LIBERTY NATIONAL SEEKS DIVIDENDS IN GUN RUNNER STAKES

By Byron King
𝕏 @BH_Bking

Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots races Dec. 20, with Christmas approaching, but for participating connections, their hopes are not for presents under the tree but for success from their horses in Kentucky months later on the first Friday and Saturday in May.

Two of the four $100,000 stakes the New Orleans track stages Saturday—the Untapable Stakes and Gun Runner Stakes—serve as respective points races for the May 1 Kentucky Oaks (G1) and the May 2 Kentucky Derby (G1) at Churchill Downs, awarding points on a 10-5-3-2-1 basis to their top five finishers.

Although ungraded and modest in purse, this year's Gun Runner shapes up as a legitimate Derby prep for December 2-year-olds. It lured eight entrants, four of whom achieved maiden-breaking victories in routes in their last starts at Churchill Downs.

That quartet includes Brookdale Racing and Fern Circle Stables' Liberty National, who wheels back on three weeks of rest after a head-turning second-out victory in a 1 1/16-mile maiden race at the Louisville, Ky., track Nov. 29 for trainer Kenny McPeek.

Brian Hernandez Jr., who teamed with McPeek to win the 2024 Derby with Mystik Dan, returns in the irons aboard the son of Maxfield.

Liberty National breaks his maiden at Churchill Downs

"I think Liberty National is sitting on a big race," McPeek said. "It will be his third start. I think the timing's ideal. We're just kind of firing away with him. He's rocket ship fast."

READ: Liberty National Has Bright Future

Colby Hernandez, Brian's younger brother, picks up the ride on McPeek's other starter, Dream Big Racing's Very Connected, who ran third in the Oct. 26 Street Sense Stakes (G3) and fourth in the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes (G2) in two starts since breaking his maiden at Churchill.

"Very Connected is a nice horse in his own right," McPeek said. "He'll benefit from the longer stretch at Fair Grounds."

The field also includes Paradise Farms, David Staudacher, and Hooties Racing's Crown the Buckeye, a dominant winner of two Ohio-bred stakes races for trainer Mike Maker.

They will likely have to run down the Steve Asmussen-trained Chip Honcho, who adds blinkers and looms the controlling speed in the 1 1/16-mile dirt race from post 2 under Paco Lopez.

JUVENILE FILLIES VIE IN UNTAPABLE, OLDER HORSES IN TWO STAKES

The eight-filly Untapable Stakes, run over a shorter two-turn distance at a mile and 70 yards, is led by Have Faith and Hit Parade, both last-out starter allowance winners at Churchill Downs during its fall meet. Dallas Stewart trains Holy Cow Stable's Have Faith, while Brad Cox conditions Gary and Mary West's Hit Parade. Both are former maiden claimers.

Kupuna wins an allowance optional claiming race at Churchill Downs

Two stakes for older horses precede the juvenile stakes.

Qatar Racing and Marc Detampel's Just a Touch—twice grade 1-placed, including when second in the 2024 Blue Grass Stakes (G1) at Keeneland—will be heavily favored to score his first black-type victory in the Tenacious Stakes at 1 1/16 miles on dirt. Cox has been working the Justify colt at Payson Park Training Center in South Florida in preparation for his return from a runner-up finish at 1-20 odds in the July 19 Monmouth Cup Stakes (G3) in New Jersey.

Contention runs deeper in the Buddy Diliberto Memorial Stakes at 1 1/16 miles on turf. There, Flying P Stable's Kupuna seeks to follow up a high-level allowance optional claiming win last month at Churchill Downs with another win on the grass for trainer Norm Casse. BH

GRADED COMMITTEE UPGRADES 11 STAKES, DOWNGRADES 13

Edited Press Release

COADY MEDIA/CADY COULARDOT

Ag Bullet wins the Ladies Turf Sprint Stakes, which was awarded grade 1 status for 2026, at Kentucky Downs

The American Graded Stakes Committee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association announced Dec. 19 its listing of United States graded and listed stakes races for calendar year 2026, the results of its annual grading session conducted Dec. 17-18.

The committee reviewed 942 U.S. stakes races with a purse of at least $75,000, and assigned graded status to 410 of them, five fewer than were graded in 2025, and listed status to 211 races. Eleven graded races were upgraded; one new grade 1 and 10 new grade 2 races were named; four new grade 3 races were identified. Nine new listed races and one new listed-restricted race were upgraded from non-listed black-type status.

Thirteen graded races were downgraded; two grade 1, five grade 2, and six grade 3 races were demoted. Six listed races were downgraded to non-listed black-type status. Multiple races were downgraded in California, which does not have gaming to supplement purses.

One race was upgraded from grade 2 to grade 1 status for 2026: the Ladies Turf Sprint Stakes at Kentucky Downs, where purses have skyrocketed due to historical horse racing gaming.

The past two runnings of the Ladies Turf Sprint have been won by Ag Bullet, winner of the Jaipur Stakes (G1T) against males last June. She also hit the board in both the 2024 and 2025 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T).

Two races were downgraded from grade 1 to grade 2 status for 2026: the Franklin-Simpson Stakes at Kentucky Downs and the Frank E. Kilroe Mile Stakes at Santa Anita Park. The demotion of the Franklin-Simpson comes two years after the committee elevated the turf sprint for 3-year-olds to a grade 1.

Ten races were upgraded to grade 2 status for 2026: the Shawnee Stakes and Unbridled Sidney Stakes at Churchill Downs; Green Flash Handicap at Del Mar; the Bryan Station Stakes, Doubledogdare Stakes, and Giant's Causeway Stakes at Keeneland; the Ladies Turf Stakes and Nashville Derby Invitational Stakes at Kentucky Downs; Molly Pitcher Stakes at Monmouth Park; and Caress Stakes at Saratoga Race Course.

Five races were downgraded from grade 2 to grade 3 status for 2026: the Fort Marcy Stakes and Sands Point Stakes at Belmont Park and Aqueduct Racetrack; the Gulfstream Park Mile Stakes at Gulfstream Park; and the Joe Hernandez Stakes and Santa Maria Stakes at Santa Anita.

Four races were upgraded to grade 3 status for 2026: the Hanshin Stakes and Maxfield Stakes at Churchill Downs and the Indian Summer Stakes and Limestone Stakes at Keeneland.

Six races were downgraded from grade 3 to listed status for 2026: the Red Carpet Stakes at Del Mar; the Pucker Up Stakes at Ellis Park; the Greenwood Cup Stakes at Parx Racing; and the Honeymoon Stakes, the Las Virgenes Stakes, and the Palos Verdes Stakes at Santa Anita Park.

Nine races were upgraded to listed status for 2026: the Autumn Days Stakes at Aqueduct; Anchorage Overnight Stakes, Fern Creek Stakes, and Leslie's Lady Overnight Stakes at Churchill Downs; Jeff Hall Memorial Sprint Stakes and KY Downs Preview Ladies Turf Sprint Stakes at Ellis Park; Myrtlewood Stakes at Keeneland; Untapable Stakes at Kentucky Downs; and Holiday Inaugural Stakes at Turfway Park.

One race was upgraded to listed-restricted status for 2026: the Tranquility Lake Stakes at Del Mar.

Six races were downgraded from listed to non-listed black-type status for 2026: the Paradise Creek Stakes at Belmont at Aqueduct; Mardi Gras Stakes at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots; City of Laurel Stakes at Laurel Park; Bachelor Stakes and Purple Martin Stakes at Oaklawn Park; and Lazaro Barrera Stakes at Santa Anita Park.

The All American Stakes, El Camino Real Derby, Golden Gate Handicap, and San Francisco Mile Stakes at Golden Gate Fields; Baltimore/Washington International Turf Cup Stakes at Laurel Park; and Lady of Shamrock Stakes, Sham Stakes, and Tokyo City Cup Stakes at Santa Anita Park were not eligible for grading in 2026.

TAPPAN STREET WORKMANLIKE IN COMEBACK VICTORY

By Byron King
@BH_Bking

Returning to racing action for the first time since winning the March 29 Florida Derby (G1), Tappan Street scored a workmanlike comeback victory in a second-level allowance optional claiming race Dec. 19 at Gulfstream Park.

Sidelined with a condylar fracture in his right front leg that caused him to miss the Kentucky Derby (G1) in early May and most of his 3-year-old season, Tappan Street was backed to 1-10 favoritism for Friday's mile race against five seemingly outclassed rivals. But they put up a fight, particularly front-runner and eventual runner-up Steppe, who led for 7 furlongs of the one-turn race before a pace-pressing Tappan Street wore him down to prevail by a length under Irad Ortiz Jr.

The winner, who came under pressure from Ortiz beginning on the second turn, was clocked in 1:36.22 on a fast track following splits of :23.56, :46.55, 1:10.59, and 1:23.28 set by Steppe. Tappan Street paid $2.20 to win.

"Once I started working on him, he kept coming at the end, so that was nice," Ortiz said.

The Brad Cox trainee improved to 3-1-0 in four starts with his victory. The 3-year-old bay son of Into Mischief out of the Distorted Humor mare Virginia Key earned $27,000 in Friday's $45,000 race to increase his bankroll to $670,400 for owners WinStar Farm, CHC, and Cold Press Racing. Siena Farm, CHC, and Maverick Racing, a buying arm of WinStar Farm, acquired the Blue Heaven Farm-bred colt in 2023 at Fasig-Tipton's The Saratoga Sale from the St. George consignment for $1 million.

"Good effort, workmanlike, but kind of what we expected based on what we saw of him in his first three runs. It's not as if he always gallops up to the top of the lane and wins under a hammerlock or anything," Cox said. "He's a good horse, and I thought it was a good comeback race. It's a two-other-than—that's what he's eligible for—and off that long layoff, I felt like it was the right move for him at this stage in his career. Happy with his performance."

His pedigree, conformation, and racing accomplishments make him a valuable stallion prospect when his racing career comes to a conclusion.

Elliott Walden, WinStar Farm's president/CEO and racing manager, was on-site for Friday's victory.

Friday's race served as a prep for Tappan Street's return to stakes company. One stakes option is $3 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes (G1) Jan. 24. That race is over the same conditions as the Florida Derby: 1 1/8 miles on the Gulfstream Park main track.

"We'll get him back to the top level. We'll look at the Pegasus and see how he comes out," Walden said. "The timing of this was to take a look at that and see what it looks like." BH

SKIPPYLONGSTOCKING SEEKS TO REGROUP IN HARLAN'S HOLIDAY

By Eric Mitchell

@BH_EMitchell

Multiple graded stakes winner Skippylongstocking will seek to regain the consistent form he showed earlier in the year in the $150,000 Harlan's Holiday Stakes (G3) Dec. 20 at Gulfstream Park.

The 6-year-old son of Exaggerator has not placed in his most recent two starts, but those performances were quite different from his first four starts of the year that resulted in two wins and two thirds in graded stakes company. He won the Hollywood Gold Cup Stakes (G2) at Santa Anita Park, going 1 1/4 miles, and the Challenger Stakes (G3) at Tampa Bay Downs, going 1 1/16 miles. He was also third in the Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes (G1) and the Oaklawn Handicap (G2).

"His last two races haven't been up to par. His Whitney wasn't too bad. It was his first start back. We had missed some time. He made a big run and got tired. That was kind of an OK race," said trainer Saffie Joseph Jr. referring to a seventh-place finish in the Whitney Stakes (G1) and an eighth in the Charles Town Classic Stakes (G2). "His Charles Town race was very disappointing. He got the thumps (a spasmic contraction of the diaphragm similar to hiccups in humans) in that race. It's something he's done from time to time."

Skippylongstocking is returning in the 1 1/16-mile Harlan's Holiday off a nearly four-month layoff. He returned to the work tab Nov. 7 at Palm Meadows Training Center for Joseph and has been working steadily since then, producing a 5-furlong bullet in :59.75 Dec. 5, followed by a sharp 4 furlongs in :47.70 Dec. 12.

"He's doing really, really well. He's training really well. We gave him a break. All the data that you could get back is positive," Joseph said. "He's 6 turning 7, but we feel like he's just as good now as when he's in peak form. Hopefully, that shows on Saturday."

Skippylongstocking has had a history of following up subpar performances with strong efforts.

"He's been in this position before where he hasn't run well and we've been able to get him back to form," Joseph said. "We're quietly confident that the real Skippy is going to show up."

(Top): Skippylongstocking wins the Hollywood Gold Cup Stakes at Santa Anita Park
(Bottom): Poster wins an allowance optional claiming race at Churchill Downs

Owner Daniel Alonso has been on quite a ride with Skippylongstocking, whom he bought for $37,000 out of the 2021 Ocala Breeders' Sales Spring 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale from Top Line Sales. The horse has won 11 of 34 career starts and banked $3,684,110 so far. He has three wins already at Gulfstream and four wins at the Harlan's Holiday distance.

Skippylongstocking will break from post 2 with jockey Tyler Gaffalione aboard. Gaffalione held the reins for the Challenger Stakes win and the third-place finish in the Pegasus World Cup.

Another challenger in the seven-horse field aiming to resharpen his form is Godolphin homebred Poster, a 3-year-old son of Munnings who won the Remsen Stakes (G2) at 2 and ran third in his first start of this year in the Sam F. Davis Stakes at Tampa Bay Downs. He was fourth in his next start in the Jeff Ruby Steaks (G3) at Turfway Park before being given some time off by trainer Eoin Harty. Poster returned to racing Nov. 9 at Churchill Downs in a $100,000 1-mile optional claiming race on the grass that he won by half a length. Neither the Harlan's Holiday distance nor the dirt should be an issue with Poster since the Remsen was run at 1 1/8 miles on Aqueduct Racetrack's main track. The Harlan's Holiday will be the colt's first start at Gulfstream Park.

Others with stakes credentials and previous success at Gulfstream include grade 1-placed Catalytic, a 4-year-old son of Catalina Cruiser owned by Tami Bobo and trained by Antonio Sano. The colt ran second in the 2024 Florida Derby (G1) to Fierceness and two races later was second in the Carry Back Stakes at Gulfstream. He has a 3-6-0 record from nine starts at the Hallandale Beach, Fla., track.

Amy Dunne and trainer Patrick Biancone's Classic of Course also has a stakes win at Gulfstream, having won the 7 1/2-furlong Cutler Bay Stakes on the grass back in March. The son of Awesome of Course was gelded Aug. 31 and has won twice and placed third once since that procedure. Overall, Classic of Course has a 4-3-3 record in 13 starts at Gulfstream.

Also on the Saturday card at Gulfstream is another stakes race on dirt: the $125,000 Sugar Swirl Stakes, which lured seven fillies and mares to sprint 6 furlongs. There, Nic's Style, perfect in three starts at Gulfstream Park over her nine-race career, battles millionaire Mystic Lake, last year's Sugar Swirl winner. BH

MAJOR DUDE AIMS TO ABIDE IN THE FORT LAUDERDALE

Edited Press Release

Defending race winner Major Dude and fellow millionaires Wolfie's Dynaghost and Chasing the Crown lead a stacked group of 10 older horses set to contest the $200,000 Fort Lauderdale Stakes (G3T) Dec. 20 at Gulfstream Park.

The 69th running of the Fort Lauderdale for 3-year-olds and up, scheduled for 1 1/8 miles on the grass, is the last of five stakes, two graded, worth $750,000 in purses on an 11-race Pegasus Preview Day program that begins at 12:20 p.m ET.

Named for the famed coastal city 14 miles north of Gulfstream, the Fort Lauderdale serves as the local prep for the $1 million Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational Stakes (G1T) Jan. 24. The other graded race Saturday at Gulfsteam is the $150,000 Harlan's Holiday Stakes (G3), a prep for the $3 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational Stakes (G1), the main event Jan. 24.

Spendthrift Farm's Major Dude is looking to become the Fort Lauderdale's first repeat winner after rallying for a dramatic neck victory over millionaire Fort Washington last year, one of five career stakes win and third and most recent against graded company. He has two wins and two seconds in six lifetime races at Gulfstream, including a victory in the 2023 Kitten's Joy Stakes (G3T).

"We'll give him a chance to defend his title," said Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher, who called Major Dude a "cool horse, just so consistent."

Major Dude most recently was a popular winner of the 1-mile Artie Schiller Stakes Oct. 11 on the Aqueduct Racetrack turf, boosting his career bankroll to more than $1.4 million. He is 2-for-3 at the 1 1/8-mile distance and is attempting to give Pletcher his fifth Fort Lauderdale win following Silver Medallion (2012), Mshawish (2015), and Largent (2020) prior to last year.

"Even though he won last time at Aqueduct, we didn't feel like he handled the turf course there so we felt that, knowing that he runs well fresh and he ran well in this race last year, that we would give him a little extra time in between races and point for this," Pletcher said.

Hall of Famer John Velazquez, up for the last three starts, returns to ride from post 8. They are rated at 5-1 on the morning line.

Woodslane Farm's 7-year-old homebred gelding Wolfie's Dynaghost is chasing his 14th career win, third in a row, and second straight since joining the barn of trainer Brian Lynch following a front-running 2 3/4-length triumph in the 1 1/8-mile River City Stakes (G3T) Nov. 8 at Churchill Downs.

Wolfie's Dynaghost has a history of success at Gulfstream, winning the Carousel Club overnight handicap in 2022 and 2023 over the all-weather Tapeta on the Pegasus World Cup undercard. He also ran second by a half-length in the 2022 Appleton Stakes (G3T) going a mile on the Gulfstream turf for original trainer Tom Albertrani.

Lynch previously won the Fort Lauderdale with 5-year-old Heart to Heart in 2016.

Irad Ortiz Jr. is named on Wolfie's Dynaghost, the 2-1 program favorite, from post 2.

Other contenders include Chasing the Crown, Cugino, Beach Gold, and Divin Propos.

The Fort Lauderdale is one of three turf stakes Saturday at Gulfsteam, the others being the 5-furlong Janus Stakes and 1-mile Suwannee River Stakes. The nine-horse Janus includes last year's winner, Coppola, as well as graded stakes winner Reef Runner, fourth in the Nov. 1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T) at Del Mar. Later, a deep cast of 11 fillies and mares races in the Suwannee River, a wide-open race that includes recent $500,000 acquisition Crevalle d'Oro.

THE JOCKEY CLUB LISTS INCENTIVE PROGRAM MARES FOR 2026

Edited Press Release

The Jockey Club today made available the list of mares in the 2026 Mare Incentive Program, which waives registration fees for certain 2027 foals of mares that meet criteria defined by The Jockey Club.

The list of mares in the 2025 pilot program was searched more than 3,100 times, and 228 mares were bred as part of the program.

"We were pleased to see how many searches were performed and how many mares were brought back into production," said James L. Gagliano, president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club. "The feedback has been extremely positive, and we look forward to seeing how many more mares are brought back next year."

"This is such a fantastic tool for breeders," said David O'Farrell, owner and manager of Ocala Stud. "We saw a few very nice mares that were part of the program this year, and we hope to see more from the 2026 list."

The program is designed to stimulate interest in breeding mares that appear to have left production. Their additions would increase the overall number of active broodmares and, in turn, the number of registered foals in North America.

The criteria are for mares divided into two age groups. The first are for mares from 6 to 9 years old as of Jan. 1, 2026:

- A registered Thoroughbred
- Name registered with The Jockey Club
- No race starts in the past two years (2024 and 2025)
- Not reported as the dam of a foal in the past two years
- Not reported as covered by a stallion in the past two years
- Not exported to a foreign country from the U.S., Canada, or Puerto Rico with the export as the last movement of record
- Not reported dead

The second are for mares aged 10 to 19 as of Jan. 1, 2026. These mares must meet the criteria above and must have produced a registered foal in 2022 and/or 2023.

The 2026 list of mares meeting the criteria comprises 22,243 mares. In 2025, there were 23,090 mares.

The report of Mare Incentive Program mares is available to anyone with an Interactive Registry account and is filterable by 12 data elements, including sire, dam sire, age, money earned, and class of race achieved. Users can also search by mare name. The list includes all mares that meet the criteria for their age group.

POLITICS TAKES A HOLIDAY THANKS TO ALL-STAR JOCKEYS

By Jay Hovdey
𝕏 @JayHovdey

In case anyone hasn't noticed, jockeys are tough nuts to crack. They take their lives in their hands every time they throw a leg over a Thoroughbred. They ride with less protection than a mail carrier. Little wonder, then, that a group of jockeys based in Florida and California would respectfully choose to disregard the following alert from the United States Department of State warning Americans to steer clear of the sovereign nation of Venezuela:

"Do not travel to or remain in Venezuela due to the high risk of wrongful detention, torture in detention, terrorism, kidnapping, arbitrary enforcement of local laws, crime, civil unrest, and poor health infrastructure."

Sounds like a Netflix series pitch. Then again, if you are traveling to Venezuela with Javier Castellano, arbitrary enforcement of local laws is not a problem, and prepare to be treated like royalty.

Last Sunday, Dec. 13, Castellano led a delegation of half a dozen stateside riders to Caracas, where Hipodromo La Rinconada Hippodrome sits nestled against the lush green hillsides in the southern part of the Venezuelan capital. The occasion was an all-star event, brought to life by track operator Antonio Alvarez, Venezuela's former Minister of Sports who for the last seven years has been tasked with a revitalization of the Thoroughbred racing industry.

Mike Smith

In his youth, Alvarez was a baseball star who was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates. He earned the nickname "El Potro"—"the young horse"—for his exciting playing style in the outfield and on the basepaths.

Besides Castellano, the participating U.S. riders corralled by Alvarez included Joel Rosario, John Velazquez, Katie Davis, Mike Smith, and Ricardo Santana Jr. Three local riders completed the fields in six events over La Rinconada's dirt track.

Javier Castellano

Because of the increasing U.S. military presence in the Caribbean Sea directed at vessels sailing from Venezuela, both private and commercial travel from regional airports to Caracas has become inconsistent, and perhaps even downright dangerous.

On Dec. 12, a JetBlue Airways flight leaving the island of Curacao to the north of Venezuela, bound for New York's JFK International Airport, halted its ascent to avoid hitting a U.S. Air Force tanker. On Dec. 13, the day before the all-star event, the pilots of a private business jet flying from Aruba to Miami narrowly avoided a collision, also with an Air Force refueling tanker.

"Because we couldn't fly straight in to Caracas from Miami, we had to fly first to Columbia and stayed the night there," Mike Smith said. "Then the next morning, Sunday, we had an early flight on a private plane to Venezuela, which was about an hour and 40 minutes. We landed, they dropped us off at the hotel, then we headed right to the track."

La Rinconada Hippodrome made its debut in 1959, designed by the American architect Arthur Froehlich. The Froehlich firm also designed Hollywood Park, Keeneland, and the 1960s renovation of Belmont Park, now giving way to another modern version.

According to reports, the three grandstand sections at La Rinconada were packed for the Sunday program, drawing some 25,000 of the Venezuelan faithful.

"I couldn't take two steps without somebody wanting to take a picture," Smith said. "You'd have thought I was LeBron James. People shouting out 'Zenyatta! Justify!' And the jocks there—I had to take 10 pictures with every one of them.

"Javier is the man down there," Smith went on. "They've got a statue of him at the track, just like Laffit Pincay in Panama. For our event, there was big picture of his face inside a giant horseshoe right at the wire. I didn't win a race, but I did finish a good second. I told Javier I would have won if my horse hadn't propped when he saw that face."

Of course, the endorsement of a paid celebrity should always be taken with a grain of salt. But Smith is the kind of guy who, if displeased, usually will simply decline to comment. And if Antonio Alvarez is to be taken for his word in public pronouncements, he seems dedicated to restore Venezuelan racing to the storied days that nurtured Canonero II, winner of the 1971 Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes, and the mare Trinycarol, who amassed the equivalent of $2.6 million during the booming 1980s, as well as fostered the early careers of Junior Alvarado, Ramon Dominguez, Eibar Coa, Sonny Leon, and Emisael Jaramillo.

By winning two of the six all-star races, Katie Davis put a welcomed cherry on an otherwise tumultuous 2025 for the riding Davis clan. On June 1 at Finger Lakes in upstate new York, Katie's older sister, Jacky, was well on her way to 1,000 career winners when she suffered two fractured ribs, three additional displaced rib fractures, multiple abrasions, a liver laceration, and an air pocket near her lung. She has yet to return to competition.

Davis was also among those invited to participate, along with his sister, in the Caracas all-star event.

"This is how nice that man Antonio Alvarez is," Smith said. "When Dylan got hurt, Alvarez still insisted he was paid his full appearance fee. And if Dylan felt up to it, he was invited to come as an honorary guest. Dylan was still hurting some and a ways from his return, but he felt obligated to show up. So there he was to watch Katie win two races and finish second in the competition to Ricardo Santana."

As for Katie Davis, she is on her way to her best season in terms of mount earnings, with just shy of $3 million going into the final days of the year. Her double at La Rinconada does not count in the Equibase stats, but her presence in the U.S. contingent represented an invaluable boost to the image of the North American sport, which used to be blessed with any number of female jockey stars. Davis is the top earner among women in 2025, ranking 97th on the list.

"You should have heard the crowd after she won her second race," Castellano said. "They were yelling 'Katie! Katie! Katie!' The kids were mobbing her for pictures."

Even Mike Smith, who after nearly 44 years at the job has seen it all and then some, was a little dazzled by the reception.

"I've been blessed to have gone to a lot of these type of things, and they're all great," Smith said. "But this was something special. It was crazy good. And I wouldn't hesitate to ride any of my horses right back."

During the reigns of Venezuelan president Hugo Chavez and his controversial successor, Nicolas Maduro, the people of Venezuela have been subjected to all manner of internal strife and international pressure, including severe economic sanctions imposed during both the first and second U.S. presidential administrations of Donald Trump.

"Everyone there knows what's going on," Smith said. "But coming from America, we were made to feel very welcome."

Besides the airborne attacks by U.S. forces on small vessels alleged to be part of state-sponsored drug trafficking, Venezuelan oil tankers are now subject to blockades by the powerful American fleet, and members of Maduro's family and inner circle have been targeted by the U.S. Department of Treasury.

"Politics is very hard to deal with everywhere, and it's no different in Venezuela," said Castellano, a winner of four Eclipse Awards. "I love America. I became a citizen about 14 years ago. But it is always good to go back there, because it is a beautiful country. And people are very passionate about racing."

Once again, Thoroughbred racing provided an oasis in the midst of strife. It was left to Katie Davis to provide the last and best sentiment:

"At the end of the day, it's your life on the line, just like horse racing, when our lives are on the line," she said. "And I come in peace." BH

OBITUARY: WEATHERBY SHAPED ASCOT, INTERNATIONAL RACING

By Richard Birch/Racing Post

EDWARD WHITAKER/RACING POST

Johnny Weatherby at Ascot in 2020

Sir Johnny Weatherby, a member of one of racing's most famous families, and whose many achievements in the sport included modernizing Ascot, died Dec. 18 at the age of 66.

Weatherby, whose family firm Weatherbys is primarily responsible for providing racing administration services to the British Horseracing Authority, followed his father Christopher as chair of the business in 1993. He was the breeder of dual Cheltenham Festival winner Presenting Percy and the owner of Top Wood, winner of the Foxhunters' Chase at Aintree in 2019.

Nick Craven, executive director of Weatherbys, said in a statement: "Sir Johnny was a figure of immense stature within our sport. From his early days as an amateur jockey for David Nicholson to his transformative tenure as chairman of Weatherbys (1993-2022), and his distinguished service as her majesty's representative at Ascot (2011-20), he embodied the very best of the turf's traditions while driving the industry into the modern era.

"A member of The Jockey Clubs of both Britain and the USA and chairman of the International Stud Book Committee, Johnny was a global ambassador for the Thoroughbred. Yet, he will be remembered most by his friends and peers for his energy, foresight, ambition, and unwavering dedication to the integrity of the sport.

"He moved with equal ease through every corner of the racing world. His loss leaves a significant gap in the administrative and social heart of the industry."

> "Johnny Weatherby was a towering figure in the international racing and breeding community, continuing a distinguished family tradition of service to the sport."
> —WINFRIED ENGELBRECHT-BRESGES

Weatherby joined Weatherbys in 1979 and served as a director of The Jockey Club (Britain) from 1990-92. He was involved in Ascot Racecourse for more than 20 years, first as a trustee, and then as chairman, and acted as her majesty's representative at Ascot from 2011-20.

Charles Barnett, who worked with him at Ascot during the period 2007-15, said: "He was a great man, and has died far too young.

"I worked with him at Ascot. He was a very good person to work for; he was decisive and fair, and really good fun. We had good times together. His death is a very sad loss."

Guy Henderson, who was chief executive at Ascot from 2015-22, said: "A sad day. Sir Johnny devoted over a quarter of a century to Ascot alongside a lifetime of work in his family businesses within the Weatherbys group. He was devoted to Ascot and totally focused on the quality of the venue, its racing, and its clientele across the spectrum having a great time. He was a supportive and visionary chairman and it was a privilege to serve Ascot under his chairmanship.

"My thoughts and prayers go to his widow Sophie and all his family."

A statement from Ascot read: "All of us at Ascot are deeply saddened by the news of Sir Johnny Weatherby's death. Johnny played an immensely important role in Ascot's history between 1997-2020, first as a trustee, then chairman, and her majesty's representative. Our deepest sympathies go to his entire family, but especially to Sophie, Isabella, Jack, Max, and Lara."

Jockeys at Ascot Friday and Saturday will wear black armbands as a mark of respect.

Brant Dunshea, acting CEO for the BHA, added his tribute. It read: "Everyone at the BHA was saddened to learn of the death of Sir Johnny Weatherby today and on behalf of us all, I extend our deepest condolences to his family and friends at this tremendously sad time. Quite simply, Johnny loved our sport and that great passion was evident in his work across such a broad range of the industry. His love for the horses and those who worked with them was always clear to see and his loss is one that will be keenly felt."

His loss will be felt throughout the racing world.

"Johnny Weatherby was a towering figure in the international racing and breeding community, continuing a distinguished family tradition of service to the sport," said International Federation of Horseracing Authorities chair Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges. "His leadership and vision were felt most strongly on the global stage through his role as chairman of the International Stud Book Committee, which was established through the International Conference of Horseracing Authorities, with his father, Christopher Weatherby, serving as the ISBC's first chairman."

"Johnny served the Thoroughbred tirelessly throughout his career, notably as chairman of Weatherbys and as Her Majesty's representative at Ascot. He will be deeply missed by the international racing community, and, on behalf of the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities, I extend my sincere and heartfelt condolences to his family and friends at this difficult time."

HEART OF HONOR, OPERA BALLO, IMPERIAL EMPEROR SHINE

By Bob Kieckhefer

DUBAI RACING CLUB

Heart of Honor wins the Entisar at Meydan Racecourse

Heart of Honor made his case for a shot at the biggest dirt races of the early season, Opera Ballo made a case as Godolphin's top middle-distance turf runner, and Imperial Emperor reigned in the Al Maktoum Mile (G2) on Festive Friday Dec. 19 at Meydan Racecourse.

Heart of Honor, second just a nose in the UAE Derby (G2) last season and then fifth in the Preakness Stakes (G1) and sixth in the Belmont Stakes (G1) continued his progression into the top ranks with a lightning-quick move to the front and a 1 1/2-length victory in the Entisar on the Meydan dirt.

Artorius was second and Walk of Stars third. With Saffie Osborne up for trainer Jamie Osborne, Heart of Honor, a 3-year-old by Honor A. P., improved to 2-for-2 in the Carnival.

"Today was a big ask for him and he's shown what a quality horse he is," Saffie Osborne said. "Now we can get excited."

Heart of Honor posted three straight second-place finishes at Meydan last season before his owners opted to bypass the Kentucky Derby (G1) in favor of the Preakness. He went on from that to the Belmont and was put away for the rest of the year, then gelded with an eye toward developing him toward the 2026 Saudi Cup (G1) and Dubai World Cup (G1).

OPERA BALLO VICTORIOUS IN AL RASHIDIYA

Godolphin fielded the only three who mattered in the Al Rashidiya (G2T) at 1,800 meters on the turf and Opera Ballo proved best of the best. The tip was William Buick's decision to take the mount on the 3-year-old Ghaiyyath colt, eschewing stablemates Nations Pride and First Conquest.

Opera Ballo wins the Al Rashidiya at Meydan Racecourse

After waiting behind horses, Nations Pride took the lead early in the straight but then quickly gave way to Opera Ballo, who ran on without much encouragement to win by 3 lengths. First Conquest was third.

"We were keen tonight for William to get him in behind horses and get him to settle," said Charlie Appleby, who trains all three for Sheik Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Godolphin. "We saw the Opera Ballo we always hoped to see."

Appleby said the goal now is one more test to see if the colt is good enough for World Cup night. Asked his opinion on that topic, Buick said, "Absolutely. We always thought he was a horse worthy of going to the top at some point."

SEEMAR TRAINEES DOMINATE AL MAKTOUM MILE

Imperial Emperor, the favorite, had all he could do to hold safe stablemate Commissioner King in the final 100 meters of the Al Maktoum Mile on the Meydan dirt. He finally prevailed by 1 1/2 lengths over that rival with Mendelssohn Bay third. All three are trained by Bhupat Seemar, who had eight of the 13 starters in the race.

Imperial Emperor won last year's Al Maktoum Classic (G2) going 1 1/4 miles but finished 11th in the Dubai World Cup, leaving Seemar on the horns of a dilemma.

"Coming back to a mile, I'm glad we did that because we hadn't tightened all the bolts," the trainer said. "He's obviously very talented at a mile. But he's good at a mile and a quarter, too."

Winning rider Tadhg O'Shea had a more direct opinion.

"I think he's a nicer ride going farther," O'Shea said. "He's a lazy miler."

Cover Up, with Buick up for Simon and Ed Crisford, won the listed Ertijaal Dash at 1,000 meters (about 5 furlongs) on the turf for the second straight year. The Exceed And Excel gelding had won only once in eight intervening starts. BH

ASAHI HAI FUTURITY CONTINUES JAPAN'S 2-YEAR-OLD RUN

By Bob Kieckhefer

The parade of Japan's top 2-year-olds rolls on with a very competitive renewal of the Asahi Hai Futurity (G1T) Dec. 21 at Hanshin Racecourse.

The Futurity follows by a week the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (G1T), won by Star Anise. Last up is the Hopeful Stakes (G1T) Dec. 27 at Nakayama Racecourse.

The 2,000-meter (about 1 1/4-mile) Hopeful normally is the destination of choice for 2-year-olds being primed for the following season's classics. The Futurity, at 1,600 meters (about 1 mile), is more for colts and fillies whose options may be constrained by distance limits.

The 2023 winner, Jantar Mantar, went on to win the 2024 NHK Mile Cup (G1T) at Tokyo Racecourse and this year's Yasuda Kinen (G1T) and Mile Championship (G1T).

On the flip side, Do Deuce parlayed a 2021 Futurity victory into a quite satisfactory career going longer, winning the 2022 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby, G1T) and 2024 Japan Cup (G1T), both at 2,400 meters (about 1 1/2 miles), and the 2023 Arima Kinen (G1T) at 2,500 meters (1 9/16 miles).

This year's field looks competitive with many of the runners exiting various graded races for 2-year-olds at Tokyo, Kyoto, and Niigata in the past few months.

Admire Quads (inside) wins the Daily Hai Nisai Stakes at Kyoto Racecourse

Admire Quads, an undefeated Real Steel colt trained by Yasuo Tomomichi, won on debut at Tokyo going 1 mile in October. He followed that by winning the Daily Hai Nisai Stakes (G2T), at the same distance, in record time at Kyoto in November. Cavallerizzo, second by just a head in the Daily Hai, returns, too.

"The jockey (Ryusei Sakai) has been working him on the woodchip course and thinks the horse's footwork has improved," Tomomichi said. "He's easy to switch on and off and there doesn't seem to be any bad points with him."

Also 2-for-2, Realize Sirius reprised his maiden win in June with a victory in the Niigata Nisai Stakes (G3T) in August. Both wins were at 1 mile and were visually impressive. Jockey Akihide Tsumura, who was aboard for both, keeps the mount.

"He's better now for a recent piece of work," Tsumura said, "and is more relaxed now. He has a nice, big stride. One thing will be how he handles the gate to get into a good rhythm."

Another colt undefeated after two starts, Ecoro Alba, scored in his first start at Niigata in July, going 1,400 meters (about 7 furlongs), then won the 1-mile Saudi Arabia Royal Cup (G3T) in October at Tokyo—often a key prep for the Futurity. The Mozu Ascot colt is a hot closer with an impressive turn of foot.

"He's moving well," trainer Yasuhito Tamura said. "And his reactions are better now than at the time of the Saudi Arabia Royal Cup. It'll be interesting to watch him run in this next race."

Among the others, Diamond Knot, by Bricks and Mortar, comes off a win in the Keio Hai Nisai Stakes (G2T) at 1,400 meters at Tokyo Racecourse. Christophe Lemaire rides. And Florent Geroux, still looking for the first win on his short-term license in Japan, takes the leg up on Tagano Aralia, a likely long shot.

There are two fillies in the 14-horse field—White Orchid, by Kizuna, and Cosmo Red, a daughter of California Chrome. Both won their only previous start.

The course presents a particular challenge for any runner with stamina questions, as it features rising ground in the final 100 meters before the finish. BH
