BAFFERT HAS THREE IN FIVE-HORSE LOS ALAMITOS FUTURITY

By Tracy Gantz

Gaming appears a standout in the Dec. 14 $200,000 Los Alamitos Futurity (G2). But any time Bob Baffert has multiple entries in a stakes, the "other" Bafferts can always pose a threat. Of Gaming's four rivals in the 1 1/16-mile race, stablemate Getaway Car looks like his biggest challenge.

Gaming, a son of Game Winner, and Getaway Car, a son of Curlin, have by far the best résumés. Both are coming out of the Nov. 1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1) at Del Mar. Of the other three, two are still maidens and one is eligible for a non-winners of two.

Gaming and Getaway Car finished second and fourth, respectively, in the Breeders' Cup behind winner Citizen Bull, yet another Baffert trainee. Citizen Bull has a record of three wins and a third in four starts with two grade 1 victories and is bypassing the Los Alamitos Futurity.

In the Breeders' Cup, Gaming sat in second behind Citizen Bull's pace and couldn't catch him, finishing 1 1/2 lengths back.

"Gaming—I don't think he got away as good as he could have," Baffert said after the race. "I was surprised to see him laying second."

Three different jockeys have ridden Gaming: Juan Hernandez in his maiden win when he led throughout, Flavien Prat in his Del Mar Futurity (G1) victory when the colt ran fifth in the early going, and Irad Ortiz Jr. in the Breeders' Cup. Baffert has put Prat back aboard for the Los Alamitos Futurity, and Gaming drew the rail.

Hernandez has piloted Getaway Car in all five of his outings and is slated to be back aboard from post 3. In addition to his Breeders' Cup performance, Getaway Car won the Best Pal Stakes (G3) at Del Mar, ran fourth in the Del Mar Futurity, and finished second in the American Pharoah Stakes (G1) to Citizen Bull at Santa Anita Park.

Baffert's third entrant, Mellencamp, has yet to win, but has started only twice. The Constitution colt ran second in his debut, defeating third-place Journalism, and then ran fourth in a maiden event won by Journalism, with Rank second. Journalism and Rank are the two in the Los Alamitos Futurity not trained by Baffert. Baffert has named Kazushi Kimura to ride Mellencamp from post 2.

Michael McCarthy trains Journalism, who gets the services of Umberto Rispoli from post 5. Another son of Curlin, Journalism is making his stakes debut and coming off his 2 1/2-length maiden win.

Rank, from the Doug O'Neill barn and a son of Honor A. P., will be ridden by Antonio Fresu and drew post 4. He has started five times, with three seconds. In his only other stakes attempt, Rank ran sixth in the Del Mar Futurity.

The Los Alamitos Futurity offers Road to the Kentucky Derby points on a 10-5-3-2-1 scale. BH

TURFWAY PARK SYNTHETIC CHAMPIONSHIPS LURE DEEP LINEUPS

By Byron King
𝕏 @BH_Bking

Back in 1994, Turfway Park introduced the Kentucky Cup Day of Champions, a multi-stakes card that complemented its existing spring stakes program. Classic winners such as Tabasco Cat and Silver Charm highlighted some early runnings before the races eventually fell out of favor when overshadowed by richer stakes around the country.

Thirty years later, Turfway, flush with purse funds from gaming, is launching another lucrative day of racing—this time focused on stakes over its synthetic Tapeta surface. Four $250,000 stakes are part of the Dec. 14 nighttime card—the Turfway Park Synthetic Championships. Three of the four stakes at the Northern Kentucky track drew overflow fields—the Holiday Cheer, Prairie Bayou, and Holiday Inaugural—and the other, the My Charmer, landed a deep field of 11.

The races were previously contested for $125,000 apiece and spread over multiple weekends.

Gary Palmisano, vice president of racing for Churchill Downs Inc., which owns and operates Turfway, said he is impressed by the quality on Saturday besides the field size.

"A couple of these races are close to becoming grade 3s, so we were really focused on recruiting quality horses," he said.

He believes the card should benefit from its placement during a relatively quiet time of year within the sports calendar, noting there was only one college football game Saturday due to the usual break between conference championships and bowl season.

"So we really wanted to put a flag in the ground on this particular weekend, thinking we have the undivided attention of the public," Palmisano said. "And we feel like this could really lead to a successful event both this weekend and for many years to come."

Some jockeys who do not regularly ride at Turfway during the winter, such as Luis Saez, Emisael Jaramillo, Florent Geroux, and Sofia Vives, are in action Saturday at Turfway.

Trainers sending horses to Kentucky for the card include Christophe Clement, Kevin Attard, and Robert Tiller.

Vives rides Frank Di Giulio Jr.'s reigning Canadian champion sprinter Patches O'Houlihan, who starts outside Woodbine for the first time in the Holiday Cheer after going 11-for-14 in Canada for Tiller.

Woodbine, like Turfway, has a Tapeta surface, and with Woodbine's season nearing a conclusion, about a half dozen who raced there are headed to Turfway.

The My Charmer and Holiday Inaugural, two races for fillies and mares, offer the top 1-2-3 finishers credits toward future stallion fees at Claiborne Farm through a "Make Your Mare" partnership.

Tommy Town Thoroughbreds' Ghostly Gal, who edged Resolute Racing's Dana's Beauty in last month's Claiming Crown Tiara at Churchill Downs, faces her again in the 1 1/16-mile My Charmer.

Moyglare Stud Farm's Love Appeals and OXO Equine's Upper Case are the likely favorites in the Holiday Inaugural. BH

TOUCHUPONASTAR TARGETS THIRD LA CHAMPIONS DAY CLASSIC

By Sean Collins

Touchuponastar wins the 2023 Louisiana Champions Day Classic Stakes at Fair Grounds

Set-Hut's Touchuponastar looks to solidify his place as a Louisiana-bred legend Dec. 14 when he targets a third consecutive victory in the $150,000 Louisiana Champions Day Classic Stakes at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots.

Victory Saturday would elevate the 5-year-old Star Guitar gelding to millionaire status. Never off the board in 18 career starts, the Jeff Delhomme trainee is 11-for-13 in state-bred restricted races with eight stakes victories. Both state-bred losses came in his first three career starts.

His dominance against Louisiana-breds has earned him 3-5 favoritism on the morning line despite exiting consecutive losses, both against open stakes company, for the first time in his career.

Only four rivals will take up the challenge, with both Tdzshininluckystar and Benoit cross-entered in other races on the card.

All four runners exit the Nov. 23 Jacob V. Morreale Memorial Stakes at Fair Grounds. Delanie Calais Jr.'s Cosmic Train rallied from last to defeat Tdzshininluckystar by a head. Allnight Moonlight was 1 1/4 lengths behind in fifth while Benoit was another 2 3/4 lengths back in sixth.

The 1 1/8-mile feature appears early in the card thanks to the small field, going off at 1:45 p.m. CT as race 3, and sets the stage for the rest of the Louisiana Champions Day action.

FREE LIKE A GIRL ATTEMPTS 20TH STAKES WIN

Gerald Bruno Jr., Chasey Deville Pomier, and Jerry Caroom's Free Like a Girl has already asserted herself as a Louisiana-bred legend, having earned more than $2 million, with 21 wins in 45 starts.

However, the Pomier-trained, two-time grade 1-placed daughter of El Deal could achieve another career milestone, her 20th stakes win, in the six-furlong, $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Sprint Stakes.

Among her competition are Noneya, Freeburn, and Six String, the respective 1-2-3 finishers of the Nov. 22 Delmar R. Caldwell Memorial Stakes at Fair Grounds over the same distance.

OTHER ACTION ON LOUISIANA CHAMPIONS DAY

Allied Racing Stable's multiple stakes winner Jack Hammer returns from a nine-month layoff for trainer Bret Calhoun as the 3-1 morning-line favorite for the six-furlong, $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Sprint Stakes.

Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen will try to keep Coteau Grove Farms' 3-year-old filly Eye of the Pharoah unbeaten in the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Turf Stakes. She breaks from the far outside in post 11 for the about 1 1/16-mile contest.

The boys will also travel about 1 1/16 miles in the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Turf Stakes. Richard Painter and Dewberry Farm's Woods N Water will attempt to improve for new trainer Samuel Breaux following consecutive runner-up efforts at Remington Park.

Valene Farms' Smoken Wicked is the 8-5 favorite in the six-furlong $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Juvenile Stakes. The grade 2-placed son of Bobby's Wicked One has faced the toughest competition among the seven opponents, having finished fourth in two grade 1 events for trainer Dallas Stewart.

Norman Stables' Secret Faith is the class of the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Lassie Stakes. The daughter of Aurelius Maximus is 5-for-5 to start her career for trainer Jayde Gelner with four stakes wins and a combined margin of 33 1/4 lengths. BH

LEMON DROP KID, 1999 BELMONT WINNER, DIES AT 28

By Eric Mitchell

@BH_EMitchell

ANNE M. EBERHARDT

Lemon Drop Kid in 2020 at Lane's End Farm

Classic winner and millionaire Lemon Drop Kid, champion older horse of 2000, has died at Lane's End Farm. He was 28.

Foaled at Lane's End and bred by W.S. Farish and W.S. Kilroy, Lemon Drop Kid was a son of French champion Kingmambo (who also stood at Lane's End) and produced from Charming Lassie, a Seattle Slew half sister to grade 3 winner and eventual 1992 Broodmare of the Year Weekend Surprise. Lemon Drop Kid was closely related to A.P. Indy, a son of Seattle Slew out of Weekend Surprise and a multiple leading North American sire and broodmare sire.

Scotty Schulhofer trained Lemon Drop Kid for Jeanne Vance, who acquired him for $200,000 during the 1997 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. He hinted at tremendous talent at 2, when he was in the money in five of six starts. He won the 1998 Futurity Stakes (G1) and was runner-up in the Champagne Stakes (G1). At 3, he was victorious in the Belmont Stakes (G1) and followed his classic victory with a win in the Travers Stakes (G1) at Saratoga Race Course. At 4, he strung together four consecutive victories in the storied Brooklyn Handicap (G2), Suburban Handicap (G2), Whitney Handicap (G1), and Woodward Stakes (G1) by a combined 12 lengths and earned Eclipse Award honors as champion older horse. He retired with 10 wins from 24 starts and earned $3,245,370.

Following his championship season, Lemon Drop Kid came home to Lane's End to begin his career at stud. He was an influential member of the Lane's End stallion roster from 2001-20 before pensioned from stud duty at 25 in 2021. Lemon Drop Kid sired 109 black-type winners, which included 52 graded/group winners and two champions worldwide. His grade 1 winners include Lemon Pop (2023 Japan champion dirt horse), 2006 Kentucky Oaks (G1) winner Lemons Forever, Beach Patrol, Cannock Chase, Citronnade, Romantic Vision, Richard's Kid, and Somali Lemonade. His progeny have earned more than $115.8 million and averaged $86,077 per starter.

Lemon Drop Kid would become a successful broodmare sire, as well, ranking among the top 25 North American broodmare sires in 2023. Lemons Forever became the dam of grade 1-winning full sisters Forever Unbridled, who won the 2017 Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1) and was named that year's champion older dirt female, and Unbridled Forever, who won the 2015 Ballerina Stakes (G1). To date, Lemon Drop Kid has been represented as a broodmare sire by 109 black-type stakes winners, which include 36 graded/group winners and nine champions worldwide.

"Many of us at Lane's End were here at the farm when Lemon Drop Kid was foaled in May of 1996," said Lane's End Farm president Bill Farish. "We are profoundly blessed to have been associated with this exceptional horse for his entire life, watching him develop into a champion racehorse and then a top sire of over 100 stakes winners. He will be greatly missed, and we will forever honor his legacy."

Lemon Drop Kid will be buried in the stallion cemetery at the farm. BH

2017 KY DERBY WINNER ALWAYS DREAMING DIES AT AGE 10

By Byron King
@BH_Bking

Ten-year-old stallion Always Dreaming, the 2017 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner, died Dec. 10 in Oklahoma, according to bloodstock agent Chad Schumer and River Oaks Farms co-owner Francisco Bravo. He died from a burst cecum, Schumer said, and Bravo noted the horse had been dealing with a recent bout of colic.

A burst cecum is the rupture of the first part of the large intestine, which causes the contents of the bowel to spill into the abdominal cavity. A cecal impaction most commonly causes it.

The stallion would have stood next year at River Oaks Farms in Sulphur, Okla, after previously standing at WinStar Farm in Kentucky following his retirement from racing. Schumer brokered the transaction that sent Always Dreaming to Oklahoma, where he was to become the first Derby winner to stand in that state. He arrived at River Oaks Farms in September, Bravo said.

"He showed some symptoms of discomfort on Thursday, I believe, and we rushed him to the clinic, and he was doing fine," he said. "I picked him up on Monday, and we brought him back to the farm, and he looked like he was doing very well. And Monday night he started getting colic, and he had come back to the clinic, and things went from bad to worse and he was put down early Tuesday morning."

Oakridge Equine Hospital treated Always Dreaming, Bravo said.

A son of Bodemeister, Always Dreaming won four of 11 starts, highlighted by victories in 2017 in the Florida Derby (G1) and Kentucky Derby. He went winless in five starts after the Kentucky Derby and retired to stud in 2019. Hall of Famer Todd Pletcher trained the $2.4 million earner for much of Always Dreaming's career. Owners Brooklyn Boyz Stables, Teresa Viola Racing Stables, Siena Farm, West Point Thoroughbreds, MeB Racing Stables, and St. Elias Stables raced him.

Always Dreaming was bred by Santa Rosa Partners out of the grade 1-placed mare In Excess mare Above Perfection, who won seven of 10 starts, including the 2002 Las Flores Handicap (G3). Always Dreaming was a half brother to grade 1 winner and stakes producer Hot Dixie Chick (Dixie Union) and grade 2 winner Positive Spirit (Pioneerof the Nile).

The ninth-leading third-crop sire of this year and the sire of 2023 Pennsylvania Derby (G1) winner Saudi Crown, Always Dreaming was well received following the announcement of his relocation to Oklahoma. River Oaks Farms offered a special fee of $2,500 to his first 40 booked mares for the 2025 breeding season. With River Oaks Farms supporting him with mares, he was expected to breed 50-70 mares, "which is quite a large book for Oklahoma," Schumer said.

"It's a profound loss. He was a cool horse," said WinStar Farm president, CEO, and racing manager Elliott Walden. "His absence will be felt by everybody who ever dealt with him, including those who worked with him here at WinStar." BH

ONCE AGAIN NO FATAL INJURIES AT OKLAHOMA DIRT TRACK

By Bob Ehalt
@BobEhalt

For the second year in a row Saratoga Race Course's Oklahoma dirt training track has maintained a gold standard for equine safety.

Open from April through mid-November, the dirt track once again had no catastrophic injuries during 7,037 timed workouts over the surface.

In 2023, there were 7,444 timed works without a fatal injury, bringing the total to 14,481 works for the last two years.

"Any time you see numbers as low as this it's a positive," said Andrew Offerman, the New York Racing Association's senior vice president of racing and operations.

There was one fatal injury on the Oklahoma turf course, which also had no fatalities in 2023.

In terms of dirt and turf works at the Oklahoma facility, there was just one fatality injury in 2023-24 during 18,305 works.

"The capital put into redoing Oklahoma (in 2021), changing the surface and widening it, has been a benefit to the horsemen and to us in terms of maintaining it," said NYRA executive vice president of operations and capital projects Glen Kozak. "The rebuild we did from the bottom up at Oklahoma has been great and set the standard for what we have done at other facilities to have consistency between the tracks."

The Oklahoma figures also underscore a huge change at Saratoga Race Course's main racing surfaces where there was only one catastrophic injury during this year's 40-day meet, compared to nine during racing in 2023.

The dirt surfaces for Saratoga's main track and the Oklahoma dirt training track are the same mixture, which will also be used for the main track at the rebuilt Belmont Park. It will consist of a limestone base with a clay pad below the dirt mixture of sand, silt, and clay.

"The trainers that have been on Oklahoma see how well it reacts to the weather during the prime racing season of April to December," Kozak said. "It gives us the ability at Belmont Park to have the best surface in terms of the sub-base, the base and the cushion on top."

While surfaces play a key role in equine safety, Offerman noted it also requires the commitment and support of the entire racing community.

"Equine safety is a multifaceted effort that also involves the participants, the veterinary care the horses receive from private practices, and from a regulatory perspective," Offerman said. "It even involves the racing office and other parties that are watching the horse population on a regular basis to make sure everyone is looking out for the best interests of the horses."

Offerman pointed to NYRA's longer, six-day entry schedule as another way to promote equine safety, in addition to the track surface.

"The change (to a six-day entry schedule) was at the request of the regulatory vets so they would have extra time to go through prescreening and risk factors," he said. "Doing things collectively to make the sport safer and protect the horses is what we are trying to do. There's pride in seeing these numbers and knowing that everyone is looking at things differently than in the past and understanding the importance of working together." BH

RRR RACING BUYS WEST SARATOGA PRIVATELY

Edited Press Release

West Saratoga, a grade 3-winning son of Exaggerator, sold privately to Sheikh Rashid bin Humaid Al Nuaimi's RRR Racing for $375,000 following the Inglis Digital USA December Sale.

The 3-year-old colt will be sent to the Dubai barn of trainer Doug Watson, where he will undergo an evaluation to determine his future racing plans.

"He looks like a horse with a really nice future in the upcoming years in the U.A.E.," said Watson. "He has had a very promising start to his career in America and looks like a nice prospect for the mile races at Meydan both at the end of this season and future seasons."

RRR Racing has been a prominent owner in Dubai, with notable runners including 2022 Dubai Golden Shaheen (G1) winner Switzerland, and Rayya, winner of the 2018 U.A.E. Oaks (G3) and runner-up in the U.A.E. Derby (G2). In the United States, Sheikh Rashid's runners include Clapton, who won the 2023 Lukas Classic Stakes (G2).

Bred in Kentucky by Two Hearts Farm II, West Saratoga is out of the Uncle Mo mare Mo Wicked, hailing from the family of grade 1 winner Wickedly Perfect and Japanese grade 2 winner Hartley, among others.

EL KODIGO, DON FERES LEAD 20-HORSE CARLOS PELLEGRINI

Edited Press Release

Led by multiple group winners El Kodigo and Don Feres, a 20-horse field has been entered for Saturday's 1 1/2-mile Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini Internacional (G1) at Hipodromo de San Isidro outside Buenos Aires. The winner of South America's most prestigious race will earn an automatic starting position in next year's $5 million Breeders' Cup Turf (G1T) through the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series: Win and You're In.

The Breeders' Cup Challenge Series is an international series of stakes races whose winners receive automatic starting positions and fees paid into a corresponding race of the 2025 Breeders' Cup World Championships, scheduled to be held Oct. 31-Nov. 1 at Del Mar in California.

The Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini Internacional, with starters representing Argentina, Brazil, Peru, and Uruguay, is the first Breeders' Cup Challenge Series race for the 2025 event.

El Kodigo

Juan Antonio's 4-year-old El Kodigo has been the top older horse in Argentina this year, earning three group 1 victories, and has won six of his last seven starts for trainer Juan Saldivia. A son of Equal Stripes, El Kodigo has demonstrated equal prowess in winning on turf and dirt. In his last three starts, all at 1 1/2 miles, he swept two races at Hipodromo Argentino, taking the Sept. 7 General San Martin (G1) on turf and then dominating the Oct. 6 Vicente L. Casares (G2) on dirt by 13 lengths. In his previous start at San Isidro, he captured the Copa de Oro—Alfredo Lalor (G1) by 1 1/2 lengths over Jazz Seiver, with Intense for Me finishing third.

Sporting a record of eight wins in 12 starts, El Kodigo will break from the extreme outside post 20 under Gustavo Calvente.

Stud Jet Set's Don Feres has been the top horse in Peru for the past two years, accumulating nine wins in 13 starts. Trained by Juan Suarez, Don Feres won his first five races of the 2022-23 season en route to becoming Peru's champion grass horse. The son of Singe The Turf has captured his last four starts this year, all at Monterrico in Lima, including his most recent group 2 scores in the Oct. 13 Clasico Almirante Miguel Grau Seminario (G2) and the Nov. 10 Clasico Presidente de la Republica (G2) at 1 1/2 miles. Significantly, he has solid experience over the San Isidro course, finishing second in the 2023 Gran Premio Latinoamericano (G1). He will be ridden from post 12 by leading South American jockey Carlos Trujillo.

Among the 3-year-olds who figure to be prominent in the weight-for-age race are Stud Macul's Acento Final and Haras El Angel de Venecia's Honest Boy. They were the first two finishers in the controversial 1 1/4-mile Jockey Club (G1) Oct. 5, which was the second jewel of Argentina's Triple Crown. Trained by Nicolas Martin Ferro, Acento Final took the lead inside the final furlong of the Jockey Club at San Isidro and appeared to force the fast-closing Honest Boy to check in the final yards. A jockey's objection, however, was disallowed. A son of Treasure Beach, Acento Final will be ridden by Kevin Banegas from post 4. Honest Boy, by Heliostatic, will be making just his fifth start for trainer Juan Etchechoury, who has saddled winners in two of the last three editions of the Carlos Pellegrini. Honest Boy finished second in the Sept. 14 American Lion Award prior to the Jockey Club. Ivan Monasterolo has the mount from post 13.

Starting from post 1 is another 3-year-old, La Providencia's Grezzo, a son of Hi Happy, who won the 2015 Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini. After finishing fourth in the Jockey Club, Grezzo, trained by Marina Bragante, stepped up to 1 1/2 miles for the first time in the Nov. 2 De la Provincia Buenos Aires (G3), and won it by 3 1/2 lengths. Grezzo will be ridden by Eduardo Pavon.

Stud Las Monjitas's 5-year-old Jazz Seiver made a strong closing burst from 11th place to finish fourth in last year's race as the 9-5 favorite. This year, the Etchechoury-trained son of 2010 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner Super Saver has won two of five starts, highlighted by his second group 1 triumph in the De Honor-Copa Julio y Carlos Menditeguy (G1) April 6 at Hipodromo Argentino. He will be ridden by Francisco Fernandez Goncalves from post 7.

Stud Toroquemero's 4-year-old Intense for Me has finished in the top three in his last seven starts. Trained by Nicolas Martin, the son of Fortify has won two group 2 stakes this year at San Isidro, taking the March 23, one-mile America by nine lengths, and followed up that performance with a four-length win in the 1 1/8-mile Forli June 2. Javier Martin has the mount, breaking from post 18.

COVENTRY STAKES WINNER ARIZONA JOINS EXODUS TO TURKEY

By Aisling Crowe/Racing Post

2019 Coventry Stakes (G2) winner Arizona is the latest stallion to join the exodus to Turkey, with the 7-year-old son of No Nay Never moving from Coolmore's Castlehyde Stud to Yigit Stud in a deal brokered by Michael Shefflin.

Arizona had his first runners this year and the listed Star Appeal Stakes winner Right And True was his best performer, with the Aidan O'Brien-trained colt winning twice and finishing placed on three occasions.

Arizona's first crop, bred on a €7,000 fee, has yielded seven winners from 28 runners. He is second only to Sands of Mali in the ranks of Irish-based first-season sires, on winners, earnings, and stakes winners.

Refik Yigit, owner of the eponymous farm where Arizona will stand, said: "We're very happy that Arizona has been brought to our country. As a son of No Nay Never, one of Europe's leading stallions, Arizona truly has a champion's pedigree.

"With his dam line's stamina and his sire line's speed, we believe he'll be very successful in Turkey."

Arizona is out of the English Channel mare Lady Ederle and was a €260,000 (US$297,388) purchase by M.V. Magnier at Arqana's 2018 August Yearling Sale. Trained by O'Brien, he was a precocious juvenile and after his Royal Ascot success would go on to be placed at the highest level behind Pinatubo in the Vincent O'Brien National (G1) and Dewhurst (G1) stakes.

His year-older sister is 2019 Mrs. Revere Stakes (G2T) winner Nay Lady Nay. Their dam Lady Ederle is a half sister to Rumored, dam of 2011 Prix Morny (G1) winner and sire Dabirsim.

Having covered large books of mares in 2023 and 2024 of 180 and 129 respectively, this may not be the last we see of Arizona in western Europe. It will not be the last we see of Yigit Stud either.

"After bringing Authorized back to Ireland with our friend Ger O'Neill last year, we're very happy to have brought Arizona to our country this year with our friend Michael and we plan to continue increasing our collaborations between Turkey and Ireland in the coming years," said Yigit.

Shefflin has been busy brokering stallion deals this autumn, with Arizona one of five stallions he has been involved in purchasing; the others include Twilight Son, to stand at his own Anshoon Stud in Kilkenny.

Arizona

"It's been a hectic season and it's a lot of stallions to move," said Shefflin. "We've had plenty of inquiries about Twilight Son, he's quite a commercial prospect and we're hoping he'll be ready for viewing for the Irish Stallion Trail."

Shefflin has also purchased former Tally-Ho sire Inns of Court to stand at Razza dell'Orso in Italy for 2025, and, for Turkey, Speak In Colours.

Kuroshio is the other member of the quintet Shefflin has brokered a deal to move, and he too could be set for foreign climes having been at Starfield Stud for the past five seasons.

ASAHAI HAI FUTURITY SORTS JAPAN'S CLASSICS CONTENDERS

By Bob Kieckhefer

A field full of promising 2-year-olds will get some sorting out in the Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes (G1) Dec. 15 at Kyoto Racecourse, which is hosting the race while Hanshin Racecourse is closed for renovations.

More than half the 16 entries come off victories in their previous start. Five are undefeated, three of them boasting stakes wins.

At the end of the 1,600 meters (about one mile), the best of them will go into the mix with those emerging from the 2,000-meter (about 1 1/4 miles) Hopeful Stakes (G1) Dec. 28 as prime candidates for the 2025 Classics.

Museum Mile, a Leontes colt, has won his last two starts and was visually impressive in victory in the Kigiku Sho at 2,000 meters in November. He's had a short break and trainer Daisuke Takayanagi said he "looked a little heavy" on return from Northern Farm.

"But that was the same last time, and as he picks up in training, he doesn't seem heavy after being back for a while now," the trainer said.

Arte Veloce is undefeated after two races including the Saudi Arabia Royal Cup (G3) at Tokyo Racecourse in October. Jockey Yutaka Take said after a training spin on the Maurice colt: "He's moving well and seems stronger than before. The distance of a mile really seems to suit him."

Panja Tower also is 2-for-2 with an upset victory, albeit by just a neck, in the Keio Hai Nisai Stakes (G2) at Tokyo Racecourse to his credit. The Tower of London colt has yet to go farther than 1,400 meters (about seven furlongs) but trainer Shinsuke Hashiguchi said, "The jockey thinks a mile will suit him, and that he could have done even better in his last race if the ground had been better."

Arlecchino, by Bricks and Mortar, followed his first victory with a fifth-place showing in the Saudi Arabia Royal Cup. He is a half brother to Cervinia, winner of this year's Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks, G1). Leading jockey Christophe Lemaire is booked.

And for those who follow jockeys, as many do in Japan, Ryan Moore will be up on Nitamonodoshi, undefeated after two starts with a race-record time in his last outing; Yuga Kawada has the mount on Admire Zoom, a last-out winner at Kyoto; and Ryusei Sakai rides Taisei Current, a close second in the Saudi Arabia Royal Cup.

Shonan Xanadu, the only filly nominated to the race, finished fourth in the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (G1) Dec. 8 at Kyoto and wasn't entered for the Futurity.

The race starts on the backstretch, runs around the outer loop of the turf course and finishes with a long sprint down the straight.

Jantar Mantar won the 2023 Asahi Hai Futurity, finished third in the Satsuki Sho (Japanese Two Thousand Guineas, G1) April 14 and won the NHK Mile Cup (G1) May 5. He was highly promoted by Japanese analysts before the Dec. 8 Hong Kong Mile (G1) but finished 13th off the long layoff. BH
