FIRST CAPTAIN IN JC GOLD CUP ADDS TO BIG DAY FOR OWNERS

By Bob Ehalt

🐦 @BobEhalt

It's surely a monumental weekend for a stable when the $1 million Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1) is its "other" race of the day.

Yet for Terry Finley and his partners that succinctly explains their to-do list for Sept. 3.

While Finley and the main body of his army of West Point Thoroughbreds investors will be at always sunny Del Mar Saturday to watch the undefeated Flightline in the $1 million TVG Pacific Classic (G1), a few hours earlier in the day their First Captain will run in the 1 1/4-mile Gold Cup back in their main base of New York at Saratoga Race Course.

"I do feel a little bad for First Captain. In a normal year, he would be the star of the show Saturday in a big, big way. At this point he's not, but it's all relative. That's not an indictment of his talent or race record. He just has a classmate who has done really, really well so far," said Finley, West Point's founder and president. "We feel very lucky and blessed. It will be an exciting weekend. We also have some 2-year-olds making their debut or running again, too."

Aside from the West Point investors, some of whom own shares in both Flightline and First Captain, First Captain is owned by Woodford Racing, Siena Farm, and breeder Bobby Flay, the famed celebrity chef.

Bill Farish's Woodford Racing also owns a share of Flightline.

First Captain wins the Pimlico Special at Pimlico Race Course

Both 4-year-olds came with ritzy price tags as Flightline cost $1 million as a yearling and First Captain was bought for an even pricier $1.5 million from the Stone Farm consignment as the sale-topper at the 2019 Saratoga Sale, Fasig-Tipton's Select Yearling Sale in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Unlike Flightline, who is a multiple grade 1 winner, First Captain has taken longer to find his best stride on the racetrack. A grade 3 winner last year, the son of Curlin has matured for trainer Shug McGaughey, winning the May 20 Pimlico Special (G3) and falling short by a nose to Gold Cup starter Dynamic One after a dramatic stretch duel in the July 9 Suburban Stakes (G2), a 10-furlong stakes test at Belmont Park.

"Races like the Suburban are tough to take because you don't get many chances to win a big race," Finley said. "That one stung. First Captain has a great physical appearance. It just took him a little more time for everything to come together."

First Captain will get another chance at a major win Saturday in a race that will not only keep him on track for a start in the Longines Breeders' Cup Classic (G1)—which is also the goal for Flightline—but can provide him with a grade 1 victory at a classic distance that will make him a hot stallion prospect.

"It's a major test for him. If First Captain runs bang-up, I would think we will go straight to the Breeders' Cup and that could put him on a collision path with Flightline, but it's a long time between now and the Breeders' Cup and you never know what happens," Finley said.

"But if both First Captain and Flightline are in a position to be a factor in the race, then they will both run. It's the same thing with trainers who have a few horses in a race. You have to beat all comers and you have to be fair to all of your owners. They paid their hard-earned money for the horse and deserve that."

From a financial standpoint, the entry fees for the Classic can drop to zero for First Captain—or anyone else who wins the Gold Cup—since the 104th edition of the stakes is a "Win and You're In" test for the Nov. 5 Classic at Keeneland.

As busy as the West Point and Woodford connections will be Saturday, trainer Todd Pletcher will also have his hands full at the Spa, saddling four of the eight starters.

The foursome features Repole Stable, Phipps Stable, and St. Elias Stable's Dynamic One, who has also developed into a graded stakes winner at 4, taking the Suburban and the Blame Stakes before that in his last two starts.

"Each horse is deserving in their own way and we'll see how it sorts out," Pletcher said about a group that also includes the grade 1-winning New York State-bred Americanrevolution, Untreated, and Keepmeinmind.

Dynamic One, bred by Phipps Stable, beat First Captain in the Curlin Stakes at the Spa last year, but then was given the rest of the year off after finishing seventh in the Runhappy Travers (G1).

"Dynamic One is coming off a good run in the Suburban. It seems like each race has been a little better for him. After the Travers we put him on our so-called 'Vino Rosso Program' to point to a 4-year-old campaign," Pletcher said, referencing Repole and St. Elias' 2019 Classic winner.

CHC and WinStar Farm's Americanrevolution will be tested at 1 1/4 miles for the first time. Winner of the Cigar Mile Handicap Presented by NYRA Bets (G1) last year, he was fourth in the Blame and second last time out to Gold Cup starter Olympiad in the Stephen Foster Stakes (G2).

Dynamic One wins the Suburban Stakes at Belmont Park

"We were contemplating running him in the Whitney (Stakes, G1) but WinStar had Life Is Good in there so we decided to split them up and take a shot at two grade 1's," Pletcher said about the son of Constitution. "He's trained well and ran well here last year (winning the Albany Stakes for state-breds by five lengths). He's a grade 1 winner at a mile so this will tell us which direction to go for the Breeders' Cup."

Team Valor International's Untreated (Nyquist) was third in the Suburban, losing by a little less than a length after setting the early pace.

He was also third in the Pimlico Special.

Cypress Creek Equine, Arnold Bennewith, and Spendthrift Farm's Keepmeinmind will be making his second start for Pletcher after winning a July 22 allowance race at the Spa. The son of Laoban was second to 3-year-old champion Essential Quality in the Jim Dandy Stakes (G2) last year at the Spa while running for trainer Robertino Diodoro.

"Untreated ran in the Suburban, battling to the end, and we pointed to this race since then," Pletcher said. "Keepmeinmind had a good prep for this and hopefully we can move forward. He's an impressive horse to watch in training. He breezes really well and it seems like the farther he goes the better."

Olympiad (Speightstown) will try to bounce back after finishing fourth in the 1 1/8-mile Whitney, losing by 9 1/4 lengths while having a streak of five straight wins snapped.

"He had a bad day (in the Whitney). I don't know what else to say," trainer Bill Mott said.

The field also includes Tax, winner of the 2019 Jim Dandy, and Chess Chief. BH

BOPPY O HOLDS OFF LATE THREAT TO TAKE WITH ANTICIPATION

Edited Press Release

Jockey Dylan Davis secured his first graded win at Saratoga Race Course when John C. Oxley and Breeze Easy's Boppy O staved off a late bid from Battle of Normandy to capture the Aug. 31 $175,000 With Anticipation Stakes (G3T).

Trained by Hall of Famer Mark Casse, the Bolt d'Oro colt made his grass debut in the 1 1/16-mile inner turf test for juveniles from an off-the-board effort in the six-furlong Sanford Stakes (G3) July 16 at the Spa.

Maiden winner El Conejito led the field of seven through splits of :24.93 and :50.09 over the good going with Boppy O tracking in second position in front of the stalking 2-1 mutuel favorite Andthewinneris.

Boppy O continued to track the speed down the backstretch with Andthewinneris comfortably gapped in third in front of Battle of Normandy, who was racing in fourth position to the inside of the Casse-trained maiden Determinedly. Boppy O took over midway through the final turn with three-quarters elapsing in 1:15.65 as Battle of Normandy advanced in tandem with Determinedly.

The Kendrick Carmouche-piloted Battle of Normandy was full of run down the lane under pressure from a lugging-in Determinedly and in need of racing room behind a drifting Andthewinneris. Battle of Normandy surged to the inside of Andthewinneris with a sixteenth to run and angled to the outside of the leader for one last push, falling a neck shy of a determined Boppy O in a final time of 1:46.93.

It was a further 1 1/2 lengths back to Andthewinneris in third with Determinedly, Noble Huntsman, Our Dream Rye'd—who was squeezed at the start—and El Conejito completing the order of finish. Bourbon Therapy and Bramble Blaze—who are cross-entered in the Sept. 3 Kentucky Downs Juvenile Mile—were scratched, as were Quincy Cafe and Lachaise.

Boppy O, out of the graded stakes-placed Scat Daddy mare Pappascap, is a half brother to the Casse-conditioned graded stakes winner Pappacap. A $190,000 purchase at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Boppy O graduated on debut in May at Gulfstream Park in a five-furlong maiden special weight sprint.

Casse said Boppy O, who provided his sire with a first graded winner, performed well in two breezes over the Oklahoma training turf.

"My feeling is that with Bolt d'Oro, a lot of them are going to be grass horses," said Casse, who won this event last year with the New York-bred Coinage. "So it was about the grass, but it was also (that) I wanted to run him farther. I had thought about running him in the Sapling (Aug. 27 at Monmouth Park), just because it was two turns at Monmouth. But then I said, 'You know, I'm going to breeze this horse over the grass.' I thought he breezed good enough on the grass that he deserved a shot.

He's improving every start which is good, I just hope that he stays sound and keeps moving forward. Hopefully next time it'll be the Breeders' Cup win.”

—KENDRICK CARMOUCHE

said. "He broke real sharp. I could've taken the lead, but I wanted him to get his stride comfortable going into the first turn. The five (El Conejito) went in. He was loving every part of it. I took the lead early, but he was doing it so comfortable and any challenger

I'm happy, but I'm not shocked."

Davis, who teamed up with Casse to capture the Fasig-Tipton De La Rose Stakes (Our Flash Drive) and Yaddo Handicap (Make Mischief) this summer at the Spa, said he felt confident throughout.

"Going into this, he was showing high energy levels from last time. He was really coming into the race really nicely," Davis that came up to him late, he was putting them away. He was still a little green and spotty, but he still had a lot left in the tank. He was moving really nicely."

Kendrick Carmouche rejoices after riding Boppy O to victory in the With Anticipation Stakes

Carmouche said Battle of Normandy, by City of Light and out of the multiple stakes winner Adorable Miss, performed well in his stakes debut following an impressive maiden score Aug. 6 at the Spa.

"I had a perfect trip, I sat inside the whole way. I was just waiting for a spot at the top of the lane to open," Carmouche said. "I wish I could've gotten out a little earlier to get his feet moving faster, but I had to save ground and angle out at the three-sixteenths. I thought he ran even better than last time.

"He's improving every start which is good, I just hope that he stays sound and keeps moving forward," Carmouche added. "Hopefully next time it'll be the Breeders' Cup win."

Casse indicated Boppy O will make his next start in the Castle & Key Bourbon Stakes (G2T) Oct. 9 traveling 1 1/16 miles over the turf at Keeneland. Bred in Florida by Rustlewood Warm, Boppy O banked $96,250 in victory while improving his record to 3-2-0-0. He returned $48.20 for a $2 win bet.

DISPATCHES FROM THE SPA

BROWN'S HEARING MOVED TO SEPT. 16

By Bob Ehalt and Tim Wilkin

The court appearance for trainer Chad Brown scheduled for Sept. 2 has been adjourned and moved to Sept. 16 at 9 a.m. at the Saratoga County Court House in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Brown, the four-time Eclipse Award-winner, is facing a misdemeanor charge of criminal obstruction of breathing stemming from an Aug. 17 domestic incident.

Brown, who was released on bond, entered a not guilty plea through his attorney at his Aug. 18 hearing.

Charge It Won't Make Pennsylvania Derby

Whisper Hill Farm's Charge It, who missed the $1.25 million Runhappy Travers (G1) Aug. 27 at Saratoga Race Course because of a foot abscess in his right front foot, will not be ready to run in the $1 million Pennsylvania Derby (G1) at Parx Racing Sept. 24.

"We are running out of time for that," Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher said outside his barn at Saratoga's Oklahoma Training Track Aug. 31.

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Chad Brown

Charge It, a son of Tapit, last raced on July 2 at Belmont Park when he clobbered five rivals in the Dwyer Stakes (G3). He won the race by 23 lengths and was set to train up to the Travers. A week before the race, he was scratched due to his foot issue.

Since then, Pletcher said the abscess has not healed as fast as he would have hoped.

"There is some of the hoof that hasn't mended back yet," Pletcher said. "If you train him, it's going to stay irritated and never heal up. You have to let it heal up before you start putting pressure on it."

Pletcher said Charge It has been out of his stall and has been walked three times a day. He is hopeful that he can get him back on track for light training this weekend.

Charge It has two wins and two seconds in five career starts. After breaking his maiden in his second start, he finished second in the Curlin Florida Derby Presented by Hill 'n' Dale Farms at Xalapa (G1) April 2 at Gulfstream Park.

COGLIANESE PHOTOS

He displaced his palate when finishing 17th in the Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) May 7 at Churchill Downs. Then came the tour de force in the Dwyer which was followed by setbacks.

"You better get used to it in this business," Pletcher said. "It happens all the time."

With the Pennsylvania Derby out, Pletcher said he will wait until Charge It heals before pursuing a new goal.

"There are races every weekend," he said. "First we have to get the foot right, and, once we do that, we will lock on a game plan."

Secret Oath to Train at Spa After Meet for Cotillion

When the meet at Saratoga Race Course ends on Labor Day, Sept. 5, Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas will pack up his barn and head back to his base at Churchill Downs in Louisville.

One will stay behind.

The barn's star, Briland Farm's Secret Oath, will stick around the Spa for three more weeks before she heads to her next date.

That will be Sept. 24 when she runs in the $1 million Cotillion Stakes (G1) at Parx Racing.

It's the same drill Lukas used when he kept Will Take Charge, who won the 2013 Travers Stakes (G1) at Saratoga before he went to Bensalem, Pa., where he won the Pennsylvania Derby (G2).

"I'm going to leave her right here," Lukas said, sitting behind his desk in his office at the Oklahoma Training Track. "She'll graze every day. She'll roll every day in the sand in the round pen. I mean, there are a lot of things to like, so I will just leave her here."

He said he will leave a pony to keep her company as well as an assistant. Secret Oath, a winner of three of seven starts this year with two seconds and a third ($1,449,250 in earnings), will continue her training on the Oklahoma track, which stays open through the fall.

Secret Oath, who finished second behind Nest in the $600,000 Alabama Stakes (G1) Aug. 20 and the $500,000 Coaching Club American Oaks (G1) July 23 at Saratoga, won the $1.25 million Longines Kentucky Oaks (G1) at Churchill Downs May 6.

Nest finished second in the Kentucky Oaks.

Lukas thinks a Cotillion win puts Secret Oath, a daughter of Arrogate, back in the picture for best 3-year-old filly.

"Yes, but we still probably have to go head-to-head with (Nest) to get the right answer," Lukas said. "I wish we would never go head-to-head anymore. Wish she would go against the boys in the (Longines Breeders' Cup) Classic (G1) and let us win the (Longines) Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1). At this day, at this moment, she's better than we are." BH

TURF SPECIALIST GOLDEN PAL WORKS, MAY SWAP SURFACES

By Corrie McCroskey

@BH_CMccroskey

Dual Breeders' Cup winner Golden Pal may go back to his roots for his next start, trainer Wesley Ward said Aug. 31.

The 4-year-old son of Uncle Mo—who has made 10 of 11 career starts on the turf—returned to work Wednesday at Keeneland for the first time since his Aug. 5 Troy Stakes (G3T) score at Saratoga Race Course and switched surfaces, breezing an easy four furlongs in :51 4/5 on the main track under exercise rider Julio Garcia.

Golden Pal made his racing debut in the spring of 2020 with a runner-up finish sprinting 4 1/2 furlongs on the main track at Gulfstream Park, but excelled thereafter on the lawn. He took the 2020 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint (G2T) at Keeneland as a 2-year-old and went on to success at 3, recording wins in the Quick Call Stakes (G3T), Woodford Stakes Presented by TVG (G3T), and the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T) at Del Mar. While he has worked a few times for Ward on the dirt, the majority of his works under the trainer's care have been on turf or on the synthetic track at Turfway Park, where he spent the winter last year.

"We wanted to give him a nice easy workout with Julio Garcia, who has been working him his whole life. Every week we'll step it up just a shade," Ward said. "This one was just to see how he moved over it. The next one we'll put him in company and step it up from there. He had a beautiful work today, just floated down with his ears flopping back and forth. It was really nice to see."

“His stallion value will significantly increase if he shows an affinity for the dirt, so that's the reason why we're leaning in that direction.”

FRANCES J. KARON

Golden Pal works Aug. 31 at Keeneland

Ward said the Oct. 7 Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix Stakes (G2) at Keeneland is on the radar for the colt, who is owned in partnership by Westerberg, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, and Derrick Smith. The Phoenix is part of the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series and rewards the winner with an automatic berth to the Qatar Racing Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1).

"His stallion value will significantly increase if he shows an affinity for the dirt, so that's the reason why we're leaning in that direction. We only have a start or two left with him, so we're trying to make the right decisions," Ward said. "Not only for racing, but for a stallion career. (Keeneland) being his home track, he's trained here his whole life. This is where you'd want to showcase him in that race. It would give his best chance to show, as he's trained over this track forever. This would be where he would run his best race on the dirt."

Decisions still loom for Golden Pal's connections as the days count down to his next start, which will indicate whether the colt pursues the Breeders' Cup Sprint or eyes a return to the Turf Sprint.

"We'd have to see how he goes in and out, and runs, and all that stuff," Ward said. "(A decision regarding the Breeders' Cup) will come after the race, if we do decide to go that route or if we do decide to train him to the Turf Sprint then we'll eliminate the dirt. If he wins, and wins well in the Phoenix, that'll just tell the tale right there. Basically, we're just listening to him."

This season, Golden Pal started with a victory in the April 9 Shakertown Stakes (G2T) at Keeneland, then traveled to Ascot Racecourse where he finished 16th in the June 14 King's Stand Stakes (G1) before his Saratoga rebound.

"He's a very talented horse; we can put him through the mud, or the polytrack, or through a plowed field. When they're that good sometimes it's a little deceiving," Ward said. "As we get a little quicker and start picking these works up then we'll decide which direction we're going to go, to see if he takes to the dirt as well as he does the grass. Being a tremendous talent it should muddle itself out here, the closer we get, as to which direction we go."

Golden Pal was bred in Florida by Randall Lowe, who campaigned the colt under his Ranlo Investments banner through his first four starts before selling him privately to his current connections. He has bankrolled $1,638,431 with a 7-2-0 record from 11 starts. BH

FLIGHTLINE FAVORED IN POOL 2 OF BC CLASSIC FUTURE WAGER

Edited Press Release

Undefeated 4-year-old Flightline has been installed as the 5-2 favorite for the second of two future wagers on this year's $6 million Longines Breeders' Cup Classic (G1). Pool 2 of the Breeders' Cup Classic future wager will open Sept. 2 at 12:00 p.m. ET and will close Sept. 5 at 6:30 p.m. ET.

The Breeders' Cup Classic future wager is a $2 minimum bet and is a win wager only. It enables fans to bet on 24 wagering interests for the Nov. 5 race well in advance of the actual race date. Odds on horses in the future pools typically provide more value to horseplayers than those available on race day. This year's Breeders' Cup Classic will be run at Keeneland as part of the 39th Breeders' Cup World Championships.

The future wager will consist of 23 unique interests and one "All Others" wager for a total of 24 betting interests. "All Others" includes all Thoroughbreds other than the pool's individual horses.

Betting on all Breeders' Cup Future Wagers will be offered via Breeders' Cup partner TVG.com, and other advanced deposit wagering sites, racetracks, casinos, simulcast centers, and off-track betting sites.

Flightline is the odds-on favorite for the Sept. 3 TVG Pacific Classic (G1) at Del Mar, a Breeders' Cup Challenge race that guarantees the winner an automatic starting position in the Breeders' Cup Classic. In his only start this year, the Tapit colt won the June 11 Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan Handicap (G1) at Belmont Park for trainer John Sadler and owners

CHAD B. HARMON

Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, Summer Wind Equine, West Point Thoroughbreds, and Woodford Racing.

Flightline is followed in the wagering by 7-2 Epicenter, winner of the Aug. 27 Runhappy Travers Stakes (G1) for 3-year-olds at Saratoga Race Course. The 4-year-old Life Is Good, winner of both the Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes Presented by 1/ST BET (G1) and the Whitney Stakes (G1), is listed next at 4-1. Country Grammer, winner of the Dubai World Cup Sponsored by Emirates Airline (G1), who is also entered in the TVG Pacific Classic, is the fourth choice at 12-1.

Flightline was favored at the close of Pool 1 of the future wager Aug. 7, with a will pay of $6.98 on a $2 wager.

Complete Breeders' Cup Future Wager information is available at <https://www.breederscup.com/futurewager>. Live odds will be available on the website along with Racetrack Television Network and other simulcast outlets.

TALK TO YA LATER FIRST STAKES WINNER FOR PERFECT TIMBER

By Eric Mitchell

@BH_EMitchell

Talk to Ya Later wins the Algoma Stakes at Woodbine

Talk to Ya Later's two wins from three career starts both produced milestones for her sire Perfect Timber.

The 3-year-old filly bred by Charles Fipke and raced by Piano Bar Racing became the sire's first winner in late November last year at Woodbine and then most recently earned the mantle of first black-type winner after capturing the Aug. 28 Algoma Stakes, also at Woodbine.

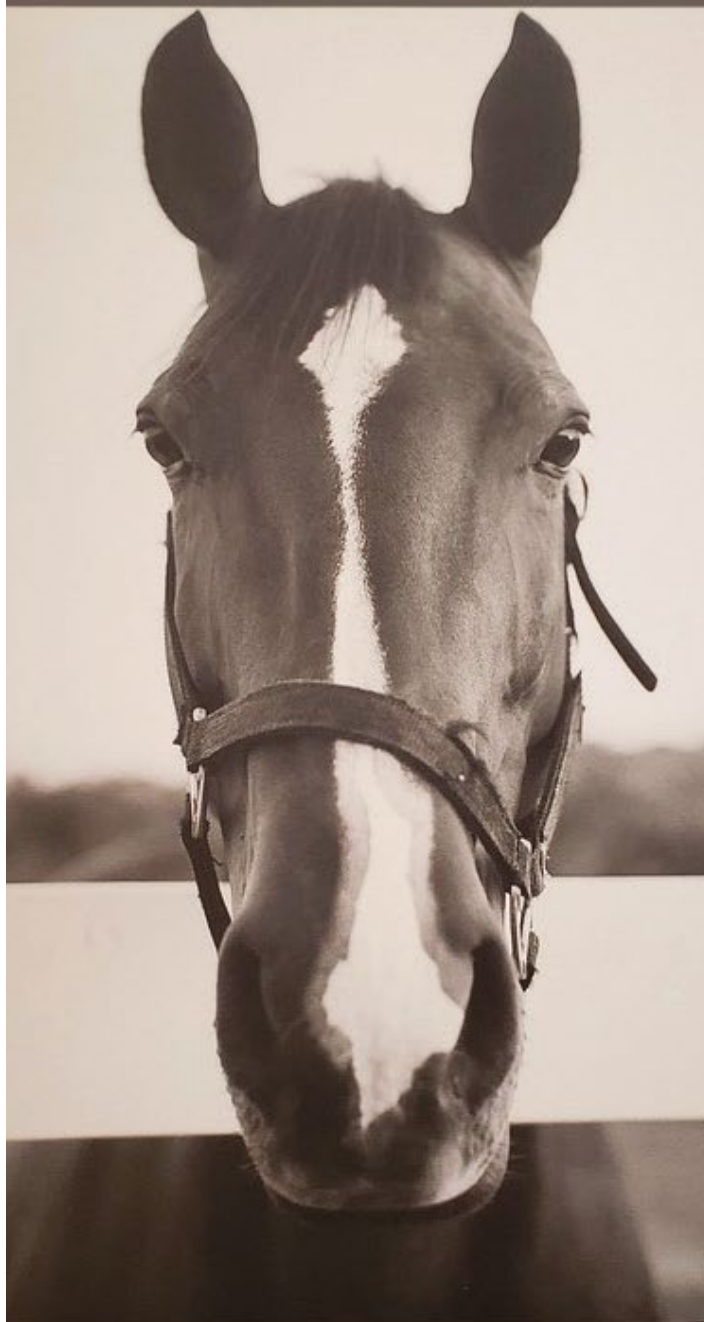

Talk to Ya Later also is the first stakes winner produced by her dam Sea The Awesome, a daughter of Sea The Stars and a half sister to stakes winner and stakes producer Street Secret (Street Cry). Jim Menzies bought the filly for CA$5,000 at the 2020 Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society Ontario Yearling Sale for his Piano Bar Racing partnership he started in 2017. She has since earned US$76,498 with trainer Ian Black.

Sea The Awesome has a yearling colt by Fipke's grade 1 winner Bee Jersey and produced a full brother this year. The mare was bred back to Perfect Timber.

Perfect Timber, a grade 1-placed Fipke homebred by Fipke's homebred sire Perfect Soul, is a multiple winner and was runner-up in the 2013 Northern Dancer Turf Stakes (G1T). He was also second twice in the Singspiel Stakes (G2T) and compiled career earnings of US$223,364.

Perfect Timber stands at Colebrook Farms Stallion Station in Ontario, where he entered stud in 2018. He stood this year for CA$2,500. BH

BE YOUR BEST STEPS UP IN P. G. JOHNSON STAKES

Edited Press Release

Mike Ryan's Irish homebred Be Your Best will make her stakes debut in the $150,000 P. G. Johnson Stakes, a 1 1/16-mile inner turf test for juvenile fillies, Sept. 1 at Saratoga Race Course.

Trained by Horacio De Paz, Be Your Best registered a field-best 79 Equibase Speed Figure in her 3 1/4-length debut maiden special weight score traveling 1 1/16 miles over firm Spa turf July 31.

Patently handled by returning rider Jose Ortiz, the Muhaarar bay settled in seventh through the opening quarter-mile before advancing outside rivals through the final turn. Be Your Best rallied five-wide down the lane, taking command in the final eighth of a mile to win in a final time of 1:43.97.

"She broke a step slow. She's usually a better gate horse than that, but I think it was just one of those things that happen with first-time starters," De Paz said. "He tried to navigate a trip and stay out of her way and give her the best experience. Obviously, he had horse underneath him and let her run on, and she definitely did."

Be Your Best was sent to post at odds of 8-1, fifth choice in the field of 10, in which the Chad Brown-trained debutante Free Look, a $300,000 Keeneland September Yearling Sale purchase, went to post as the 5-2 favorite.

"I was backing her to run well," De Paz said. "She had been training well but obviously, with turf racing here, and having Chad Brown horses in there and other connections, it can be a little tough. She was overlooked in her first race, for sure."

Be Your Best has breezed back twice out of her maiden score, including a half-mile breeze Aug. 25 in :49.09 over the Spa main track.

"She's doing good. She's been very consistent since her race," De Paz said. "She's a pretty filly. She's average-sized, but she's very efficient as far as the way that she moves. I have a few horses with Mike Ryan. He bred her, and I just got lucky he decided to send her to me. She's definitely a talented filly."

De Paz said he is looking forward to seeing how the filly progresses in the afternoon.

COGLIANESE PHOTOS/SUSIE RAISHER

Be Your Best wins a maiden special weight race at Saratoga

"She's a kind filly and gets over the ground really nice," De Paz said. "If she were to be able to run where she can tuck in, get off the bit and relax, she has a quick turn of foot. As we run her more, we'll get to know more about what her style will be like."

Be Your Best will exit post 6 under Ortiz.

Also entered is Klaravich Stables' Idea Generation, who will make her official career debut for trainer Chad Brown. The Chad Brown-trained daughter of Dubawi was part of a race declared a "no-contest" July 24 at the Spa, second under the wire, a nose behind.

The no-contest was declared when a mechanical issue with the starting gate tractor created a delay in removing the gate after the field broke. Some of the jockeys in the race pulled up their mounts after a signal from the outrider.

Completing the field is Lady Jasmine, a New York-bred daughter of Cairo Prince; St. George Stable's Kentucky homebred Pachuca; Perrine Time Thoroughbreds' Damaso; Sequel Racing and Cypress Creek Equine's New York-bred Recognize; Mark Casse trainee Whichwaze; and Indian Spideroo who will make her turf debut. Leave No Trace is entered for the main-track only.

IN LOVE, LAW PROFESSOR LEAD OVERFLOW TAPIT STAKES

Edited Press Release

If the opening-day $400,000 FanDuel Tapit Stakes is an indication, Kentucky Downs is in for a tremendous meet. The Tapit, at a mile and 70 yards, is restricted to horses that haven't won a stakes race in 2022. But that doesn't mean the horses aren't accomplished.

The 15 horses entered (three are also-eligibles) include the winners of last year's Keeneland Turf Mile (G1T): In Love, who also won the TVG Stakes; Santa Anita Mathis Mile (G2) winner Law Professor; and Jeff Ruby Steaks (G3) winner Like the King.

The Brazilian-bred In Love, who drew post 12, is trained by Paulo Lobo for owners Bonne Chance Farm and Stud R D I, which also teamed to win last year's $1 million Calumet Turf Cup (G2) at Kentucky Downs with Imperador. In Love finished a respectable seventh, beaten a total of 3 1/4 lengths, in last fall's FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile Presented by PDJF (G1T) at Del Mar. He was eighth in his two starts this year, both grade ones.

A homebred for Randy Gullatt's Twin Creeks Racing Stables, Law Professor will be making his first start for trainer Rob Atlas after previously being with Southern California-based trainer Michael McCarthy. Law Professor hasn't run since finishing last of nine in the $400,000 Oaklawn Mile (G3) for older horses on dirt April 2 at Oaklawn Park.

Atlas said he received Law Professor in June after the 4-year-old Constitution gelding was freshened at Kentucky's WinStar Farm following a troubled trip in the Oaklawn Mile, his first start outside California.

Law Professor has made three starts on grass, winning a mile allowance optional claiming race last November at Del Mar and finishing fifth in the $500,000

Frank E. Kilroe Mile Stakes (G1T) March 5 at Santa Anita Park. Sandwiched around those two races was a victory in the $200,000 off-the-turf Santa Anita Mathis Mile Stakes (G2) for 3-year-olds Dec. 26 at Santa Anita.

Law Professor was the 9-2 second choice in the Oaklawn Mile, but never a factor after having to check on the first turn under Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez.

Julien Leparoux (47 victories) is the second-winningest rider in the history of Kentucky Downs, an undulating, non-symmetrical 1 5/16-mile European-style grass venue that opened in 1990 as Dueling Grounds.

"I'm glad Julien Leparoux is riding him," Atlas said. "He knows the course. He's done really well on it. Kentucky Downs, the track's kind of got some hills, up and down, and the stretch is long. Definitely a track I'm not familiar with. I'm glad we got an experienced rider that knows the track, where to be, when to make your move, and all that kind of stuff. I think it's very important, especially at Kentucky Downs."

Atlas said Law Professor, who drew post 9 and is 10-1 on the morning line, figures to be his lone starter this year at the FanDuel Meet at Kentucky Downs.

"Hoping that this goes well and maybe it will open the door to other opportunities down the road," Atlas said.

Other prominent horses in the Tapit include Megacity, Peace Achieved, Ramsey Solution, Souper Dormy, and Shadow Sphinx.

Twelve horses can start in the Tapit, with Spanish Kingdom, Bakers Bay, and Newsworthy needing scratches from the also-eligible list to start.

The Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund accounts for $200,000 of the purse, for which only registered Kentucky-breds are eligible.

NEW YORK BOARD TO DISCUSS BELMONT PARK DEVELOPMENT

By Tom Precious

New York State is looking to permanently ease some tensions over development at Belmont Park, which included a new arena for the NHL's New York Islanders, and local residents of Floral Park who have seen increased traffic and noise since the opening of the arena last year.

The state Franchise Oversight Board, which has monitoring responsibilities of the New York Racing Association's finances and capital plans, is set to meet Sept. 1 to consider a resolution designating as "open space" a small parcel of land at Belmont near a parking lot now used by the arena for Islanders and other events.

The meeting's agenda included no additional details, but the item is among those expected to be discussed Thursday—including a review of NYRA's finances, capital project completed and planned, including other potential work planned for Aqueduct and Belmont racetracks.

The parcel at issue is a mere 125' by 125', according to sources who spoke on condition of anonymity. But it has created tensions in the past between the village of Floral Park officials and residents and the state and Islanders. Local media reports earlier this year said there were concerns that the site, which is owned by the State of New York, was seeing construction take place on it.

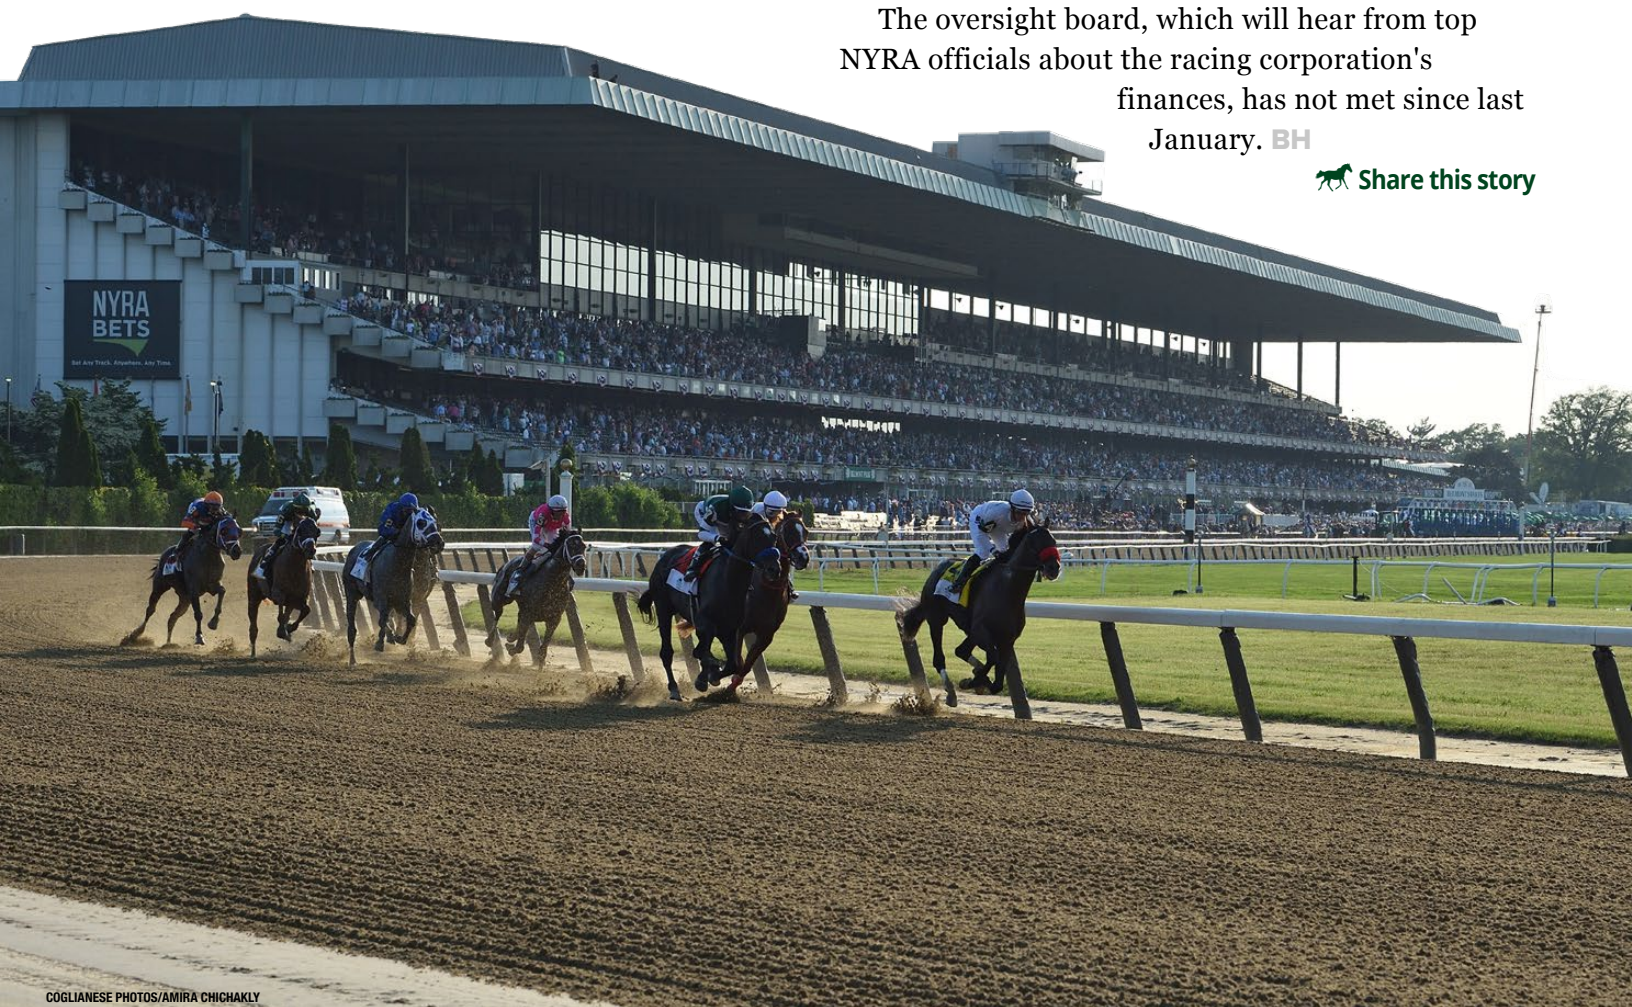

Nearby residents see the parcel as a buffer zone between their neighborhood, a school playground, and the parking lot that is on the north end of the Belmont Park property. The parking lot also borders a new train station. It was uncertain Wednesday what other steps the state might need to take to ensure the parcel, which is triangular-shaped, remains permanently free of development.

The actual language of the resolution to be considered by the NYRA oversight board was not made immediately public Aug. 31.

Sources say the state moving to protect the parcel from development is backed by the Floral Park-Bellerose School Union Free School District, the Floral Park village government, and NYRA.

The oversight board, which will hear from top NYRA officials about the racing corporation's finances, has not met since last January. BH

F-T MIDLANTIC FALL YEARLINGS CATALOG OUT

Edited Press Release

Fasig-Tipton has cataloged 512 yearlings for its Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale, to be held Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 3-4, at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, Md.

Hips 1-200 will be offered in the Monday session, which will begin at 1:00 p.m. ET.

Hips 201-512 will be offered in the Tuesday session, which will begin at 10:00 a.m. ET.

"This year's catalog features over 500 yearlings and our strongest sire power in recent memory," said Midlantic director of sales Paget Bennett. "Quality yearlings representing a wide variety of state-bred programs will be on offer, and with more than 70 stakes wins or placings for Midlantic Fall grads this year, all serious yearling buyers should make plans to attend."

During last year's two-day sale a colt by Mendelssohn consigned as Hip 415 by Northview Stallion Station topped the sale after selling for $235,000 to Scanlon Training and Sales.

The auction ranks prominently among major North American yearling sales in numerous performance categories according to The BloodHorse MarketWatch, particularly with 2-year-old winners.

"Midlantic Fall ranks second nationally among yearling sales by percentage of 2-year-old winners, trailing only Fasig-Tipton's July Selected Yearling Sale in that category," added Bennett.

The catalog may now be viewed online, and will also be available via the equineline sales catalog app. Print catalogs will be available by September 7.

Phone bidding and online bidding services will also be available.

OAKLAWN TO OFFER END OF SEASON TRAINER BONUS

Edited Press Release

Trainers who race at Oaklawn Park during the 2022-23 season will be eligible to receive thousands of dollars in incentive bonuses, thanks to a new program sponsored by Oaklawn and the Arkansas Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association. The meet begins Dec. 9 and continues through May 6.

The new Stay Until May bonus will pay trainers $200-$250 for every non-stakes starter that fails to hit the board. The only eligibility requirement is that trainers will have to run at least two horses during the final 14 days of the season, including one during the final nine days. The total bonus payout could reach as high as $750,000.

"We've always taken great pride in the fact that Oaklawn has among the largest fields in American racing," said Oaklawn racing secretary Pat Pope. "And while the trainers of the top finishers are richly rewarded, this enables us to also show appreciation to trainers who help make our races go even if their starters finish fourth or further back."

VIRTUAL THOROUGHBRED OWNER CONFERENCE RETURNS SEPT. 6

Edited Press Release

The Thoroughbred Owner Conference's virtual sessions will return Tuesday, Sept. 6, at 2 p.m. ET, with a panel composed of previous recipients of OwnerView's New Owner of the Year Award. The free series is hosted by The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and presented by Bessemer Trust, Dean Dorton Equine, and Stoll Keenon Ogden.

Moderated by Mike Penna of Horse Racing Radio Network, the scheduled panelists will be Michael Behrens, MyRacehorse; Sol Kumin, Madaket Stables; Patrick O'Neill, Boat Racing; Gary Palmisano, Churchill Downs Racing Club; and Jaime Roth, LNJ Foxwoods. In addition to sharing their paths to successful ownership, they will participate in a live Q&A with attendees.

"All of our panelists achieved inspiring levels of success in Thoroughbred ownership within short periods of time, and we are looking forward to

Horses leave the starting gate at Oaklawn Park

The concept surfaced last May in meetings between Oaklawn management and the Arkansas H.B.P.A. Once finalized, it was unanimously endorsed by the full board of the Arkansas H.B.P.A. and president Bill Walmsley. The bonus will be $200 for every non-stakes starter that finishes fourth through last from opening day through April 2, then will increase to $250 starting April 7.

Virtual sessions are recorded for registrants to view at their convenience if they cannot watch live. Interested individuals can still sign up for the virtual conference series at ownerview.com/event/conference or email Falter at gfaller@jockeyclub.com.

OwnerView is a joint effort spearheaded by The Jockey Club and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association to encourage ownership of Thoroughbreds and provide accurate information on aspects of ownership such as trainers, public racing syndicates, the process of purchasing and owning a Thoroughbred, racehorse retirement, and owner licensing.

The need for a central resource to encourage Thoroughbred ownership was identified in the comprehensive economic study of the sport that was commissioned by The Jockey Club and conducted by McKinsey & Company in 2011. The OwnerView site was launched in May 2012.

AMO RACING'S NORFOLK STAKES APPEAL DISMISSED

By James Stevens/Racing Post

Amo Racing's appeal against the controversial victory of The Ridler in the Norfolk Stakes (G2) has been dismissed, although Paul Hanagan's ride on the winner was criticized by the disciplinary panel as "poor, reprehensible, and self-evidently culpable."

In a lengthy explanation of the reasons behind the verdict, the panel also called for a "broad review" of the interference rules in the wake of the controversial race.

The British Horseracing Authority announced this month that a consultation would take place to consider whether penalties for riding offenses should be increased, including those involving interference.

However, the panel suggested any broad review of interference should go further than being "merely confined to the matter of penalties" and that such a review would be "desirable and could be very beneficial."

The Norfolk, in which The Ridler interfered with the placed horses, is one of a series of high-profile cases relating to riding offenses this season.

The stewards at Royal Ascot suspended Hanagan June 16 for 10 days for careless riding in the Norfolk, while Tom Marquand this month unsuccessfully appealed against a three-day ban for careless riding, which was imposed after winning a group 3 at Glorious Goodwood.

And in July, Robert Havlin had his five-day ban for careless riding aboard Free Wind in the Bet365 Lancashire Oaks (G2) canceled without the case reaching appeal after the BHA reviewed the decision made by the stewards.

Although the panel rejected the appeal brought forward by Kia Joorabchian's Amo operation, Hanagan's ride in the Norfolk was criticized heavily even if it did not, in the panel's view, amount to being dangerous.

The panel said: "His inattention and misjudgement were not defensible. He is a jockey of huge experience (with approaching 17,000 rides and 2,200 winners behind him) and should have done much better. It was a bad, high-level instance of careless riding and he entirely deserved a suspension of real substance."

Amo, responsible for second and third Walbank and Crispy Cat, argued that The Ridler should be disqualified or demoted for veering sharply across the track under Hanagan and causing interference to the placed horses, with the runner-up beaten 1 3/4 lengths and the third two lengths.

Rory Mac Neice, representing Joorabchian, said the jockey rode dangerously and his mount should therefore be disqualified, while barristers Roderick Moore, for Hanagan, and Louis Weston, for the BHA, argued against the claim of dangerous riding, and stressed the interference came for a "very short bit of time."

However, the claim that the winning ride should be deemed dangerous was rejected. "We cannot possibly hold that what happened by way of interference either to Crispy Cat or to Brave Nation amounted to interference which was severe," the panel wrote.

A second ground for appeal suggesting Crispy Cat would have won the race in the absence of interference was also rejected. In the panel's view, this chance was described as "slim."

EDWARD WHITAKER/RACING POST

The Ridler and Paul Hanagan after winning the Norfolk Stakes at Ascot Racecourse

OPERATING OUT IN FRONT AT TATTERSALLS AUGUST SALE

By James Thomas/Racing Post

Buyers with overseas ambitions were out in force at the Tattersalls August Sale in Newmarket Aug. 31, where an international market was headed by the 250,000gns (US$306,826) Operating, sold as Lot 299.

Offered by The Castlebridge Consignment on behalf of the Coolmore partners and Georg von Opel's Westerberg, the well-related son of War Front was knocked down to Tattersalls' Jimmy George, who was taking instructions over the phone from the Saudi Arabian operation Najd Stud.

Operating won two out of five starts for John and Thady Gosden, with his wins coming in a Windsor maiden and a Nottingham handicap from an official mark of 83. The full brother to Round Tower Stakes (G3) scorer Intelligence Cross changed hands with a career-high rating of 91.

George said: "The Najd Stud team has been following the sale from home. There were a few on their shortlist and he was very much the name at the top of it. He's a nice prospect and very much fits into the mold that the team has bought here in the past."

Prince Faisal bin Khalid bin Abdulaziz's Najd Stud has been a big supporter of past August Sales, including with the previous years' top lots, namely the 350,000gns ($505,568) Fabilis, who was sourced through Peter and Ross Doyle in 2021, while Voute Sales signed for the 220,000gns ($303,785) Walkinthesand in 2020.

The busy session of selling brought receipts totaling 5,267,300gns ($6,464,573), which was down just 2% year-on-year despite 69 fewer lots changing hands than at 2021's two-day renewal.

The average price was up by 29% at 24,273gns ($25,486), while the median rose by 40% at 14,000gns ($17,182). The clearance rate also improved by a point, with 236 Lots offered and 217 selling at a clip of 92%.

The progressive Operating is bound for Saudi Arabia after selling at the Tattersalls August Sale

Mr McCann Bound for Bahrain

The second-top lot was the smart Mr McCann, who brought 210,000gns ($257,734) from Alastair Donald. The 3-year-old son of Kodiak won three times at 2 while under the care of Tom Dascombe, and added a fourth success to his record when he won a Haydock handicap on his latest outing for Hugo Palmer.

"He's going to Bahrain," Donald said after signing for the 101-rated colt. "It's hard to find 3-year-olds with that sort of rating at that kind of price. If he'd had a couple of fewer starts, he might have been a lot more valuable for somewhere like Hong Kong, or if he'd been here in October we might've had the Saudi buyers here."

"He's pretty rock solid, he goes on all grounds, although it'll be fast where he's going, and he's a good-looking type who vets very well."

Another offered by The Castlebridge Consignment, Mr McCann was making his third appearance on the public market, having first fetched 45,000gns ($61,005) from Mags O'Toole as a foal before Lynn Lodge Stud sold the youngster to Sackville Donald for £65,000 ($90,537) at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale in 2021.

Last year's August Sale was a two-day affair, and Donald said he hoped the event would once again attract a bigger catalog in the future. He said: "I think it's been a good sale, but I'm surprised it hasn't been better supported, personally.

"It makes more sense to get your money in before the yearling sales; for the lesser horses you can save two months' training fees and if you have a fast ground horse you'll find the ground changes soon."

"I hope the sale gets bigger and stronger and that Tattersalls and the trainers support the event in the future. I think this sale has a good future as long as people get behind it."

The sale concluded Wednesday after selling 217 Lots for gross receipts of 5,267,300gns ($6,464,573), establishing an average price of 24,273gns ($29,789) and a median of 14,000gns ($17,182).

Broodmare Owners, take your pick...

REPORT OPTIONS TO HELP YOU FIND THE BEST STALLION MATCH FOR YOUR MARE:

BROODMARE ANALYSIS $199

You choose up to 50 potential stallions, and the report provides TrueNicks rating, broodmare sire improvement index, hypothetical 5-generation pedigree, and top 5 horses bred on each cross. Includes an Equineline catalog-style pedigree for your mare.

BROODMARE ANALYSIS PLUS $250

In a format similar to Broodmare Analysis, this report adds TrueNicks Enhanced Reports for each mating, including cross-specific stats for number of starters, auction results, surface performance, win percentages, average winning distances, and the top 15 horses bred on each cross.

BROODMARE SELECT $199

Use your stud fee and location criteria to find up to 50 stallions that rate B+ or better (A++, A+, A, B+) with your mare, essentially filtering out only the best nicking options. The report sorts stallions by TrueNicks variant score and features TrueNicks ratings, five generation pedigrees, and top five horses bred on the cross for each mating.

BROODMARE SELECT PLUS $250

In a format similar to Broodmare Select, this report uses your stud fee and location criteria to find up to 50 stallions that rate B+ or better (A++, A+, A, B+) with your mare, essentially filtering out only the best nicking options, and features TrueNicks Enhanced Reports for each cross. Enhanced Reports add key data points for starters, auction results, surface performance, racing statistics, and the top 15 racehorses bred on the cross.
