylie Wellington up, through a quarter-mile in :26.20 and out in 1:02.80.

Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse, who won the 2019 Belmont Stakes with Sir Winston, said he was pleased with the work.

"I thought he worked really well. He settled early, which is what you want out of a Belmont horse, and flew home," Casse said.

The son of Ghostzapper was a distant second last out to returning rival We the People in the nine-furlong Peter Pan Stakes (G3) on May 14, the traditional local prep for the Belmont Stakes. The top-two finishers of the Peter Pan had their Belmont Stakes entry and starting fees waived.

CORBIS OUTLINE PHOTOS/JANET GARAGUSO

Golden Glider trains June 4 at Belmont Park

Casse said he is confident that Golden Glider will get the 1 1/2-mile Belmont distance and that jockey Dylan Davis can work out a stalking trip.

"I'm not worried about the mile and a half, it's just how long it's going to take him," Casse said with a laugh. "He's a one-paced type of horse, so I'm hoping he'll have a similar trip like Sir Winston. In his previous races, Sir Winston used to come from the clouds, but in the Belmont, Joel Rosario kept him close enough, and I could see the same thing happening Saturday with Dylan."

Davis, who won his first NYRA riding title at the Aqueduct Racetrack winter meet, will look to secure his first victory in a Triple Crown race.

Trainer Rodolphe Brisset said fellow

Belmont Stakes hopeful We the People exited his half-mile breeze on Saturday in good order and that all is in order for a run in the final leg of the Triple Crown.

"That was one of his best works ever," Brisset said of the four-furlong drill in :47.59. "It was a little quicker than what we were looking for, but it didn't feel like he was going that fast. The way he did it was exactly what you're looking for a week out from the race. He cleaned his feed tub and got shod, and we'll bring him back tomorrow to gallop a mile."

Meanwhile, Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) winner Rich Strike continued to train up to the Belmont Stakes with a 1 1/2-mile lap around the Belmont oval Sunday morning.

"We backed him up half a mile today, and tomorrow we'll probably let him have another two-mile gallop," said trainer Eric Reed. "He's definitely enjoying himself and came back really perky. He's appreciating everything."

Rich Strike is expected to continue his daily routine of galloping and schooling up until the race. He will likely school in the paddock during the races on Thursday or Friday. BH

SPEAKER'S CORNER, GUFO WORK AHEAD OF BELMONT UNDERCARD

By BloodHorse Staff

Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott said Godolphin's Speaker's Corner looked strong in his breeze the morning of June 5 over the dirt training track at Belmont Park in his final prep for the June 11 Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan Handicap (G1).

Jockey Jose Lezcano guided the last-out Carter Handicap (G1) winner through the solo half-mile work in :48.01.

"I let him pick it up a little more," Mott said. "He shaded :24 coming home today. He was off nice and I had him in :47 and 3. The gallop out was just normal. We let him finish up to the wire."

Speaker's Corner has breezed back five times at Belmont out of the Carter score, and Mott said he is pleased with how the talented colt is coming into the meeting with undefeated grade 1-winner Flightline and last year's Qatar Racing Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1) winner, Aloha West.

"We've had a nice schedule. We've got a good foundation and plenty of time to be fresh for this race, so hopefully it works out," Mott said. "He seems to be doing well and we got all our works in and been fortunate enough that we haven't missed anything. We did what we wanted to do."

Mott said he was impressed by Flightline's Runhappy Malibu Stakes (G1) win and is looking forward to Saturday's test, which offers the winner an automatic berth in the Big Ass Fans Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (G1) in November at Keeneland.

"Visually, very good," Mott said of Flightline. "But I'm comfortable being in my spot."

Wachtel Stable, Gary Barber, R.A. Hill Stable and Reeves Thoroughbred Racing's multiple grade 1 winner and 2020 champion turf male Channel Maker is on target for the June 11 Resorts World Casino Manhattan Stakes (G1T), a 1 1/4-mile test for older horses on the grass.

The 8-year-old English Channel gelding will be making his fourth appearance in the Manhattan after finishing eighth in 2018 and fourth in both 2019 and 2020.

Channel Maker opened his current campaign with a 1 1/4-length score in the 12-furlong Elkhorn Stakes (G2T) on April 23 at Keeneland.

COGLIANESE PHOTOS/JOE LABOZZETTA

Speaker's Corner returns to the winner's circle after the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct Racetrack

"He's doing good," Mott said. "He'll work tomorrow. It's (the Manhattan) 10 furlongs and I think he's probably better at 12, but there's really nowhere else to go and he's doing fine."

Also working for the Manhattan was Otter Bend Stables' dual grade 1 winner Gufo, who breezed four furlongs in :49 3/5 in company with multiple-stakes winner Plum Ali on Sunday over Belmont's inner turf.

Christophe Clement trains Gufo, whose work was his second since a game runner-up effort in the Man o' War Stakes (G1T) over firm Belmont turf on May 14. That day he went seven-wide on the turn and finished a length behind upset winner Highland Chief.

"Gufo worked great and is ready for the Manhattan," Clement said. "He tried very hard and ran very well in the Man o' War."

Chad Brown trainee and last year's Joe Hirsch Turf Classic (G1T) winner Rockemperor breezed five furlongs in 1:01 4/5 on the inner turf course in preparation for the Manhattan. The son of Holy Roman Emperor was second and fifth in the past two editions of the race.

"He worked really good," Brown said. "He likes Belmont quite a bit, and the key with him is firm turf. If the turf is firm on Saturday, he will run."

Brown also sent out Peter Brant's In Italian, winner of Gulfstream Park's Honey Fox Stakes (G3T) in March, and Juddmonte's Seek Again Stakes winner Masen to breeze four furlongs in company in :50 2/5. In Italian is preparing for the June 11 Longines Just a Game Stakes (G1T) and exits a runner-up effort in the May 7 Longines Churchill Distaff Turf Mile Stakes (G2T) at Churchill Downs. BH

HOT ROD CHARLIE AIMED NEXT AT MONMOUTH'S SALVATOR MILE

By Corrie McCroskey

@BH_CMccroskey

Hot Rod Charlie recorded his fourth breeze June 5 at Santa Anita Park since his runner-up finish in the March 26 Dubai World Cup Sponsored by Emirates Airline (G1).

Trainer Doug O'Neill says the 4-year-old colt has returned in strong form and feels ready for his next start.

"(He's) fantastic. The owners gave him a few weeks of a whole lot of nothing, did a lot of diagnostics on him, and everything checked out perfectly," O'Neill said. "After a little bit of freshening, we got him back going."

"The last few weeks we've asked him for some stronger exercises and he's put in some really nice works, and today was no exception. He put in a really good work this morning, we're very happy with the way he's doing and he's really close to a race."

Next up for the son of Oxbow will likely be a start in the June 18 Salvator Mile Stakes (G3) at Monmouth Park.

"These last few works have been so strong and he's bouncing out of them so well," O'Neill said. "We just think the timing on the Salvator Mile and the mile distance is more appealing to us as well after a little bit of freshening."

O'Neill said Hot Rod Charlie's regular rider, Flavien Prat, is already committed to ride in New York the day of the Salvator and that Mike Smith will take the mount instead.

Looking toward the end of the year, O'Neill said the ultimate goal is a return to the Breeders' Cup, which would be Hot Rod Charlie's third appearance at the World Championships.

"The long-term goal is the Breeders' Cup Classic, so we have that as our ideal, dream date circled as long as he stays injury free," O'Neill said.

"We're kind of one race at a time... Hopefully, the Salvator Mile is our race and hopefully he runs well and comes out of it good. There's tons of options between there and the Breeders' Cup Classic."

In his only previous race at Monmouth, Hot Rod Charlie crossed the wire in first in the 2021 TVG.com Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1) only to be placed last for interference with Midnight Bourbon in midstretch.

Bred in Kentucky by Edward Cox Jr., Hot Rod Charlie finished second in the TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile presented by Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (G1) at Keeneland in 2020, which was only his fifth appearance on the track. He came fourth in the Longines Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) in 2021 at Del Mar. Owned in partnership by Roadrunner Racing, Boat Racing, Strauss Bros Racing, and Gainesway Thoroughbreds, the colt is

4-4-3 out of 15 starts with earnings of $5,121,200. BH

2022 CLAIMING CROWN WILL BE HELD AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

By BloodHorse Staff

The 2022 Claiming Crown will be held at Churchill Downs in November, according to Dan Metzger, president of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association.

Speaking on Horse Racing Radio Network's Equine Forum June 4, National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association CEO Eric Hamelback first announced the news, saying: "I am over the moon excited to move the Claiming Crown for 2022 to Churchill Downs. Saturday, Nov. 12 is the plan for now. We are appreciative of Churchill Downs, especially to (track representatives) Mike Ziegler and Ben Huffman who wanted this event.

We are hoping for as spectacular a day as we have had at Gulfstream over the past years. The long-term plan is to stay within the Churchill Downs family, going to Louisiana (Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots) for 2023."

Representing a partnership between the National HBPA and TOBA, the Claiming Crown acts as a mini "Breeders' Cup" for owners of claiming horses.

This year will be the 24th running of the event as well as the first time it has moved in the last 10 years. Gulfstream Park has hosted it since 2012. In 2013, Gulfstream became the first track to host it consecutively since Canterbury Park, thus beginning a longer-term commitment to host. Canterbury hosted the inaugural Claiming Crown in 1999 and continued to do so for the next 10 years.

The event has also been held at Parx Racing (2002), Ellis Park (2007), and Fair Grounds (2011).

Showcasing some of the most competitive fields in the country, all claiming horses are eligible to race regardless of where they were bred or previously raced as well as the level at which their stable competes.

Consisting of nine races worth $1.1 million in purses, the Claiming Crown has become a highlight on the racing calendar for horses who have started for claiming tags between $7,500 and $35,000. BH

FLORIDA FIRST-CROP SIRES IN OBS JUNE SPOTLIGHT

By Michael Compton

Prospective buyers with an eye to the future at this week's Ocala Breeders' June Sale of 2-Year-Olds and Horses of Racing Age are likely to take note of the initial 2-year-olds by a trio of Florida-based stallions in Girvin, Awesome Slew, and Buccheri. Juveniles by the promising first-crop stallions have already commanded top dollar in the auction ring this year, and buyers will be afforded another opportunity to acquire race-ready youngsters by the accomplished racehorses during this week's sale, which runs from June 7-9 in Ocala, Fla.

Ocala Stud is home to Girvin and Awesome Slew, and both stallions rank among the leading freshman sires in the nation by sale average. Juveniles by Girvin have proved popular in the auction ring and are topped by a $725,000 filly bought by Donato Lanni, agent for Michael Lund Petersen, from consignor Paul Sharp at the recent Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale at Timonium in Maryland. Of Girvin's 26 juveniles offered this season, 24 have sold for $2,897,000, good for an average of $120,708.

Awesome Slew has had six of seven juveniles offered change hands in the ring for gross sales of $865,000, an impressive average of $144,167. Among his top sellers in the ring is a $400,000 colt now named Escalation Clause, who was purchased by Klaravich Stables from Ocala Stud at the OBS March Sale.

According to Ocala Stud's David O'Farrell, the early success of the farm's first-crop stallions is not surprising.

"Girvin was a tremendous racehorse," O'Farrell said. "He has a lot of pedigree; it's a live family. He was heavily supported by the ownership of Airdrie and Brad Grady, and we gave the horse huge support of our own right off the bat. We just believed in the horse. He was such a good racehorse and has a nice pedigree. He is everything you look for in a sire.

"Same with Awesome Slew," O'Farrell said. "He was also a tremendous racehorse in his own right. Very sound, very consistent, and he also has a very deep pedigree, and he was precocious. Both horses could run early and carry their speed a little bit. We felt that both horses were legitimate sire prospects. It's always rewarding when they perform well with their first crop at the 2-year-old sales. Their success is not a huge surprise to us."

Girvin, winner of the 2017 betfair.com Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1) at Monmouth Park, as well as the Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby (G2) and the Risen Star Stakes (G2), earned $1,624,392 during his racing career. The son of Tale of Ekati is a half brother to the late Classic-placed multimillionaire Midnight Bourbon, and Girvin won or placed in five of seven graded stakes while winning at distances from six to nine furlongs.

Girvin's first crop of runners has left the blocks running. His first winner is John Oxley's Devious Dame, a 5½-length winner of a $120,000 maiden special weight at Churchill Downs May 5 for trainer Norm Casse. A Florida-bred, Devious Dame was a $240,000 acquisition for One Up Bloodstock out of the Ocala Stud consignment at the OBS March Sale, and is slated to make her next start in the $150,000 Astoria Stakes at Belmont Park June 9.

Ocala Stud will kick things off early in the sale's opening session on Tuesday, leading over Hip 8, a daughter of Girvin out of the stakes-producing Boundary mare Lady Discreet. The bay filly, bred by Ocala Stud, Joseph O'Farrell III, David O'Farrell, et al, is a half sister to multiple-stakes winner Courtesan and stakes winner Chary and hails from the female family of grade 1 winners Discreet Cat and Discreetly Mine. The filly breezed a quarter-mile in :21 4/5 at the under tack preview.

"She is a really good filly," O'Farrell said. "She was immature earlier in the season and needed a little time. She is good-minded and athletic, very typical of the Girvins that we have seen. She is a solid filly and comes from a running family that has been good to us. She sells early, so somebody who is ready will have an opportunity to buy a nice filly early on."

Bobby Dodd consigns a pair of Girvin 2-year-olds in Hips 867 and 1009, both bred in Florida by Brad and Misty Grady. Hip 867 is produced from the stakes-placed Half Ours mare Fast City, and the colt breezed an eighth in :10 1/5 during the under tack preview. Hip 1009, a filly out of the unraced Into Mischief mare Into Style, also breezed an eighth in :10 1/5. The filly is from the family of graded-stakes winner Sister Swank and stakes winner Supah Jess.

"The Girvins are nice horses," Dodd said. "Girvin is the real deal. If you get back in his pedigree, you can see he was bred royally. They have really shown up at the 2-year-old sales with their early speed, and they are selling well. I think he is going to be a sire; I really do."

Awesome Slew, a Live Oak homebred son of Awesome Again, banked more than $1.2 million in a stellar career that saw him capture graded stakes sprinting and routing. He won the Smarty Jones Stakes (G3) as a 3-year-old in 2016, the Commonwealth Stakes (G3) and the Ack Ack Stakes (G3) in 2017, and was second in the Forego Stakes (G1) and the Carter Handicap (G1).

Awesome Slew has already been represented by his first winner when Awesome Strong crushed a maiden special weight field by six lengths in his career debut at Gulfstream Park May 6. Awesome Strong generated more headlines shortly after his facile win when he topped the Fasig-Tipton May Digital Sale, selling to Bill Childs for $500,000 last month.

Among the Awesome Slews on offer at OBS this week is Hip 195, a filly named Super Paisley, consigned by Bobby Dodd, agent. The chestnut filly breezed an eighth in :10 4/5 at the under tack preview. Bred in Florida by Chris Seale, Super Paisley was acquired by Mike Sterling for $13,500 out of the Bird In Hand Stables consignment at last year's OBS October Sale. Produced from the stakes-winning Notebook mare Paisley Park, Super Paisley is a half sister to four winners, including Barely Nothing, who owns 13 wins and has banked $321,845.

"Like the Girvins, the Awesome Slews are definitely showing up," Dodd said. "(Awesome Slew) is bred well, and I think he will be a fine sire, as well."

Hip 593 is a dark bay or brown colt by Awesome Slew consigned by S B M Training and Sales, agent. Produced from the West Acre mare Absolute Madness, the colt is a half brother to a pair of stakes-placed runners in Too Fast to Pass and Martini Madness. This is also the family of stakes winner Marilyn's Madness (the colt's second dam) and stakes winners Unreal Madness, Sejm's Madness, and Touched by Madness.

Bred in the Sunshine State by Stonehedge Farm, the colt was a $32,000 RNA at the OBS Spring Sale and previously sold at last year's OBS October Sale, where he was bought for $22,000 by Super Partners out of the Summerfield consignment.

Buccheri, a back-to-back winner of the Woodford Stakes Presented by Keeneland Select (G2T) in 2017-18 and a near-millionaire earner of $947,936, stands at Pleasant Acres Stallions. The hard-knocking and versatile son of Kantharos won 11 of 31 career stakes routing and sprinting on dirt and turf and has been represented this year with his first 2-year-olds selling for up to $145,000. Fourteen of the 15 Buccheris offered this year have sold for $686,000 and averaged $49,000.

Eddie Herrera's Nice and Easy Thoroughbreds has a pair of juveniles selling this week by Buccheri—Hips 217 and 441. Herrera, who has operated Nice and Easy Thoroughbreds for four years, is closely connected to a pair of top 3-year-olds this year. He was the exercise rider for Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) winner Rich Strike at Mayberry Farm, and he also broke, trained, and sold Curlin Florida Derby Presented by Hill 'n' Dale Farms at Xalapa (G1) winner White Abarrio under his Nice and Easy Thoroughbreds banner for $40,000 at last year's OBS March Sale to Carlos L. Perez.

Herrera thinks highly of Hip 217, a chestnut filly named Picchero. She is out of the winning Double Honor mare Pick the Double and descends from the family of multiple-stakes winner Sing Me Back Home and grade 2 stakes winner Accredited. The fleet-footed filly, who was bred in Florida by Elaine and Lee Vinson, breezed an eighth in a snappy :10 flat last week at the under tack preview.

"I really like this filly," said Herrera, who gets aboard all the horses he trains. "She has great conformation. She has a nice body and long legs. She looks like a racehorse. She's beautiful."

Hip 441 is a colt out of the winning Posse mare Super Trooper. Bred in Florida by Pam Edel, the colt is a half brother to stakes winner Peter D, winner of the 2021 Journeyman Stud Juvenile Stakes at Gulfstream Park. Nice and Easy Thoroughbreds offered Peter D at last year's OBS June Sale, where the son of He's Had Enough was a $17,000 RNA.

"I have trained four Buccheris this year, and they all have trained very well for me," Herrera said. "I think this horse (Hip 441) has a lot of heart and he has a really good mind. I think he will do very well. I like him." BH

DIAMOND HANDS BECOMES FIRST WINNER FOR SATONO DIAMOND

Juvenile racing began last weekend at JRA, with the first 2-year-old maiden race of 2022 going to Diamond Hands, the first starter for freshman sire Satono Diamond.

A son of Deep Impact, Satono Diamond won the 2016 Kikuka Sho-Japanese St. Leger (G1) and Arima Kinen Grand Prix (G1) for owner Hajime Satomi and trainer Yasutoshi Ikee. He was awarded Japanese champion 3-year-old colt in 2016. Satono Diamond began stud duty at Shadai Stallion Station in 2019, producing 97 foals the following spring.

Bred by Northern Farm, Diamond Hands is out of Mecha Corta, a group 1 winner in the Argentinian One Thousand Guineas (Mil Guineas (G1)). Similarly, the Argentine mare Malpensa, the dam of Satono Diamond, was also a group 1 winner in her native country.

Diamond Hands is campaigned by Sunday Racing and trained by his sire's trainer, Ikee. The colt took to post as the 11-5 favorite among a field of nine runners in the June 4 1,600-meter turf maiden event at Chukyo Racecourse. Settled into the fourth position early by Yuichi Fukunaga, Diamond Hands powered late down the stretch to score by 1 1/4 lengths.

"He is a very well-balanced horse," Fukunaga said. "I am sure 1,600 meters is too short, and longer is better as far as distance."

Diamond Hand's younger sibling, a filly by Maurice will be offered during the yearling session of the JRHA Select Sale July 11 as Hip 93. BH

SONGLINE EARNS ANOTHER BREEDERS' CUP SPOT FOR JAPAN

By Bob Kieckhefer

Songline became the second Japanese filly to qualify for November's Breeders' Cup World Championships with a hard-won victory in the Yasuda Kinen (G1) June 5 at Tokyo Racecourse. The win was the first at the top level for the Kizuna 4-year-old and avenged her defeat in the 2021 NHK Mile Cup (G1), in which she finished second to Schnell Meister.

Jockey Kenichi Ikezoe got Songline going cleanly from the No. 13 gate in a field of 18 in the 1,600-meter (about a mile) Yasuda Kinen and raced near the middle of a compact pack, outside of any potential traffic. Turning into the uphill stretch, Ikezoe swung widest of all and made steady progress to challenge for the lead inside the final 100 meters. Christophe Lemaire wove Schnell Meister around rivals and just missed winning by a neck in a blanket finish.

Salios looked like the winner until the final strides but settled for third, a head farther back and just half a length ahead of Serifos, who was fourth. The favorite, Elusive Panther, had every chance in midstretch but faded to get home eighth. Café Pharoah, an American Pharoah colt making only his second start on the turf, beat only one rival. He likely is headed back to the dirt, where he is a two-time grade 1 winner.

Songline, bred by Northern Farm and campaigned by Sunday Racing Co., Ltd., finished fifth just three weeks earlier in the Victoria Mile (G1) for fillies and mares over the same course and distance when she was left with too much to do in the late running. That race, a Breeders' Cup Challenge event for the Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf (G1T), was won by the white filly Sodashi.

Both Ikezoe and trainer Toru Hayashi were cognizant of short rest but Hayashi expressed confidence before the race that Songline was ready.

"The pace was slow in the Victoria Mile and those racing toward the front had the advantage," he said. "Even so, I think she did a good job gaining ground in the final stage."

Ikezoe agreed it was "a tight schedule for the filly. But the staff at the stables prepared her remarkably.

"She broke well and I decided to settle her behind Salios, who rushed up in front of us. Trying not to make the same mistake as last time, we made an early bid before the last corner and she responded well and stretched all the way for a strong finish," the rider said.

"I'm just relieved and happy that I was able to live up to the team's expectations."

While Songline's clean trip contributed mightily to her success, traffic clearly scuppered Schnell Meister's chances. The Kingman colt was trapped amid rivals early in the stretch run. He moved at the same time as Songline but had to alter course sharply to get a clean shot and ran out of room.

Songline earned a "Win and You're In" berth in the FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile (G1T) Nov. 5, and that trip does not appear out of the question for her. The filly's connections already have shown a willingness to engage her internationally, and her victory in the 1351 Turf Sprint presented by stc (G3) in Saudi Arabia Feb. 26 demonstrates her ability to handle that kind of travel.

The win also carried guaranteed entries for the first three finishers for France's top mile events, the Prix Jacques le Marois (G1) and the Prix du Moulin de Longchamp (G1).

The Saudi race, likely soon to be granted group 1 status, was Songline's second win at the group level.

The connections of Songline in the winner's presentation after the Yasuda Kinen

She also took the Fuji Stakes (G2), also at 1,600 meters over the Tokyo course, in October 2021.

Songline is out of the Symboli Kris S mare Luminous Parade. Symboli Kris S was a four-time grade 1 winner in Japan and also finished second in the Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby-G1) and third twice in the Japan Cup (G1).

While the Cazoo Derby (G1) at Epsom Downs a day earlier was run in memory of legendary jockey Lester Piggott and celebrated the Platinum Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen, this year's Yasuda Kinen celebrated the 150th birthday of the first president of the JRA, Izaemon Yasuda. BH

VADENI OUTSMARTS MODERN GAMES IN PRIX DU JOCKEY CLUB

By Owen Goulding/Racing post

Just 24 hours after Desert Crown had put away his Cazoo Derby (G1) rivals in a matter of strides at Epsom, Vadeni produced a similarly dominant display in sweeping aside El Bodegon and French Two Thousand Guineas (G1) winner Modern Games to score in the manner of a new star in France.

In doing so he provided the Aga Khan with the perfect way to celebrate 100 years of the family's involvement in the sport, 16 years on from their last success in the race with Darsi.

That was also the most recent of Christophe Soumillon's three previous Jockey Club wins and he was able to celebrate a scintillating success well before the line.

"I swept past my rivals between the 400 and the 300-meter marks and after one light tap with the whip, he completely took off," he said. "It was impressive and I certainly didn't expect what he did there. It was something totally out of the ordinary."

"I've wanted to win another classic for the prince for a long time. And from Jean-Claude Rouget and his team, the preparation was done with the skill of goldsmiths."

Rouget has become the undisputed master of the modern Jockey Club over an extended mile and a quarter and was saddling his fifth winner and his fourth since 2016.

He was in no doubt in the immediate aftermath that we had all just witnessed a colt who will challenge Desert Crown for end-of-season honors.

He said: "I knew he was a horse with a lot of talent even if he is not over-big and today he just exploded. Quite often this race turns up horses that haven't previously performed at group 1 level, we saw it with Almanzor and Sottsass and again today with him. He's a lighter model than those two but he has the same sort of class so he should have a very interesting career."

Rouget added: "We prepared him for this day and he won the Prix de Guiche (G3) very easily. But just as in rugby, you still need to kick the conversion."

"He did it in great style and now he'll need to really show us what he's made of because he didn't just win today, he strolled away with it. It's been a few years since I've seen a horse run away with this race and there were good horses in behind."

Paddy Power and Coral both introduced Vadeni at 8-1 for the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (G1), third in the list behind 2-1 favorite Desert Crown and Oaks runner-up Emily Upjohn.

Rouget did not rule out the Longchamp showpiece with the son of Churchill but made clear his main priority was to win an all-aged group 1 at around this intermediate trip.

"When you have a horse that is so good over 2,100 meters I prefer to keep them at that trip," said Rouget.

"To begin with he'll take the Almanzor route and maybe at the end of the year we might have a go at the Arc."

"For now he'll stay at 2,000 meters. He'll run in the Prix Guillaume d'Ornano (G2) at Deauville (Aug. 15) unless the ground is really heavy, as I think he's a good-ground horse. Then if things go well the Irish Champion Stakes (G1), which provided me with my best memory of Almanzor."

Rouget used the same race for Sottsass before he won the Arc in 2020.

STRAWBERRY FIELDS STUD SCORES BIG WITH DESERT CROWN

By Aisling Crowe/Racing Post

Desert Crown evoked memories of grandsire Galileo's Epsom success 21 years ago with the ease and command of his June 4 Cazoo Derby (G1) victory for Sir Michael Stoute, Richard Kingscote and Saeed Suhail.

A son of Nathaniel, he is the first colt by Newsells Park Stud's Eclipse Stakes (G1) and King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (G1) winner to strike at the highest level and the third classic winner for his sire, following Enable and Channel in the Investec Oaks (G1) and Prix de Diane (G1), respectively.

Nathaniel is now the sire of six individual group 1 winners and Deutsches Derby (G1) runner-up Enjoy Vijay from a total of 46 flat stakes performers.

Desert Crown was bred by Cambridgeshire engineer Gary Robinson, who owns Strawberry Fields Stud, near Teversham, and for whom this Derby success has been the culmination of two decades of planning, study and research, putting his theories on genetics and breeding into practice.

Robinson bred the undefeated Desert Crown (3-for-3) out of the Green Desert mare Desert Berry, whose dam, Foreign Language, he owned with the late Basil White. The Derby and Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Dante Stakes (G2) winner is the fourth runner and winner out of Desert Berry, following on from group 3 winner Flying Thunder, by Archipenko. She has a 2-year-old filly by Al Kazeem, a yearling colt from the first crop of Prix du Jockey Club (G1) winner Study Of Man and foaled a brother to Desert Crown this spring. Unsurprisingly, Desert Berry returned to Newsells Park Stud to visit Nathaniel once more.

Successful over a mile as a 3-year-old, Desert Berry hails from another top-notch Juddmonte family. Foreign Language is a winning daughter of Distant

More pertinently, Foreign Language is a half sister to Binche, a Woodman mare who did not hit the heights on the track but developed into a top-class broodmare. She is the dam of Prince of Wales's Stakes (G1) winner Byword, by Peintre Celebre, and Proviso, a daughter of Dansili who was a quadruple grade 1 winner for Juddmonte and Bill Mott.

Binche is also the dam of a pair of stakes winners by Frankel in the Prix Eugene Adam (G2) winner Finche, who was group 1-placed in Australia, and Baratti, who was a Listed winner at Longchamp in April for Andre Fabre.

Zatsfine, Binche's daughter by Oasis Dream, is the dam of group 3 winner Delaware, who is also by Frankel and stands at Woodside Park Stud in Australia, and the listed Prix de Bagatelle winner Environs, by Dansili.

Desert Crown was sold by Strawberry Fields Stud to Blandford Bloodstock for 280,000 guineas (US$383,003) at the 2020 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2.
